A Community Centered In Christ, Nurtured by the Sacraments & Teachings of the Church; Committed to Excellence In Education, Living A Life of Service, Leadership, and Compassion.

Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

Making sense of the Coming and Going of Love.

- Liturgically, I remember having options to celebrate either 6 or 7th Sunday of Easter because of the closeness of the Feast of Ascension that maybe celebrated during the week. However, since each gospel speaks of the “farewell discourse” of Jesus it did not matter much for me. So, my point is, what kind of farewell address? Messages such as “Do not let your hearts be troubled, or “Do not be afraid, have been coming and going at center stage.
- Almost a month ago, with hundreds of front liners infected and dying in trying to contain and protect people from the deadly spreading of COVID 19, I was compelled to send a text to all my medical friends, and ask them to be extra careful because of its impending danger. Somehow, my concern reminds me of Jesus’s last supper messages. Departures have never been a good memory for me.
- WE KNOW THE COMMANDMENT OF JESUS TO LOVE.
But do we know, what kind of love it is?
WHAT IS THIS LOVE THAT IS BEING TALKED ABOUT?
Is this love directed to Jesus?
Will the apostles still love Him when they feel He has left them? Abandoned?
Can the disciples still love Him, in His absence? Where is the Lord?
Can a young person know Him without a personal relationship w/ Him at all?
- Genuine love must express itself in deeds and truth. (St Chrysostom) Not just in words and speech, in emotions and feelings. What is this love? INSEPARABLE F/S/HS.
- How was this Love manifested/demonstrated? Commandment & Promise.
- Our Readings emphasize this demonstration of God’s love present in the Acts of the apostles that amidst chaos and hardships, we as followers of Christ, we must proclaim the love Jesus taught us. Guided by the Spirit and empowered by the love of God we can now be confident of God’s gift of love present in our lives and in our church and can be seen in the unity of faith and service that we share with one another. By living the commandment of love we come and go in the newness of life that Jesus promises us.

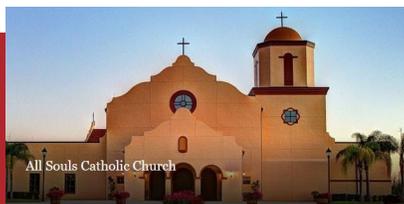

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

Dando sentido a la Venida y Partida del amor.

- Litúrgicamente, recuerdo haber tenido la opción de festejar el sexto o séptimo domingo de Pascua, por la cercanía de éste a la Fiesta de la Ascensión, que puede celebrarse durante la semana. Sin embargo, porque cada evangelio habla del “discurso de despedida” de Cristo, a mí me daba lo mismo. El punto que trato de recalcar es, ¿Qué tipo de discurso de despedida? Los mensajes como “No dejen que sus corazones se preocupen”, o “No teman”, han ido y venido del centro del escenario por mucho tiempo.
- Hace casi un mes, con cientos de personas en el frente infectados y muriendo al tratar de contener y proteger al prójimo del mortal COVID-19 que seguía propagándose, me sentí impulsado a enviar un texto a mis amigos en la profesión médica, pidiéndoles que tomaran precauciones adicionales por el peligro inminente. De alguna manera, mis preocupaciones me recuerdan del mensaje de Jesús en la última cena. Las despedidas nunca han sido una buena memoria para mí.
- SABEMOS DEL MANDAMIENTO DE CRISTO DE AMAR.
¿Pero, sabemos que tipo de amor es éste?
¿DE QUÉ AMOR ESTAMOS HABLANDO?
¿Es éste el amor dirigido hacia Jesús?
¿Lo amarán todavía los apóstoles cuando sientan que El los ha dejado? ¿Abandonado?
¿Pueden todavía los discípulos amarlo en Su ausencia? ¿Dónde está el Señor?
¿Puede un joven conocerlo sin tener una relación personal con El?
- El amor auténtico debe ser expresado por medio de hechos y verdades. (San Crisóstomo) No solamente en palabras y discursos, en emociones y sentimientos. ¿Qué es el amor? Inseparable F/S/HS.
- ¿Cómo fue este amor manifestado/demostrado? Mandamiento y promesa.
- Nuestras lecturas recalcan esta demostración del amor de Dios, presente en los Hechos de los apóstoles que en medio de caos y dificultades, nosotros como seguidores de Cristo debemos proclamar el amor que Jesús nos enseñó. Guiados por el espíritu y empoderados por el amor de Dios, podemos tener confianza del don del amor de Dios, que se encuentra presente en nuestras vidas y en nuestra iglesia, y que puede verse en la unidad de fe y servicio que compartimos el uno con el otro. Al vivir el mandamiento de amor, podemos venir y partir en la novedad de vida que Jesús nos promete.

Gospel Meditation For Your Day

“We hope for many things: passing an exam, finding our true love, securing sustainable work, or surviving an illness. We often seek to have God be a part of what we hope for and desire, almost trying to convince Him that our agenda is what is ultimately important. While our particular hopes may appear to be what needs to be achieved in order for us to be happy, they really are not. Our lesser, more personal hopes can distract us from true hope.

When God became a human being, a powerful message was sent: all that is authentically human is found in the divine. As the human Jesus lived and died in order to show us that he truly is the universal Christ, we have to keep our sight focused on our eternal truth and destiny and who we truly are. We have to be careful when we allow our earthly concerns to distract us. True hope is found when we place our trust in Christ’s promises and don’t rely on our own strength. True hope focuses on striving toward the fulfillment of God’s promises and not simply on achieving what we think we need in this life. Hope always travels with two friends — faith and love. In this trio of virtues, we find the very presence of God born in every human being. These are God’s greatest gifts, and they lead us to the fullness of His presence.

As with faith and love, we cannot see hope with just our human eyes. We don’t carry this virtue within us to use solely for our own personal agenda. Hope is not something that simply comes with the human package. As with faith and love, hope is a gift that is given to us to draw us closer to our eternal truth. Faith, hope, and love are signs that there is something far greater going on in us and something greater to persevere in obtaining. The true divine gift of hope is what will endure any hardship we encounter, especially those that will come from authentically living the Gospel. With all that is happening in our lives, in our church, and in our world, what is the reason for our hope? Ask God for the fortitude to see His eternal gift as the reason we get up in the morning and do the things we do. ©LPi

St. Vincent de Paul Needs Your Help!

Dear Friends in Christ,
Our food pantry shelves are emptying quickly and we are in need of several items, to help others. But, virus worries and stay-at-home orders are making it more difficult to receive food directly. So, we are humbly asking for food gift cards and monetary donations.

Many families are hurting at this time, due to the economic and health impact of the Covid-19 virus. We need your help to stock our shelves, using alternative donations for those families and affected individuals.

Whatever you can do to help would be greatly appreciated. Those who struggle in their daily lives are finding these days of uncertainty even more difficult. We pray for you, our benefactors, as we pray for those in need.

May God bless you and keep you safe!
Society of St Vincent de Paul

Vincentian Reflections

“In today’s Gospel, Jesus says to us: “If you love me, you will keep my commandments. Whoever loves me will be loved by my Father and I will love him and reveal myself to him. When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace, and joy into our hearts, into our lives and through us into the hearts of those who are poor.”

We Give Together

A Story To Share

Debbie’s hours at work were cut and her daughter has been furloughed. Money is tight for this Sanford family and the rent is still due the 1st of the month. We helped with the shortfall and kept Debbie in her apartment. Please keep Debbie and her children in your prayers. Your generosity allows us to help others. We are blessed.

Help Us Help Others

We extend a BIG thank you to the All Souls parishioner who sent us a $10 check. Another of our neighbors contributed $25; yet another mailed us $5. It all adds up and your generosity helps us provide food to our brothers and sisters in need. Donations in any amount also help us keep the lights on and people in their homes.

Tax-deductible donations can be mailed to:

All Souls Catholic School

Steeped in Tradition, Immersed In Technology!

Our school is a Microsoft Teams school, so transitioning to Distance Learning was relatively seamless. We are able to continue teaching new content, enjoy sharing class projects and teaching in live classrooms, and continue grading so our students can be prepared for the next grade level. The students in grade 4 to 8 were accustomed to MS Teams as projects and assignments were turned in on Teams regularly prior to the COVID 19 situation. The ability to communicate with our students instantly through teams has allowed our teachers the ability to offer continuous support as well as challenge all levels of learners.

Our school not only posts recorded lessons for students to view and review, but our faculty hosts daily live classes so students can ask questions, share projects, and most importantly, pray and be social together. At a time when it is easy to feel isolated, our students can count on seeing their teachers, friends and occasional guests that pop in to live classes to say "hello".

Our 1st grade teacher invited the principal to join her students as they unburied the Alleluia after Easter in a live online prayer service and concluded with everyone singing together. Our 5th grade students experienced an online Escape Room and presented in the first person their historical figure in the Living Museum in a live online classroom.

The principal has been called into the 3rd grade live classroom to give awards out to students excelling in math, and invited to join 4th grade for a "Friday Fun" class as they brought their pets into the live online classroom!

Our parents and students have been amazing at adjusting to Distance Learning. It has not always been easy, but our families are steadfast in their desire to help their children continue to live, love and learn through Christ! Our ASCS families have shown incredible support for the faculty during this time of transition. We love our ASCS community!

God is good and we are blessed at All Souls Catholic School!

St. Cristóbal Magallanes & Companions

(d. between 1915 and 1937)

Like Blessed Miguel Agustín Pro, SJ, Cristóbal and his 24 companion martyrs lived under a very anti-Catholic government in Mexico, one determined to weaken the Catholic faith of its people. Churches, schools, and seminaries were closed; foreign clergy were expelled. Cristóbal established a clandestine seminary at Totatiche, Jalisco. He and the other priests were forced to minister secretly to Catholics during the presidency of Plutarco Calles (1924-28).

All of these martyrs, except three, were diocesan priests. David, Manuel and Salvador were laymen who died with their parish priest, Luis Batis. They all belonged to the Cristero movement, pledging their allegiance to Christ and to the Church that he established, to spread the Good News in society—even if Mexico's leaders had made it a crime to receive baptism or celebrate the Mass.

Initially, written into governmental law, specific prohibitions were declared in regards to organized religion. For example, wearing clerical garb in public (i.e., outside Church buildings) earned a fine of 500 pesos (approximately $250 U.S. dollars at the time); a priest who criticized the government could be imprisoned for five years. Some states enacted oppressive measures permitting only a single priest to serve the entire Catholic congregation of the state. Church property was seized, foreign priests were expelled, and all monasteries, convents, and religious schools were closed.

St. Cristóbal was killed without trial on the way to say Mass during the Cristero War after the trumped up charge of inciting rebellion. These 25 Mexican martyrs did not die as a single group but over 22 years time in eight Mexican states, with Jalisco and Zacatecas having the largest number. They were beatified in 1992, by Pope St. John Paul II, and canonized eight years later.

And The Bible Says...

And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, which the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows it. But you know it, because it remains with you, and will be in you. - Jn 14:16-18

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

FAITH FORMATION

Registration is still in the works. Please watch the parish website, bulletin, social media and your e-mails for the new updated program options as well as registrations.

FIRST EUCHARIST/CONFIRMATION/R.C.I.A.

For the time being, these remain suspended until further notice. Families will be notified via Flocknote, the parish bulletin and website just as soon as any new information is handed down from the Diocese. Thank you all for your continued support and understanding during these uncertain times.

Share Your Story...

As a child of God, you have a powerful story to tell. Sharing how you came to Jesus and the difference He's made in your life can help others discover how they, too, can know God personally.

Maybe you're afraid to share your story or faith because you don't know what to say. Remember that God does not call the equipped; He equips the called—and as Christians, we are all called to share what Christ has done in our lives.

Email your personal witness to: bulletin@allsoulssanford.org. Keep stories short, about 175 words or less. If your story is selected, we'll publish it (anonymously if you prefer) in a future issue of this Bulletin. Thank You!

"Y yo rogaré al Padre y les dará otro Protector que permanecerá siempre con ustedes, El Espíritu de Verdad, a quien el mundo no puede recibir, porque no lo ve ni lo conoce. Pero ustedes lo conocen, porque está con ustedes y permanecerá en ustedes." - Jn 14, 16-18

Harvest Festival Craft Booth

Donate Your One-Of-A-Kind Crafts or Gently Used Items!

Spending your time cleaning out your house/garage? Maybe we can use your never used or gently used items for the Harvest

Festival Basket Raffle Booth. Maybe you are cleaning out your craft area? We can use that for the Craft Booth.

During the current Covid-19 situation, when many families find themselves at home, it might be a good time to go through those closets you've been meaning to clean out, or to work with the kids on crafts. Please save some of those gently used or new items you may decide to dispose of, or some of those crafts you may create, for the Basket Raffle or Craft Booth. It's a great way to be doubly productive while at home, and give yourself a boost!

If you are interested in making donations, Contact Sue Mohr 407-415-1918 or Email us at stc32771@hotmail.com.

Planned Parenthood Contributions To Federal Candidates

Year	Democrats	Republicans	Total

2014	$584,305	$2,823	$587,128

Our Government gives our tax dollars to Planned Parenthood, then Planned Parenthood gives money to Political Candidates.

Is this why Congress wants to continue to give money to Planned Parenthood?
