A MESSAGE FROM Our Pastor

Pg. 1

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

"Peace be with you!" These were the first words spoken by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ when he first appeared to his disciples in the upper room. Even with this reassurance, the disciples were still terrified and confused because they had just witnessed Jesus crucified and lifeless days prior. Fear is the normal human response to the unknown and incomprehensible, and Jesus understands this completely. Rather than demanding blind faith, Jesus kindly invites them to rationalize and internalize the situation – to consider and experience the Resurrection reality for themselves.

"Look at my hands and feet", he says, "it is I myself". Witnessing his hands and feet, marked by the same wounds from his execution, the disciples were filled with joy and amazement. Yet, Jesus does not stop here, but goes further. He eats in front of them to prove that he is truly and fully ALIVE. Having flesh and bones confirms bodily existence, but Jesus was not simply existing; he consumes food to show them that he has truly Risen, fully alive. He has overcome our last enemy, death itself! (cf. 1 Cor. 15:26)

When we experience fear and confusion in life, Jesus asks us the same questions: "Why are you troubled? Why do questions arise in your hearts?" Beckoning us to love and trust, he asks us to contemplate: "Are my wounds not enough? Why do you still doubt?" There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for the beloved! (John 15:13) So why do we still doubt God's love if Christ has already suffered and died for us?

Understanding our humanity, our Lord is willing to reassure us time and time again by giving us signs and miracles to show that he is truly, fully PRESENT and ALIVE, active in every moment of our lives. The most important miracles are those of CONVERSIONS that still occur today. As St. Peter exhorts us, "Repent and be converted so that your sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord!" (Acts 3:19)

Christ is our ever-present Lord and Advocate, alive across space and time, loving us beyond inequities, reaffirming his compassion for us, and commissioning us share the goodness and TRUTH to others. As the first disciples were witnesses and missionaries, we are also called be witnesses to Christ's saving presence and merciful love, and to proclaim the Good News so that all may have the opportunity to share in the joy of Christ's Resurrection reality.

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, "¡La paz esté con ustedes!" Estas fueron las primeras palabras de nuestro Señor y Salvador Jesucristo cuando primero se apareció entre los discípulos en el cuarto de arriba. Inclusive con este consuelo, los discípulos permanecían aterrorizados y confundidos porque sólo días antes, habían sido testigos de Cristo crucificado y sin vida. El miedo es la respuesta normal humana a lo desconocido e incomprensible, y Jesús entiendo esto plenamente. En lugar de exigir fe ciega, Jesús amablemente los invita a racionalizar e internalizar la situación – a considerar y vivir la realidad de la Resurrección por sí mismos.

"Vean mis manos y mis pies", El les dice. "Soy yo mismo". Al ser testigos de sus manos y sus pies, marcados por las mismas heridas de su ejecución, los discípulos se llenan de gozo y asombro. Sin embargo, Jesús no se detiene en esto, sino que va más allá. El come frente a ellos para demostrarles que está verdadera y completamente VIVO. Tener carne y hueso confirma Su existencia corporal, pero Jesús no sólo existe; consume comida para demostrarles que ha verdaderamente resucitado; está enteramente vivo. El ha vencido a nuestro último enemigo - ¡la misma muerte! (1 Corintios 15:26)

Cuando nosotros sufrimos temor y confusión en nuestras vidas, Jesús nos hace la misma pregunta: "¿Están preocupados? ¿Qué preguntas surgen en sus corazones?" Llamándonos con amor y confianza, El nos pide que contemplemos: ¿Son mis heridas suficiente o no son? ¿Por qué todavía dudan?" ¡No existe mayor amor que dar la vida propia por un ser amado! (Juan 15:13) ¿Por qué entonces dudamos el amor de Dios, si Cristo ya sufrió y murió por nosotros?

Al entender nuestra humanidad, nuestro Señor está dispuesto a tranquilizarnos una y otra vez al darnos señales de sus milagros y demostrarnos que está verdadera y completamente PRESENTE y VIVO, activo en cada momento de nuestras vidas. Los milagros más importantes son aquellos de CONVERSION que ocurren aun hoy en día. Como nos pide, "Arrepiéntanse, pues, y conviértanse, para que sean borrados sus pecados. Así el Señor hará llegar el tiempo del alivio" (Hechos 3:19).

Cristo es nuestro Señor y Defensor eternamente presente, vivo a través del tiempo y el espacio, amándonos más allá de nuestras inequidades, reaffirmando Su compasión por nosotros, y encargándonos a compartir la bondad y VERDAD con el prójimo. De la misma manera que los primeros discípulos fueron testigos y misioneros, también a nosotros se nos llama a ser testigos de la presencia salvadora y amor misericordioso de Cristo, y a proclamar la Buena Noticia para que todos puedan tener la oportunidad de compartir en el gozo de la realidad de la Resurrección de Cristo.

Gospel Meditation For Your Day

“We often act out of ignorance. Armed with the best of intentions, we think we are seeing clearly and correctly, but we are not. We don’t always understand the full meaning of things and only perceive part of the truth. Hence, our judgments and actions can be impaired by myopic, incomplete or erroneous perceptions. The meaning of life, understanding of human experience, and negotiating life’s challenges can all become skewed without proper understanding and vision. The resurrection of Christ is the corrective to our incomplete and limited view of life. Looking at things with the eyes of faith brings a depth of clarity and understanding to how we see God, ourselves, others, and the world.

Even the disciples struggled with their limited understanding and ignorant perceptions. It was only when Jesus opened their minds to understand the Scriptures that their eyes were opened. It was their “aha” moment when everything clicked. We all want the substance of our lives to come together, make sense, and have meaning. This is easier to achieve when things are going positively, and life is good. It is when suffering, disappointment, death, hardship, and injustice enter the picture that things can become unsettled and disoriented. Our faith in the goodness and love of God is tested. We tend to shift our focus on these difficult and challenging moments and do not see them within the greater picture of how God intends life to unfold. We can gain, from the passion and resurrection of Christ, the clear vision we need in order to move away from ignorance to enlightenment.

We need our “aha” moment when everything comes together and clicks. It can come in a fleeting instant when we feel totally connected with God, where we find ourselves, others and all of creation. It is a moment when all is right and good, regardless of how difficult our journey. Our “aha” moment assures us that God is here, right with us, in us and around us bringing us a gift and blessing we can receive nowhere else: peace. In those brief sacramental encounters when we are lifted up out of ourselves and centered, we can hear God say, “peace be with you,” and we feel secure. It’s okay. The resurrected Christ has the power to bring this gift to us. Some people, as they are facing their deaths, remark about this peace. When looking into the window of eternity, they experience a depth of joy and are amazed at God’s goodness and closeness. We are called to be witnesses to this Good News. ©LPi

Decorating the Church for Easter

Every year, the Art & Environment Ministry members swiftly gather just before Easter is celebrated at the church, to bring a truckload of beautiful flowers, that they tastefully display around the altar. The flowers are a symbol of new life and the elation that we feel at the resurrection of Our Lord! These dedicated ministers do similar work throughout the year, out of the limelight, but never forgotten. We deeply thank them for all they do to make sure our Easter joy and belief in Christ is always on display at All Souls!

Welcome!

All Are Welcome Here

If you are alienated or upset, we welcome you lovingly. If you are in need of forgiveness, Jesus forgives you completely — with unconditional love. If you have been hurt by the Church, we are truly sorry. If you are angry, Jesus offers you peace. If life has become burdensome, we are here to support you. We are happy you are here and want you to stay. We would like to share our lives with you. Come join us each week so we can worship God together.

All Souls Loves Visitors!

We accept anyone who wants to share in the life of the parish regardless of where they live. Please register as an affirmation of your wish to share in the community life of All Souls. Easter - Fifty Days of Rejoicing

After Lent's forty days of preparation for Easter, it would be anticlimactic to celebrate the feast of Easter for only one day. Jesus is risen! He is alive! The Church in her wisdom ensures that we celebrate the resurrection longer than we do the season of penance.

The Paschal Mystery, Christ's passion, death and resurrection, is central to our faith. Jesus conquered sin and death and reopened the gates of heaven, which were closed due to the original sin of Adam and Eve. Through His victory over death and our rebirth in baptism we share in everlasting life.

While the Resurrection is the nucleus and celebrated in our Faith every day, we particularly "exult and rejoice" during the Octave of Easter and Easter season

"The fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost are celebrated as one feast day, sometimes called 'the great Sunday'"

(General Norms for the Liturgical Year and Calendar), which echoes St. Augustine "The fifty days of Easter exclude fasts, since it is in anticipation of the banquet that awaits us on high." (Sermon 252). But fifty days of rejoicing is a long period of time to sustain joy.

There are few external manifestations in our culture that remind us of the extended feast, so we need to be intentional in different ways to keep focus on thanksgiving and joy from Easter to Pentecost.

Focus on the Easter Readings and Liturgy

The most obvious way to celebrate the Easter season is to attend extra Masses during the week and receive our glorified Christ in Holy Communion. By following the New Testament and the daily readings from the Mass we can really enter the heart of the Easter message. There are different Resurrection accounts and appearances of Christ we can meditate upon throughout the Easter season: the women meeting the angel at the tomb; Mary Magdalene meeting Jesus in the garden; John and Peter rushing to the tomb; Jesus appearing to the Apostles in the Upper Room, both without and with St. Thomas; Jesus on the shore; and of course, the disciples recognizing Jesus at Emmaus.

During the entire Easter season the first reading is always taken from the Acts of the Apostles. The Acts is so action-packed and interesting that it is perfect to read aloud to children. The Apostles and disciples of Jesus radiate pure Easter joy...something we should emulate: Christ is risen, the gates of heaven are opened and we now may share eternal life with Him!

Easter is the heart of the Church's liturgy and liturgical year. The Church gives us fifty days to give thanksgiving to God for the gift of Christ's victory over sin and death and express joy at the resurrection and opening of heaven to all men. Through our celebration of this season, let us strive to deepen our understanding of this great mystery and bear witness to Christ through our lives.

Saint Gianna Beretta Molla

(October 4, 1922 – April 28, 1962)

In less than 40 years, Gianna Beretta Molla became a pediatric physician, a wife, a mother and a saint!

She was born in Magenta near Milano, the tenth of Alberto and Maria Beretta's 13 children. An active member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society and a leader in the Catholic Action movement, Gianna also enjoyed skiing and mountain climbing. She earned degrees in medicine and surgery from the University of Pavia, eventually specializing in pediatrics. In 1952, Gianna opened a clinic in the small town of Mesero, where she met engineer Pietro Molla.

Shortly before their 1955 marriage, Gianna wrote to Pietro: "Love is the most beautiful sentiment that the Lord has put into the soul of men and women." In the next four years the Mollas had three children: Pierluigi, Mariolina, and Laura. Two pregnancies following ended in miscarriage.

Early in her fourth pregnancy, doctors discovered that Gianna had both a child and a tumor in her uterus. She allowed the surgeons to remove the tumor but not to perform the complete hysterectomy that they recommended, which would have killed the child. Seven months later in April 1962, Gianna Emanuela Molla was born at the hospital in Monza, but post-operative complications resulted in an infection for her mother. The following week Gianna Molla died at home, and was buried in the cemetery of Mesero.

Gianna Emanuela went on to become a physician herself. Gianna Beretta Molla was beatified in 1994 and canonized 10 years later. Her liturgical feast is celebrated on April 28.

With great faith and courage, Gianna Molla made the choice that enabled her daughter to be born. We can often wish that we were in different circumstances, but holiness frequently comes from making difficult choices in bad situations.

Faith Formation Updates

First Holy Communion

As part of our First Communion preparation, we will be conducting a Spirit Day Retreat on Saturday, April 24, 2021 from 10:00am to 12Noon at the church on SR 46. This is a necessary step for all those children preparing to celebrate First Holy Communion this coming May 2021. For those families who are not comfortable in large group settings a make-up packet is available. This packet may be completed and returned no later than Monday, April 26th for any children not able to attend the retreat for any reason. For those children that do attend, health and safety guidelines will be observed the entire duration of the retreat. If you should have any questions or concerns, please contact Ms. Holly at 407.322.3795.

Our Faith Community

Why Consecrate Yourself?

Why do Catholics consecrate themselves to Mary, Joseph, the Sacred Heart of Jesus, etc? As Catholics we are called to be holy so that we may spend eternity in Heaven. Consecration means "to make holy". By making an act of consecration one is making a serious commitment to respond faithfully to God's grace at work in an individual's life. While the act of consecrating one's self to St. Joseph (or the Blessed Mother, Sacred Heart of Jesus) it is ultimately made to God.

Father Calloway explains that "in consecrating yourself to St. Joseph you acknowledge that he is your spiritual father, and you want to be like him. To show it, you entrust yourself entirely to his paternal care so that he can lovingly help you acquire his virtues and become holy. Total consecration to St. Joseph means you make a formal act of filial entrustment to your spiritual father so that he can take care of your spiritual well-being and lead you to God".

The SVPD Truck is Coming!

The St. Vincent de Paul Orlando Thrift Store Truck will be at the Church on 46 before and after all Masses the weekend of April 17-18. Please bring bags of clothes, shoes, household items and small pieces of furniture. Have a larger item to donate? Give us a call for a FREE pickup of furniture and appliances.

New Screens at Church!

If you attended Mass this past weekend, you may have noticed the new screens that are in the church. They're part of a new worship aid system that will fully debut in about a five weeks. In the meantime, you can expect to see on-screen parish announcements prior to Masses, in this new format. Later in May, responsorials, music, prayers, and liturgical readings/references will be gradually phased-in. The support this system will lend to following the Mass will help both, long-time and new parishioners feel more engaged in the full experience of the Mass. It's all part of the evangelization efforts at All Souls, that bring more people to Christ.
