He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them,
"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it. - Mk 8:34-35

A Community Centered In Christ, Nurtured by the Sacraments & Teachings of the Church; Committed to Excellence In Education, Living A Life of Service, Leadership, and Compassion.

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

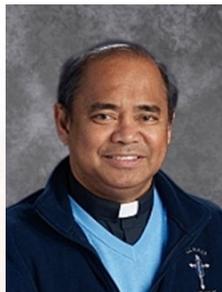

Our identity is one of the most important qualities about ourselves – who we are, where we come from, and where we are going. When we lose sight of our sense of self or place in the world, we often go through an “identity crisis”. In those moments, we find ourselves asking: Who am I? How we answer that can heal our past, define our present, and redirect our future. Today, let us reflect on the important themes of IDENTITY and MISSION in our Sunday Gospel.

Jesus knew his identity and mission as the Suffering Servant prophesied in Isaiah, but the crowds who followed often misunderstood or even rejected him. For this reason, Jesus asked his disciples: “Who do you say that I am?” Once again, Peter professes his faith: “You are the Christ.” Jesus not only affirms this but also teaches them about discipleship: “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” To his listeners, the cross evoked a chilling image of Roman execution, unlike the way we see the cross today. Jesus gives us the same criteria for discipleship. Are we willing to follow him, knowing what is asked of us?

When we find ourselves searching for an identity and purpose, let us remember who Jesus is and what he has done for us on the Cross. We are called to live out and share the Good News despite trials and persecution. “Whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it.” Like Peter, many of us want to follow Jesus but are afraid of suffering. We want the crown of life but fear martyrdom. May the Lord reassure us and free us from our fears. May the Holy Spirit transform our faith into works for the good of our brothers and sisters in need.

Are we ready to renew our mission, pick up our cross and follow Jesus? When we are misunderstood or ridiculed for our faith, can we trust in the promises of Christ?

Fr. David Vivero

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

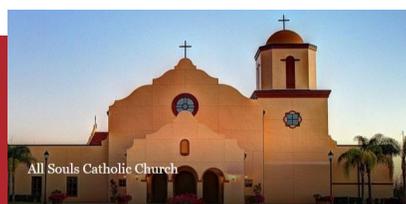

Nuestra identidad es una de las cualidades más importantes de nosotros mismos: quiénes somos, de dónde venimos y hacia dónde vamos. Cuando perdemos de vista nuestro sentido de identidad o lugar en el mundo, a menudo pasamos por una “crisis de identidad”. En esos momentos, nos preguntamos: ¿Quién soy yo? La forma en que respondemos puede sanar nuestro pasado, definir nuestro presente y redirigir nuestro futuro. Hoy, reflexionemos sobre los temas importantes de IDENTIDAD y MISIÓN en nuestro Evangelio dominical.

Jesús conocía su identidad y misión como el Siervo sufriente profetizado en Isaías, pero las multitudes que lo seguían a menudo lo malinterpretaban o incluso lo rechazaban. Por eso Jesús preguntó a sus discípulos: “¿Quién decís que soy?” Una vez más, Pedro profesa su fe: “Tú eres el Cristo”. Jesús no solo afirma esto, sino que también les enseña sobre el discipulado: “El que quiera venir en pos de mí, debe negarse a sí mismo, tomar su cruz y seguirme”. Para sus oyentes, la cruz evocaba una imagen escalofriante de ejecución romana, a diferencia de la forma en que vemos la cruz hoy. Jesús nos da los mismos criterios para el discipulado. ¿Estamos dispuestos a seguirlo, sabiendo lo que se nos pide?

Cuando nos encontremos buscando una identidad y un propósito, recordemos quién es Jesús y qué ha hecho por nosotros en la Cruz. Estamos llamados a vivir y compartir las Buenas Nuevas a pesar de las pruebas y la persecución. “El que pierda su vida por mi causa y la del evangelio, la salvará”. Como Pedro, muchos de nosotros queremos seguir a Jesús pero tenemos miedo al sufrimiento. Queremos la corona de la vida pero tememos al martirio. Que el Señor nos tranquilice y nos libere de nuestros miedos. Que el Espíritu Santo transforme nuestra fe en obras para el bien de nuestros hermanos y hermanas necesitados.

¿Estamos listos para renovar nuestra misión, tomar nuestra cruz y seguir a Jesús? Cuando somos incomprendidos o ridiculizados por nuestra fe, ¿podemos confiar en las promesas de Cristo?

Grandparents Day: Sunday, September 12th

Grandparents and grandchildren share a special relationship. To help you celebrate this holiday, here are a few ideas for making this day a special time for your family.

1) Pray Together

Use symbols such as candles, water, seeds, and the cross.

2) Make a Photograph Craft

Grandparents love photographs of their favorite kids, so incorporate pictures into a project.

3) Interview Grandparents

Times have changed since grandparents were young, and kids will be fascinated to find out what life was like when grandma and grandpa were growing up.

4) Perform a Song

A performance dedicated to your grandparents will be a special memory. Sing a song for grandma and grandpa, or send an audio or video recording.

5) Bake a Treat

Adult relatives can help kids bake muffins or cookies for their grandparents.

6) Offer Thoughtful Services

Grandparents do many things for their grandchildren, so the kids can use their own abilities to reciprocate.

7) Record Your Family's History

Family trees, scrapbooks and personal anecdotes gathered from various relatives can all be special keepsakes.

8) Hold a Sleepover

Adults can "step up and offer to coordinate a sleepover" for the grandkids at the grandparents' house.

9) Send a Homemade Card

A card is a loving gift for grandparents both near and far, especially if it's handcrafted. Or, "Make a homemade puzzle card.

10) Cook a Meal

"The kids can organize planning, preparing and serving a meal to grandma and grandpa".

No matter what you decide to do in honor of National Grandparents Day, if it's done with love, it will be special to grandma and grandpa.

We Serve...

Catholic Volunteers In Florida

Transforming Lives Through Faith and Service

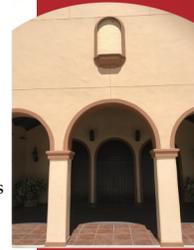

"How do we involve lay people in service to the communities in need Florida through the Church?"

Catholic Volunteers in Florida is the answer to that question. Originally known as the Augustinian Volunteers, the organization was founded by Fr. Patrick O'Neill, in 1983.

CVIF was organized to mesh two growing needs:

- 1) The interest among people (particularly Catholic laity) to give service to the community, live out our faith and promote Catholic Social Teachings.
- 2) The expanding need for human services throughout the state of Florida due to growing population, growing migrant labor force, and budget cuts.

Many volunteers say that this program has changed their lives. CVIF allows volunteers to learn the true importance of giving back to the community. Call CVIF for more: 407.426.7771

Saint John Chrysostom

T Brought to Constantinople after a dozen years of priestly service in Syria, John found himself the reluctant victim of an imperial ruse to make him bishop in the greatest city of the empire. Ascetic, unimposing but dignified, and troubled by stomach ailments from his desert days as a monk, John became a bishop under the cloud of imperial politics.

(c. 349 - September 14, 407)

If his body was weak, his tongue was powerful. The content of his sermons, his exegesis of Scripture, were never without a point. Sometimes the point stung the high and mighty. Some sermons lasted up to two hours.

His zeal led him to decisive action. Bishops who bribed their way into office were deposed. Many of his sermons called for concrete steps to share wealth with the poor. The rich did not appreciate hearing from John that private property existed because of Adam's fall from grace any more than married men liked to hear that they were bound to marital fidelity just as much as their wives were. When it came to justice and charity, John acknowledged no double standards.

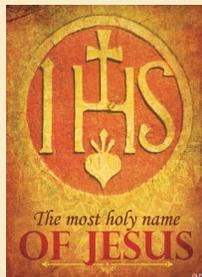

Aloud, energetic, outspoken, especially when he became excited in the pulpit, John was a sure target for criticism and personal trouble. His actions taken against unworthy bishops in Asia Minor were viewed by other ecclesiastics as a greedy, uncanonical extension of his authority.

Theophilus, archbishop of Alexandria, and Empress Eudoxia were determined to discredit John. Theophilus feared the growth in importance of the Bishop of Constantinople and took occasion to charge John with fostering heresy. Theophilus and other angered bishops were supported by Eudoxia. The empress resented his sermons contrasting gospel values with the excesses of imperial court life, and she finally did manage to have John exiled. He died in exile in 407.

What Does "IHS" mean?

We often see the letters "IHS" emblazoned on various objects in our churches and homes. What do these letters stand for?

IHS is a Christogram, that is, it's an abbreviation for the Holy Name of Jesus. In the early centuries of the Church, writers would contract the Holy Name by using the first two letters or the first and last letters. I (iota) and H (eta) are the first two letters of the name Jesus in Greek. In the Christogram "IHS," the third letter, S (sigma), has been added.

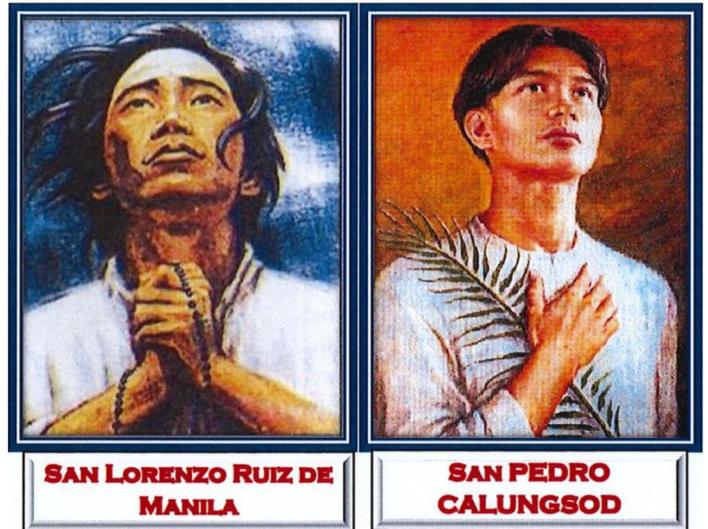

St. Bernardine of Siena, a Franciscan priest, employed the IHS symbol as a way to calm sectarian strife, encouraging his listeners to replace the factional symbols on their homes, churches, and buildings with IHS. When he preached, he kept before him a tablet emblazoned with this Christogram, one that had sunrays bursting forth from the holy letters.

St. Bernardine's devotion to the Holy Name and his promotion of the IHS Christogram played a major role in reviving the Faith in 15th-century Italy.

You can continue St. Bernardine's mission by proudly displaying the IHS symbol in your home or workplace.

Canonized by St. Pope John Paul II in Rome on Oct. 18, 1987, St. Lorenzo Ruiz was martyred during the persecution of Christians in Japan during the 17th century while on a missionary expedition. A layman with a wife and three children, he lived out his faith as an active member of his parish community. In addition to being a patron for laypersons and married people, he is known for being a saint of the poor because he was a poor sacristan from Binondo, Manila. He is also a patron saint for artists because he was skilled in calligraphy when he was employed by the Dominican Fathers. His feast day is Sept. 28.

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI canonized St. Pedro Calungsod on World Mission Sunday in 2012. The saint was martyred April 2, 1672 when he was 17 — one week before Palm Sunday. He began serving God when he was 13 as a missionary for the Jesuits. With Jesuit Father Diego Luis de San Vitores, he traveled to Guam to catechize the native Chamorros. They were attacked and killed when the village chief learned his baby daughter was baptized. It is believed St. Pedro could have escaped the attackers but did not want to leave Father Diego alone. His feast day is April 2.

The Apostleship of the Sea of the United States of America (AOS-USA) is pleased to confirm that our two organizations have formed an alliance wherein Catholic Cruises and Tours (CC&T) will source all of their priests for cruises and tours through AOS-USA.

The alliance between our two organizations ensures that, by our organizations working together, Catholics sailing on cruises will have priests ministering to them that are vetted by AOS-USA and certified as priests in good standing by their respective Competent Authorities.

Help support our Priest program onboard our cruise lines. Our responsibility is to vet each Priest that boards any of our over 1000 cruises. So that Catholics can feel comfortable knowing that they can take their FAITH ON A JOURNEY.

Ministry onboard cruise ships may sound like a great vacation, and it is...but that's not all it is. It is also a wonderful opportunity for the Catholic priest to encounter and accompany people during a very special time in their life. Many people on cruise ships are taking a once in a lifetime cruise. Others are celebrating major events such as Wedding Anniversaries, Retirement, etc. Still others are traveling because they've lost a loved one, and are perhaps traveling during the Christmas season because it is too hard to be home without their loved one at Christmas. Help us continue our efforts to make sure that Catholics can attend Mass daily on their journey.

For oh so many reasons....the priest is needed and appreciated onboard ship!

Vincentian Reflections

“In today’s Gospel Jesus says: “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” The cross of Jesus and the crosses of his members can evangelize us: the sick, who bear illness with courage; the grieving, who hope against hope; the dying, who clearly trust in the resurrection; the suffering of our poor brothers and sisters who are hungry and homeless, but who still trust in God’s love.”

"Luego Jesús llamó a sus discípulos y a toda la gente y les dijo: «El que quiera seguirme, que renuncie a sí mismo, tome su cruz y me siga. Pues el que quiera asegurar su vida la perderá, y el que sacrifique su vida (por mí) por el Evangelio, la salvará." - Marcos 7,33-34

Our Faith Community

A New Academic Year Begins SVdP Reginal Seminary

Dear SVDP Family,

Greetings to you on this day dedicated to the mother of the great St. Augustine, the Patron Saint of the mother Diocese of Florida and of the oldest Catholic community in our region, indeed, of the whole United States. As St. Monica prayed for her son, we know that she is praying for us and for the mission of our seminary from heaven.

We are concluding orientation this weekend and preparing to begin classes on Monday with a total of 118 seminarians enrolled at St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary. I would like to let you know of three events in the coming days that will be live-streamed, so that you can join with us, whether you prefer to do watch the live transmission or the recording. While we have begun the year more normally than last, we are still not able to extend open invitations for all to come to campus for Wednesday Masses. I hope that these opportunities will allow you to join with us in prayer and reflection as we continue our essential mission.

On Monday, August 30, at 4:30 pm, we will celebrate the Mass of the Holy Spirit, to ask the Holy Spirit to guide us throughout the new year of formation. Later that same evening, at 7:30 pm, we will have the Opening Academic Exercises, officially inaugurating the academic year. Finally, on Wednesday, September 1st, we will livestream the first Wednesday 12:15 pm Mass of the year, which will be a Memorial Mass for our beloved Fr. Nicholas Cachia, who passed away on July 28. All of these livestreams will be available at www.svdp.edu/live or on the Seminary Facebook page.

Know of our prayers for you; please pray constantly for us. In a particular way we remember our mothers, living and deceased, as we honor today the special patron saint of mothers. I am certain that God will respond to our prayers, as He did to those of St. Monica.

In Christ the Good Shepherd,

Very Rev. Alfredo I. Hernández, PhD, STL
Rector/President
