27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." The Lord replied, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." - Lk 17:5-6

Los apóstoles dijeron al Señor: "Auméntanos la fe". El Señor les contestó: "Si tuviera fe, aunque fuera tan pequeña como una semilla de mostaza, podrían decir a ese árbol frondoso: 'Arráncate de raíz y plántate en el mar', y los obedecería". - Lc 17, 5-6

With Christ as our center, we will embrace ALL SOULS as we worship, welcome, educate and serve in an environment of love and compassion.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

As adults, unless we are dealing with children, “obedience” is not a word we typically like to hear. It often brings connotations of military protocols, deference to superiors at work, or conforming to laws and practices. In a culture that has learned to challenge authority, being obedient is understood more as something I “have” to do, not “want” to do. Do you ever see merit in wanting to be obedient? Encouraged to develop independent, self-sufficient egos and personas, we learn to focus on our own wills and merits as we strive for success and achieve a sense of well-being. Giving ourselves over to the will of another, especially when done blindly, can sometimes carry more risk than we are willing to take. Also, blindly following orders without any deference to ethics or morality can lead to atrocious crimes and violence against humanity.

St. Ignatius of Loyola states, “There are three sorts of obedience; the first, obedience when a strict obligation is imposed upon us, and this is good; the second when the simple word of the superior, without any strict command, suffices for us, and this is better; the third, when a thing is done without waiting for an express command, from a knowledge that it will be pleasing to the superior, and this is the best of all.” St. Ignatius sees obedience as an act of love. When the person we are obeying genuinely has our best interest in mind, acting themselves with love and integrity, then what St. Ignatius says makes excellent sense. When mutual trust and a bond of love and respect are present, obedience can lead to freedom and truth.

We ask God to increase our faith. In other words, increase our trust that God knows best how to live and act in this world. We desire the same confidence, determination, and patience Jesus had that the fulfillment of God’s vision would one day come. Nurturing a deep love of God and trusting in his providence, we obediently do what we know is pleasing to God: love, repent of sin, show mercy, be compassionate and fight injustice. As we willingly give witness to our faith, we do only what we are obliged to do, expecting nothing in return. Spared from the task of having to figure it all out for ourselves, we discover freedom.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

Oh, si tuviéramos fe como un granito de mostaza, la vida sería completamente diferente. Seguimos, igual que los apóstoles, preguntando a Jesús sobre el aumento de la fe. Era la misma situación entonces que ahora. “La fe comparable al grano de mostaza es una fe que no es orgullosa ni segura de sí misma, ¡no pretende ser un gran creyente haciendo el ridículo en algunas ocasiones! Es una fe en su humildad siente una gran necesidad de Dios y, en la pequeñez, se abandona con plena confianza a Él. Es la fe la que nos da la capacidad de mirar con esperanza los altibajos de la vida, la que nos ayuda a aceptar incluso las derrotas y los sufrimientos, sabiendo que el mal no tiene nunca, no tendrá nunca la última palabra” (Papa Francisco).

Creer en la fe es cosa de dos, Dios y tú. Se crece en la fe con la oración personal, seguida de buenas obras. Seguramente, si reflexionamos en el trayecto de nuestra vida, descubriremos que muchas personas han cooperado en el crecimiento de nuestra fe. Nuestros padres, abuelos, catequistas el párroco y la comunidad de fe. El proyecto de Dios es que la fe nos lleve a servir a los demás. Para darnos cuenta, que “somos servidores no necesarios, hemos hecho lo que era nuestro deber” (Lucas 17,10). Solamente la fe y el trabajo por la paz nos dará la esperanza en este mundo tan lastimado por el odio y la venganza.

Saint Francis of Assisi's Story

The patron saint of Italy, Francis of Assisi was a poor little man who astounded and inspired the Church by taking the gospel literally—not in a narrow fundamentalist sense, but by actually following all that Jesus said and did, joyfully, without limit, and without a sense of self-importance.

Serious illness brought the young Francis to see the emptiness of his frolicking life as leader of Assisi's youth. Prayer—lengthy and difficult—led him to a self-emptying like that of Christ, climaxed by embracing a leper he met on the road. It symbolized his complete obedience to what he had heard in prayer: "Francis! Everything you have loved and desired in the flesh it is your duty to despise and hate, if you wish to know my will. And when you have begun this, all that now seems sweet and lovely to you will become intolerable and bitter, but all that you used to avoid will turn itself to great sweetness and exceeding joy."

From the cross in the neglected field-chapel of San Damiano, Christ told him, "Francis, go out and build up my house, for it is nearly falling down." Francis became the totally poor and humble workman.

He must have suspected a deeper meaning to "build up my house." But he would have been content to be for the rest of his life the poor "nothing" man actually putting brick on brick in abandoned chapels. He gave up all his possessions, piling even his clothes before his earthly father—who was demanding restitution for Francis' "gifts" to the poor—so that he would be totally free to say, "Our Father in heaven." He was, for a time, considered to be a religious fanatic, begging from door to door when he could not get money for his work, evoking sadness or disgust to the hearts of his former friends, ridicule from the unthinking.

But genuineness will tell. A few people began to realize that this man was actually trying to be Christian. He really believed what Jesus said: "Announce the kingdom! Possess no gold or silver or copper in your purses, no traveling bag, no sandals, no staff" (Luke 9:1-3).

Francis' first rule for his followers was a collection of texts from the Gospels. He had no intention of founding an order, but once it began he protected it and accepted all the legal structures needed to support it. His devotion and loyalty to the Church were absolute and highly exemplary at a time when various movements of reform tended to break the Church's unity.

Francis was torn between a life devoted entirely to prayer and a life of active preaching of the Good News. He decided in favor of the latter, but always returned to solitude when he could. He wanted to be a missionary in Syria or in Africa, but was prevented by shipwreck and illness in both cases. He did try to convert the sultan of Egypt during the Fifth Crusade.

During the last years of his relatively short life, he died at 44, Francis was half blind and seriously ill. Two years before his death he received the stigmata, the real and painful wounds of Christ in his hands, feet and side.

On his deathbed, Francis said over and over again the last addition to his Cantic of the Sun, "Be praised, O Lord, for our Sister Death." He sang Psalm 141, and at the end asked his superior's permission to have his clothes removed when the last hour came in order that he could expire lying naked on the earth, in imitation of his Lord.

Reflection

Francis of Assisi was poor only that he might be Christ-like. He recognized creation as another manifestation of the beauty of God. In 1979, he was named patron of ecology. He did great penance—apologizing to "Brother Body" later in life—that he might be totally disciplined for the will of God. Francis' poverty had a sister, Humility, by which he meant total dependence on the good God. But all this was, as it were, preliminary to the heart of his spirituality: living the gospel life, summed up in the charity of Jesus and perfectly expressed in the Eucharist.

Vincentian Reflections

“In today’s Gospel Jesus tells his disciples, “When you have done all you have been commanded, say: We are unprofitable servants; we have only done what we were obliged to do.” This week, please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring the love and mercy of Jesus to those who feel left out and abandoned, for indeed we are only doing “what we are obliged to do.” ”

We Give Together

Please Join Us:

You are invited to serve people in need in our All Souls Catholic Church area by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Helping us provide people in our Parish area needing food, clothes, rent assistance, utility assistance and other types of support will be a rewarding experience. Is it time for you to live your religious convictions and give something back for all you have received? Please join us Monday, October 3 for a special Kickoff Meeting at 7 PM in the Social Hall.

October Souper Supper!

Please join your friends with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul for an Octoberfest-themed Souper Supper on Saturday, October 8 in the Social Hall. ## What is Stewardship?

“As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied grace” (1 Pt 4:10)

What identifies a steward? Safeguarding material and human resources and using them responsibly is one answer; so is generous giving of time, talent, and treasure. But being a Christian steward means more. As Christian stewards, we receive God’s gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord.

The life of a Christian steward models the life of Jesus. It is challenging and even difficult, in many respects, yet intense joy comes to those who take the risk to live as Christian stewards. Women and men who seek to live as stewards learn that “all things work for good for those who love God” (Rom 8:28).

Mission Statement

All Souls Catholic School is guided by the Trinity to empower our school community to live, love and learn through Christ. We are committed to excellence in education while preparing our students for a life of service, leadership, and compassion.

Step Up Scholarships For Students

All Souls Catholic School works with "Step Up for Students", the scholarship funding organization. Families may apply by following the link below or scanning the QR Code. Scholarships are available now, so please apply today! Step Up applications are due by June 1st!

<https://www.stepupforstudents.org> McKay and Gardiner Scholarship opportunities are also available.

Florida Tax Credit Scholarship Programs

To expand educational opportunities for children of families that have limited financial resources and to enable children in this state to achieve a greater level of excellence in their education, the Florida Legislature created the Florida Tax Credit Scholarship Program in 2001. The law provides for state tax credits for contributions to nonprofit scholarship funding organizations, (SFOs). The SFOs then award scholarships to eligible children of low-income families.

Please contact All Souls Catholic School if you want more information. 407-322-7090

All Souls Faith Formation

Thank you for all of you who answered the Lord's call and was faithful to it! We were able to fill all classrooms with catechists and assistants! But we are still looking for extra volunteers to help in other duties, such as sign in and out table, hall monitors, cleaning crew, catechists for ongoing parent formation and subs for when some catechists or assistants aren't able to come on certain dates. This is a wonderful opportunity to share your gifts and talents with the community. No teaching experience needed. We will provide the necessary training for you to be well prepared for this upcoming school year. If you're interested, please email Valeria Lebron, our Parish Catechetical Leader at vlebron@ascsanford.org We are looking forward to having you with us!

¡Gracias a todos aquellos que respondieron el llamado del Señor y son fieles a él!
¡Pudimos llenar todas las aulas con catequistas y asistentes! Pero todavía estamos buscando voluntarios adicionales para ayudar en otras tareas, como la mesa de entrada y salida, monitores de pasillo, equipo de limpieza, catequistas para la formación continua de padres y suplentes para cuando algunos catequistas o asistentes no pueden asistir en ciertas fechas. Esta es una oportunidad maravillosa para compartir sus dones y talentos con la comunidad. No es requerido experiencia docente. Le proporcionaremos la capacitación necesaria para que esté bien preparado para este próximo año escolar. Si está interesado, envíe un correo electrónico a Valeria Lebron, nuestra líder catequética parroquial en vlebron@ascsanford.org ¡Esperamos tenerlo con nosotros!

The Story of Our Lady of the Rosary

Saint Pius V established this feast in 1573. The purpose was to thank God for the victory of Christians over the Turks at Lepanto—a victory attributed to the praying of the rosary. Clement XI extended the feast to the universal Church in 1716.

The development of the rosary has a long history. First a practice developed of praying 150 Our Fathers in imitation of the 150 Psalms. Then there was a parallel practice of praying 150 Hail Marys. Soon a mystery of Jesus' life was attached to each Hail Mary. Though Mary's giving of the rosary to Saint Dominic is recognized as a legend, the development of this prayer form owes much to the followers of Saint Dominic. One of them, Alan de la Roche, was known as "the apostle of the rosary." He founded the first Confraternity of the Rosary in the 15th century. In the 16th century, the rosary was developed to its present form—with the 15 mysteries: joyful, sorrowful and glorious. In 2002, Pope John Paul II added the five Mysteries of Light to this devotion.

Reflection

The purpose of the rosary is to help us meditate on the great mysteries of our salvation. Pius XII called it a compendium of the gospel. The main focus is on Jesus—his birth, life, death, and resurrection. The Our Fathers remind us that Jesus' Father is the initiator of salvation. The Hail Marys remind us to join with Mary in contemplating these mysteries. They also make us aware that Mary was and is intimately joined with her Son in all the mysteries of his earthly and heavenly existence. The Glory Bes remind us that the purpose of all life is the glory of the Trinity. The rosary appeals to many. It is simple. The constant repetition of words helps create an atmosphere in which to contemplate the mysteries of God. We sense that Jesus and Mary are with us in the joys and sorrows of life. We grow in hope that God will bring us to share in the glory of Jesus and Mary forever.
