30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"But the tax collector stood off at a distance…and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." - Lk 18:13a, 13c-14

"El publicano, en cambio, se quedó lejos…diciendo: 'Dios mío, apiádate de mí, que soy un pecador'.
Pues bien, yo les aseguro que éste bajó a su casa justificado y aquél no; porque todo el que se enaltece será humillado y el que se humilla será enaltecido". - Lc 18, 13. 14

With Christ as our center, we will embrace ALL SOULS as we worship, welcome, educate and serve in an environment of love and compassion.

THIS SUNDAY'S Reflection

GOSPEL MEDITATION -
ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

There is a thing called "false piety." It is when we wear a religious disguise of devotion, attend to our obligations, and outwardly abide by rules while being inwardly unkind, uncharitable, and exclusive. Wearing the right clothes, saying the proper prayers, being in sacred places, and reading devotional books, those exhibiting false piety craftily try to control others using the pretense of love. The Pharisees, consistently criticized by Jesus, are prime examples. Thinking they are superior to others, they foolishly believe they are better positioned with God and more worthy of God's attention. Forming an exclusive "club," they divide things between "mine" and "yours" and "us" and "them." They quickly criticize and point out flaws and errors in rituals and thinking. Conformity becomes the first commandment and control is the game's name.

The requirements for "club membership" are clear: do what we do, think what we think, and believe what we believe. Attempting to control others using the lure of "status" or "salvation," they seduce others into thinking that conformity is the only way to holiness. Clinging to "my beliefs," "my parish," "my way of thinking," they fail to see the more significant relationship with God that is veiled in all of these superficial rules and practices. Shallow, hollow, and empty vessels, they gloss over the more important virtues of justice, mercy, faithfulness, and forgiveness. Sparkling clean on the outside, but dirty on the inside. Spiritual arrogance is a grave sin. It alienates and hurts the little ones, those considered "least" in the kingdom.

God knows no favorites. Everyone belongs regardless of whether you are an official, bona fide member. Sometimes membership may be a detriment to actually living the Gospel if you're joining the team for the wrong reasons. The genuinely humble ones may not appear to be overly "pious." They may not know all of the proper prayers or abide by all of the correct rituals, but they know that they are broken and need mercy. There is no shame in being broken. In fact, many things need to be broken in order to be what they truly are! There is a reason Jesus told us to pray in private. It's only between you and God. It is nobody else's business.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO –
ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

Recuerdo, como si fuera hoy, el principio de la pandemia, y como el Papa, obispos, párrocos y catequistas nos invitaban a orar por el fin de la pandemia. Luego, a principio de este año surgió otro urgente pedido de orar sin cesar por el fin de la guerra en Ucrania y por otros países donde la violencia es el pan de cada día. Necesitamos paz, vivir con tranquilidad, como derecho de la persona. Dios da la paz y nadie tiene derecho a quitarla por simple capricho. La paz se obtiene cuando el corazón de la persona está en armonía consigo mismo. Por lo tanto, el reto de este domingo es iniciar nuestra relación con Dios por medio de la oración.
El Evangelio de hoy, nos presenta a dos personas en el templo haciendo oración. Las dos son muy diferentes, pero tienen algo en común: ambos acuden a orar. Cada uno lo hace a su manera, uno frente al altar y el otro atrás. Uno lo hace mejor que el otro. Pero las dos personas hablan con Dios. ¿Cuál es la enseñanza de estas personas para mí? Creo que, acudir a Dios por medio de la oración en cualquier circunstancia de la vida. ¡Que nunca deje pasar un día sin oración! Con el valor del publicano, que ni siquiera se atrevía a mirar al cielo por vergüenza de sus pecados. A Dios no podemos presumirle, ni tampoco ocultar lo que somos, él nos conoce. "Dios mío, ten piedad de mí que soy pecador" (Lucas 18,13).

Saint John Paul II's Story

"Open wide the doors to Christ," urged John Paul II during the homily at the Mass where he was installed as pope in 1978.
Born in Wadowice, Poland, Karol Jozef Wojtyla had lost his mother, father, and older brother before his 21st birthday. Karol's promising academic career at Krakow's Jagiellonian University was cut short by the outbreak of World War II. While working in a quarry and a chemical factory, he enrolled in an "underground" seminary in Kraków. Ordained in 1946, he was immediately sent to Rome where he earned a doctorate in theology.
Back in Poland, a short assignment as assistant pastor in a rural parish preceded his very fruitful chaplaincy for university students. Soon Fr. Wojtyla earned a doctorate in philosophy and began teaching that subject at Poland's University of Lublin.
Communist officials allowed Wojtyla to be appointed auxiliary bishop of Kraków in 1958, considering him a relatively harmless intellectual. They could not have been more wrong!
Bishop Wojtyla attended all four sessions of Vatican II and contributed especially to its Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World. Appointed as archbishop of Kraków in 1964, he was named a cardinal three years later.
Elected pope in October 1978, he took the name of his short-lived, immediate predecessor. Pope John Paul II was the first non-Italian pope in 455 years. In time, he made pastoral visits to 124 countries, including several with small Christian populations.
John Paul II promoted ecumenical and interfaith initiatives, especially the 1986 Day of Prayer for World Peace in Assisi. He visited Rome's main synagogue and the Western Wall in Jerusalem; he also established diplomatic relations between the Holy See and Israel. He improved Catholic-Muslim relations, and in 2001 visited a mosque in Damascus, Syria.
The Great Jubilee of the Year 2000, a key event in John Paul's ministry, was marked by special celebrations in Rome and elsewhere for Catholics and other Christians. Relations with the Orthodox Churches improved considerably during his papacy.
"Christ is the center of the universe and of human history" was the opening line of John Paul II's 1979 encyclical, Redeemer of the Human Race. In 1995, he described himself to the United Nations General Assembly as "a witness to hope."
His 1979 visit to Poland encouraged the growth of the Solidarity movement there and the collapse of communism in central and eastern Europe 10 years later. John Paul II began World Youth Day and traveled to several countries for those celebrations. He very much wanted to visit China and the Soviet Union, but the governments in those countries prevented that.
One of the most well-remembered photos of John Paul II's pontificate was his one-on-one conversation in 1983, with Mehmet Ali Agca, who had attempted to assassinate him two years earlier.
In his 27 years of papal ministry, John Paul II wrote 14 encyclicals and five books, canonized 482 saints and beatified 1,338 people. In the last years of his life, he suffered from Parkinson's disease and was forced to cut back on some of his activities.
Pope Benedict XVI beatified John Paul II in 2011, and Pope Francis canonized him in 2014.

Reflection

Before John Paul II's funeral Mass in St. Peter's Square, hundreds of thousands of people had waited patiently for a brief moment to pray before his body, which lay in state inside St. Peter's for several days. The media coverage of his funeral was unprecedented.
Presiding at the funeral Mass, Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger—then dean of the College of Cardinals and later Pope Benedict XVI—concluded his homily by saying: "None of us can ever forget how, in that last Easter Sunday of his life, the Holy Father, marked by suffering, came once more to the window of the Apostolic Palace and one last time gave his blessing urbi et orbi ('to the city and to the world').
"We can be sure that our beloved pope is standing today at the window of the Father's house, that sees us and blesses us. Yes, bless us, Holy Father. We entrust your dear soul to the Mother of God, your Mother, who guided you each day and who will guide you now to the glory of her Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen."

Saints Simon and Jude's Story

Jude is so named by Luke and Acts. Matthew and Mark call him Thaddeus. He is not mentioned elsewhere in the Gospels, except of course where all the apostles are mentioned. Scholars hold that he is not the author of the Letter of Jude. Actually, Jude had the same name as Judas Iscariot. Evidently because of the disgrace of that name, it was shortened to "Jude" in English.
Simon is mentioned on all four lists of the apostles. On two of them he is called "the Zealot." The Zealots were a Jewish sect that represented an extreme of Jewish nationalism. For them, the messianic promise of the Old Testament meant that the Jews were to be a free and independent nation. God alone was their king, and any payment of taxes to the Romans—the very domination of the Romans—was a blasphemy against God. No doubt some of the Zealots were the spiritual heirs of the Maccabees, carrying on their ideals of religion and independence. But many were the counterparts of modern terrorists. They raided and killed, attacking both foreigners and "collaborating" Jews. They were chiefly responsible for the rebellion against Rome which ended in the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70.

Reflection

As in the case of all the apostles except for Peter, James and John, we are faced with men who are really unknown, and we are struck by the fact that their holiness is simply taken to be a gift of Christ. He chose some unlikely people: a former Zealot, a former (crooked) tax collector, an impetuous fisherman, two "sons of thunder," and a man named Judas Iscariot.
It is a reminder that we cannot receive too often. Holiness does not depend on human merit, culture, personality, effort, or achievement. It is entirely God's creation and gift. God needs no Zealots to bring about the kingdom by force. Jude, like all the saints, is the saint of the impossible: Only God can create his divine life in human beings. And God wills to do so, for all of us.

Calling Volunteers for the 2022 Sanford Holiday Tour of Homes

I know, Halloween isn't even here and we are talking about Christmas. December 3, 2022 from 12:00 - 9:00 PM Sanford will host the annual Holiday Tour of Homes.
This year our very own Rectory and Chapel are going to be on the tour.
We are blessed to have parishioners willing to make sure our rectory is decorated to show off the beauty of the house and to provide backyard entertainment.

Now we need your help. We need volunteers (docents) to welcome the visitors to both the chapel and the rectory.
We will have 3 (3 hour shifts).
Your job is easy, just smile and welcome people and make sure that no one goes where they shouldn't and answer any questions. You will have an information sheet to talk about the history of the rectory and chapel.
Please use the below link to sign into Volunteer Spot to sign up for a shift.
Fr Jeremiah is excited to host All Souls on the tour so let's help make him proud of the parish.

The sign up link is: https://signup.com/go/VRtauPa
If you have any questions please contact the parish office or Stephanie Fuoco @ sfuoco2093@gmail.com

Vincentian Reflections

"In today's Gospel, the tax collector's prayer allows God to be God and so allows God to pour mercy into his heart. When we pray and give alms to the poor, we allow God's mercy to be poured into their hearts. Thank you for helping us keep the lights on, food on the table and people in their homes."

What is Stewardship?

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Pt 4:10)

What identifies a steward? Safeguarding material and human resources and using them responsibly is one answer; so is generous giving of time, talent, and treasure. But being a Christian steward means more. As Christian stewards, we receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord.

The life of a Christian steward models the life of Jesus. It is challenging and even difficult, in many respects, yet intense joy comes to those who take the risk to live as Christian stewards. Women and men who seek to live as stewards learn that "all things work for good for those who love God" (Rom 8:28).

Mission Statement

All Souls Catholic School is guided by the Trinity to empower our school community to live, love and learn through Christ. We are committed to excellence in education while preparing our students for a life of service, leadership, and compassion.

All Souls Faith Formation

Thank you for all of you who answered the Lord's call and was faithful to it! We were able to fill all classrooms with catechists and assistants! But we are still looking for extra volunteers to help in other duties, such as sign in and out table, hall monitors, cleaning crew, catechists for ongoing parent formation and subs for when some catechists or assistants aren't able to come on certain dates. This is a wonderful opportunity to share your gifts and talents with the community. No teaching experience needed. We will provide the necessary training for you to be well prepared for this upcoming school year. If you're interested, please email Valeria Lebron, our Parish Catechetical Leader at vlebron@asccsanford.org We are looking forward to having you with us!

¡Gracias a todos aquellos que respondieron el llamado del Señor y son fieles a él! ¡Pudimos llenar todas las aulas con catequistas y asistentes! Pero todavía estamos buscando voluntarios adicionales para ayudar en otras tareas, como la mesa de entrada y salida, monitores de pasillo, equipo de limpieza, catequistas para la formación continua de padres y suplentes para cuando algunos catequistas o asistentes no pueden asistir en ciertas fechas. Esta es una oportunidad maravillosa para compartir sus dones y talentos con la comunidad. No es requerido experiencia docente. Le proporcionaremos la capacitación necesaria para que esté bien preparado para este próximo año escolar. Si está interesado, envíe un correo electrónico a Valeria Lebron, nuestra líder catequética parroquial en vlebron@asccsanford.org ¡Esperamos tenerlo con nosotros!

Calling All Cursillistas!

The next Ultreya will be at St Ann Parish, 26 Dogwood Tr, Debary at 4:00. Join us for friendship and prayer especially during this time of recovery. The next men's retreat weekend is October 27-30 and the next women's weekend is November 3-6. If you have Palanka for anyone attending the weekend you can give it to Stephanie at mass on the weekend. To learn more about the Cursillo movement and for an invitation to the next retreat please feel free to reach out to Stephanie Fuoco at sfuoco2093@gmail.com for information.

Our Faith Community

Solemnity of All Souls' Day

Holy Scripture reminds us that "It is a holy and righteous thing to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins' (2 Macc. 12:46), and we are reminded as Christians that one of the spiritual works of mercy is to pray for the repose of the souls of those who have died. All Souls Day is a privileged time to do this as the parish family of All Souls.

Please join us for the annual celebration of the Solemnity of All Souls' Day in our cemetery on Wednesday, November 2 at 5:00pm. The mass is held outside around the altar and cross in the cemetery circle, weather-permitting. We will provide folding chairs for seating, but you are welcome to bring your own. In case of inclement weather, mass will be held in the Historic Chapel at 5:00pm.

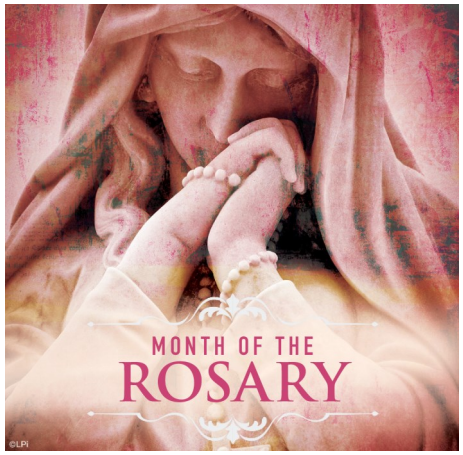

MASS INTENTIONS

2023 Book

The Mass Intention book will open quarterly (3 weeks before the period starts: January 1, April 1, July 1, October 1, 2023), limited to 2 weekend masses and 3 weekday masses per parishioner quarterly, and can only be reserved on site. (No phone reservations).
