When he finds a pearl of great price,
he goes and sells all that he has and buys it.

Typical Jesus, His parables don't make sense on the surface. We see this pearl merchant selling everything for one pearl. What's he going to do with it? One can't eat pearls. Comparing the kingdom to this pearl throws us off the trail. Jesus' parables must be approached with the simplicity of a child. Let's be honest here.

An analogy is something that is similar to something else in some ways but not in others. Comparing the soul to an eagle shows a likeness to the elevation that the wind (Spirit) can produce in a soul available to fly. However, the soul does not have visible wings and a temporal structure.

In the case of the pearl, it is a precious treasure, but the merchant is not a collector who simply values the beauty of a pearl. He is a merchant out to make a profit. The Kingdom is precious, but it is not a commodity that one can sell. It is meant for permanent beauty, truth, and goodness. It is a value unto itself. The hidden similitude is that the merchant plans to profit from the pearl, but not by keeping it. We plan to profit from the kingdom, but not by selling it, unless we talk about giving it away.

Here is the evangelical rub. True keepers of the kingdom simultaneously plan to give it away to others and find there is no loss. Like the fire analogy, we can light a candle with a candle, and the flame is not diminished. One could do this, theoretically, to the infinite degree. The flame would never run out. Yet as mortals, the only thing that runs out for us is the time on earth to share the faith.

But let's look again at God's kingdom. Can we share the faith in heaven? Absolutely! Look at St. Therese who proclaimed and prophesied that she would spend heaven doing good upon earth. She had an expansive heart and trajectory of soul that intended to continue to work on earth in living souls until Jesus returned and ended this dispensation. She found the pearl of great price. Therese found the Kingdom and did her little best to share it with all her heart, mind, soul, and strength. How can we do the same?

St. Therese describes a "Little Way" for souls to unite themselves to God in the smallest details; not accomplishing great things but doing little things with great love. Too often we look for God in the grandiose, and certainly He can be found there. But like Elijah's experience at the cave on Horeb, God didn't come with the earthquake (although He could have), or in the lightning, or in the rushing wind; it was in the gentle breeze, the subtle and least expected way. God is found in the obscure, the simple, and the monotony of every day life. As St. Theresa of Avila said, she found Him in the "pots and pans."

Can we find Him there? Let us pray for the grace to see God in the simplest of circumstances, to know that He is present to us at all times and in all places. We thank You, Lord, for Your goodness in coming to us, in rescuing us and calling us to a heavenly life even while on earth. St. Therese of Lisieux, pray for us.

COVID Conversion

We continue to reopen here at St. Stephens, carefully and prayerfully. As of today (July 20), we are doing our Sunday Masses outside at 9 & 11. Our daily Mass is inside the main church at the usual times. This week we are adding regular confession times beginning with 3pm on Saturday. You can find a priest near the plaza/grotto area. Fr. Jockim and I prefer to meet outside where there is plenty of fresh air and the gentle breeze of the Lord. Please continue to pray for the absolute end of the Coronavirus. St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle...

St. Michael Statue

Speaking of St. Michael, we have purchased a new statue of St. Michael for our grounds. It is currently in the office area while we prepare the outside site near the annex side of the narthex. We need St. Michael more than ever. He is the great warrior of the angelic armies. Let us ask him to protect and encourage our parish.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;

And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the other evil spirits, who prowl throughout the world, seeking the ruin of souls.

Amen.

Outdoor Public Masses! We're so excited to offer outdoor public Masses on a limited basis at St. Stephen the Martyr! Sunday Masses will be held at 9:00 and 11:00 AM. Please subscribe to Flocknote (see this page) and watch ststephenslife.com for more details. Our Masses will be limited to a maximum of 200 pre-registered attendees, and take place in our lower Church parking lot area.

Registration is mandatory as we are required to have a record of all who attend our public Masses. As much as it pains us, we strongly encourage those who are 65 and older, or who may have underlying health conditions, to remain home until it is safe for you to come back to public Mass. For those who wish to attend, please register by completing the form at <https://ststephenslife.com/mass-sign-up>. Those who do not have internet access may register by calling Betty Mencke at 253-631-1940.

Our registration process for attending Mass at St Stephen's has changed. Both weekend Masses and weekday Mass registration are conducted via a simple new, online form. The new form will show the number of spaces available for each liturgy and allow you to select your preferred Mass time. Registration will now be on a first come, first served basis. Links to the new registration forms will be published in advance of their activation via Flocknote and the parish website at <https://ststephenslife.com/>. Those without internet access can register by calling Betty Mencke at 253-631-1940. Important Note: Our Sunday live-streamed Mass will present the outdoor public Mass at 9:00 AM.

St. Stephen the Martyr is Opening the Grounds

We ARE able to provide the Sacraments of Anointing, Confession and Holy Communion whenever possible. Call the office at 253-631-1940 ext 100 for information on how to access Sacraments.

Parish Offices are closed for now, but accepting phone calls 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM, Monday through Friday. We are available for you, so don't hesitate to call! Staff are working from home most of the week, but will be checking emails and phone calls left on their office phones.
