Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David!

Our Lord puts this woman off for a few tries until she humbly admits her adopted status as a non-Jew. Jesus knew what He would do, but He also wants to test people so that they know what He is doing. In this case, He is exhibiting the existence of faith and salvation outside of Israel. She is literally outside of traditional Jewish territory. Jesus reaches out and draws her in.

This good woman shows us how to persevere in prayer. She doesn't give up, neither at the discouragement of the disciples, nor the resistance of Jesus. She is bold.

We, too, need to be bold these days. Jesus is 'holding out on us' in various ways and forcing us to persevere and really own our intentions. Why has the Church not been able to heal and deliver humanity from the coronavirus? Perhaps, like the demons that the disciples could not exorcise, we need to fast. Perhaps God wants our full attention and the allegiance of our hearts. Whatever the case, we need to grow closer to Him in order to find out. As our culture collapses in sin, perhaps Our Lord wants to raise up a more deeply adherent Catholic Christian culture.

To do that, our Archbishop has called for a Year of the Eucharist from June 14th, 2020 until June 6th, 2021. Please see the bulletin flyer enclosed or online. Along with a number of ways and recommendations from our Archbishop on how to grow in our Eucharistic faith, I want to recommend the gift of time. Time spent with Our Eucharistic Lord is the best way outside of Mass to grow in union with Jesus' sacramental presence. We are re-opening up our adoration program as quickly as possible given all the COVID restrictions that we observe.

Time with Our Lord reveals His living presence. He is alive and especially close to us in the Blessed Sacrament, reserved in our tabernacles for three main reasons:

- 1) Viaticum - Last Holy Communion for those who are dying
- 2) Homebound - Ongoing Holy Communion for those who cannot come to Mass
- 3) Prayer and Devotion - Time spent close to Jesus

You can check on how you, too, can spend more time with Jesus this coming year by calling our office and speaking with Betty. She will refer you to our All Saints Adoration Ministry.

Marymount Hermitage

I was able to spend a good week at Marymount Hermitage in Mesa, Idaho, along with overnights coming and going at Duchovny Dom Byzantine Monastery in Weston, Oregon. Both are glorious places of retreat and prayer. The high desert of Marymount calls one to purification by the Lord. As He says in Hosea 2:14,

Therefore, behold I will allure her,
and will lead her into the wilderness:
And I will speak to her heart.

God leads us at times into a wilderness, both literally and through trials that we suffer. This is critical for the spiritual life to grow. Of course we want comfort, but always comfortable means never growing. In fact, it would mean stagnation and decline. Our society is suffering something like this. Prosperity eventually brings with it power, prestige, and corruption. The mortification of internal and external deserts can wake up the soul to new life and new dependence on God. Let us pray for such fulfillment.

Year OF THE Eucharist

Archdiocese of Seattle

CELEBRATE

June 14, 2020 – June 6, 2021

In his Pastoral Letter “The Work of Redemption: Eucharistic Belief and Practice in the Archdiocese of Seattle,” Archbishop Paul D. Etienne invites everyone to celebrate a Year of the Eucharist. Through this year of prayer and study, we will foster and strengthen our celebration of the incredible gift of the Eucharist. Your parish and Catholic School will bring this pastoral letter to life with creative programs and a wealth of Year of the Eucharist resources:

“How wonderful it would be if, during the coming year, each of us could grow in our desire and ability to be in prayerful conversation with Christ, present in the Blessed Sacrament!”

– Archbishop Etienne

Help for living your faith at home

Retreats

Speaker series

Webinars for liturgical ministers

Links to great resources and more!

Over the next year, we’ll explore different dimensions of the Eucharist, echoing the shape of the Mass:

Gathering – What makes us community? (It’s the Eucharist, of course!)

Word – How the Scriptures can come to life in our lives

Presence – The Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, the center of Church and of our lives

Sending – Our mission to carry on the work of Jesus – serving the poor and vulnerable, proclaiming the Gospel, and sanctifying the world

“How beautiful it is when we learn to live as Christ, when we allow Christ to live more fully in and through us. This is a big part of what the Eucharistic life is all about!”

– Archbishop Etienne

We encourage you to join in the celebration of the Year of the Eucharist.

When it comes to the Eucharist, we can always go deeper.

Invoke all of us in this local Church to a renewed focus on the heart of our faith and the center of our parish life: the Eucharist. The Eucharist is an inexhaustible source of grace, the Paschal Mystery of Christ's dying and rising daily renewed for our salvation and for the salvation of the whole world. The Eucharist is the living presence of Christ in our midst. That presence does not, must not leave us unchanged: Receiving the Body of Christ, we become the Body of Christ. The Eucharist unites us to Christ, and, in Christ, to each other. And the Eucharist commits us to the poor, sending us forth in service and love.

When it comes to the Eucharist, we can always go deeper. No matter whether we have spent years exploring Eucharistic theology, or are still preparing for our first Holy Communion, there is always more to discover about the Eucharist. And no matter the resources of our parish communities, with care and attention our liturgies can always be improved, to reflect more clearly the Christ who truly presides at every celebration of the Eucharist. During the coming year, I ask every Catholic and every parish community to commit themselves to deepening our understanding and experience of the Eucharist, and strengthening our Eucharistic liturgies.

Archbishop Paul D. Etienne

The Saints and the Eucharist

Your eyes are looking at bread and a cup. This is the evidence before your physical sight. But your faith must be instructed concerning it—this bread being Christ's body and the cup containing his blood... Since you make up the body of Christ and are his members, your mystery rests on the table of the Lord; you receive your own mystery. You answer "Amen" to the reality of what you are; your reply gives your consent to it. For on hearing the words, "The Body of Christ," you reply, "Amen." Be in fact a member of Christ's body for your affirmation, "Amen," to ring true.

St. Augustine of Hippo
(354-430)

Do I participate in the Mass with my whole being—mind, heart, voice, and body?

Does my participation in the liturgy make a difference in my life?
