Words from Fr. Ed

It shall put forth branches and bear fruit, and become a majestic cedar.

I was amazed by the beauty of our campus when I first arrived here at St. Stephen the Martyr 15 years ago (Fr. Madigan invited me to attend a staff meeting in June, 2006. I started officially here July 1, 2006). Like a protecting wall, the trees served as a green wall surrounding the property. Since then we've trimmed and cut, planted and clipped (not always perfectly, mind you), shaping our land according to the Stewardship of God's beautiful gift of creation that we have inherited. [Special thanks to our Thursday crew, Mike Pitardi and company, who care for our grounds on a weekly basis.] Even now as I write this article (6/7/21), besides the green of the trees, I can only see the yellow and white papal flag fluttering in the wind.

I met the man last week who had installed the flagpole as an Eagle Scout project when he was a youth in the parish, John Ewing. He was here for his father Don's funeral. The flag, and our own American flag, complement the landscape and declare a context for our existence here. We are American Catholics, called to be good stewards of the many gifts that God has given to us. I hope that St. Stephens has been a place and community where you can find and use the gifts that God has given you for the building up of His Kingdom.

We continue to progress in our development as a parish, even as our trees continue to develop over time. Yesterday (6/6/21), we hiked 5 miles through our parish boundaries with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. We were able to visit three parishioner's homes (Dung Ho; Leah Rae Ball; Cindy Bosshart) who had prepared altars to expose Jesus for worship. They all live in the Benson Hill area just northwest of the church. Almost 75 pilgrims took part. Thanks to all who facilitated this event. Walking with Jesus, sacramentally, revolutionizes how we can relate to our neighbors. Jesus literally goes before us.

Our All Saints Adoration program continues to recover from the Corona crisis. Thanks to Bernie Wittgens and Tina Nold who coordinate this effort to place people in front of Jesus for adoration, reparation, healing, and inspiration. Anyone who has spent time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament knows the value of even one minute. Like any relationship, time spent together makes a difference. Can you spend one hour per week with Him? It will change your life and the lives of those whom you love.

A few quotes that affirm this truth:

"A thousand years of enjoying human glory is not worth even an hour spent sweetly communing with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament." ~ St. Pio of Pietrelcina

"Of all devotions, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the greatest after the sacraments, the one dearest to God and the one most helpful to us." ~ St. Alphonsus Liguori

"Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration with exposition needs a great push. People ask me: 'What will convert America and save the world?' My answer is prayer. What we need is for every parish to come before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament in holy hours of prayer." ~ St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Our Lord speaks of a mustard tree in the Gospel, a tree that is seemingly insignificant at the beginning, but grows into something profound and necessary for the lives of many. Can you be that tree? Absolutely, but only with your free surrender to grace. God desires it. Why not surrender today?

Archdiocese of Seattle Pastoral Plan

The outcome of a successful pastoral planning process will be a Church that reflects the Risen Christ to others. The goal is to help people have a conversion experience so they can draw closer to the Church and joyfully share Christ with the world today. At the heart of our mission is a relationship with Jesus Christ. The pastoral planning focus areas are intended to help all Catholics re-examining and renew their relationship with Jesus. They are intentionally broad so that particular goals and actions may be developed according the unique circumstances, gifts and callings of each person, family, parish, school and ministry. To hear the Archbishop discuss the plan visit <https://vimeo.com/553104162>

Please Continue Your Financial Support

The suspension of public Masses will seriously impact our weekly collection. Like most parishes, 90% of our revenue comes from the generous support of our faith community. This generosity supports the many ministries of the church as well as maintenance of the building and grounds, utilities, insurance, and payroll. Please remember our parish in your prayers and by making your regular donation. You may donate through the mail or Consider signing up for electronic giving through the "Donate Online" link on our parish website www.ststephenslife.com and made sure their children arrived ready to go each day. THANK YOU! If you are interested in enrolling your child or grandchild for September, 2021, please email Abbie Nelson at ssm.littlesaints@gmail.com.

Our Baptism Classes Are Currently on Hold.

Please contact Teresa Wright at ssm.baptism@gmail.com for an alternative format. She will send information on how to complete the classwork as well as forms to complete and documents you must provide. Once you have completed preparation your family will be put on our waiting list. We regret that we cannot guarantee when we will be able to schedule your child's baptism. Thank you for your kind patience.

Youth Summer Service / Steubenville Retreat

This summer there will not be a Yakima Mission Week or the Steubenville NW Catholic Youth St. Conference in Spokane, WA. Three parishes from South King County Deanery (St. Stephen the Martyr, Holy Spirit in Kent and Holy Family in Auburn) are coming together for a Summer Event right here in our area.

This event will be for youth currently in grades 8 - 12 - Tuesday, July 6th through Saturday, July 10, 2021

Tuesday (9:00 – 4:00) The event will begin at Holy Spirit in Kent where the youth will have time to get to know one another and have a walking tour of Social Service Agencies where they will learn about the Social Justice teachings of the Catholic and the kinds of services available in our area.

Wednesday, (9:00 – 4:00) the youth will have the opportunity to serve at the Auburn Food Bank and learn about the importance of Food Banks and how we can serve the poor today.

Thursday, (9:00 – 4:00) the youth will work in small groups on services projects at their own parish and in their parish neighborhoods.

Friday (1:00 – 9:00pm) the youth will work on a plan to continue serving in their own parish and community and have time for fun and activities together prior to the Steubenville Retreat.

Friday evening the teens will join Catholic teens from across the country on the LIVE STREAM Steubenville Conference from Franciscan University in Steubenville, OH. The night will include a time of Adoration live at St. Stephen the Martyr Church.

Saturday (1:00 -9:00) the teens will come together to continue the Live Stream of the Steubenville Retreat at St. Stephen's. Saturday evening they will participate together in a live, special time of Praise and Worship and Adoration at St. Stephen's.

For more information or to register contact Debbie Blomquist at ssm.youth@gmail.com. Registration forms are available now and due by June 1st. You can pick up a registration form from the Youth Ministry Cart located in the narthex or by contacting Debbie Blomquist.

Respect Life

Don't let our government force you to pay for the deaths of unborn children. Last Friday, President Biden proposed a national budget that would take away the Hyde Amendment. Without the Hyde Amendment and related policies, billions of taxpayer dollars could be used to pay for abortion in the United States and throughout the world. Go to <https://www.notaxpayerabortion.com> and contact the President and Congress. Even if you've already contacted Congress about this, they need to hear from you again! TAKE ACTION NOW

Thank You

Gabriel PREPARES - Did you know a baby uses 7 to 11 diapers a day, over 200 a month, a very big box?? Would you like to adopt a size? Each month bring/ship one big box to St. Stephen for our 11 babies. Most needed sizes now are 4, 5, and Toddler pull-ups for both girls and boys. Contact Robertajorgensen@comcast.net or Kathleen 253.653.6074. We are looking for more angel companions to add to our program too.

June 13 - Eleventh Sunday of Ordinary Time: In the Gospel, Jesus says: "This is how it is with the reign of God. A man scatters seed on the ground. He goes to bed and gets up day after day. Through it all the seed sprouts and grows without his knowing how it happens." Through your almsgiving you are sowing seeds that grow far greater than you know. Your contributions through the St. Vincent de Paul blue envelope bring Christ love and compassion to the poor.

Got old wax candles? We are beginning a wax recycling program. Recycled candle wax will be turned into new candles to be given away for a donation. The donated funds will buy wax (51% beeswax) to make candles for the altars in the church and chapel. So drop off your wax contributions in the big blue tote next to the food bank baskets (also used for old cell phones and inkjet cartridges) in the narthex. You can also give your old wax candles directly to me, Bernie Wittgens (206-427-6085). Thank you.
