Rest a while...

Jesus is our rest. As St. Augustine said, "You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You." Is your heart at rest, yet? We long for God's peace. "Our God is a God of peace." We are made in His image and likeness, inclusive of an eternal soul, so of course we long for peace in order to fulfill our divinely created nature. How can we make Jesus our rest?

Jesus Himself shows us an example of an ongoing need that we should be caring for. The Gospel says that after much ministry, Jesus said, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." We need solitude and prayer. Without these Divine gifts, we become frazzled and tend towards self-reliance to solve the pain of too much conflict. We try to save the world ourselves...and we fail.

Jesus does not fail, however, when people really trust in Him. As the Divine Mercy image invites us to pray, "Jesus, I trust in You." Trusting in Him means learning how to be God-reliant. While as children we might learn to trust God, we often, while immersed in the world's way of thinking, have learned to trust in ourselves. Disaster. As competent as we might be in human affairs, if we are relying on ourselves, we are building a wonderful house, but on sand. It will tumble. Or even worse, God will leave us in our sinful pride, blind to the tragedy of our arrogance. Jesus, heal us.

Do you take time for solitude every day? As a Secular Carmelite, I'm called to 30 minutes of meditation in silence and solitude. I can definitely say that without this rule of life I would never have completed seminary nor survived the trials of being a priest. Only by the grace of God and the nourishment of prayer have I been able to persevere thus far. He has been faithful to me. Please consider regular solitude each day.

Those of you who work outside the home might need a little transition time in nature or a holy place. I remember a millionaire banker whose family I stayed with in Vancouver. Every evening he would come home from work and go to the garden. There I would find him pulling weeds. Inane, unnecessary for a wealthy man, but necessary for someone who knew his need. What is your need today for rest? Do you know what it is?

Some go on vacations that require a week off after a week of vacation. Instead of being refreshed, we come home dissipated and stressed. Have you ever just sat in Church and enjoyed the silence? Have you ever just parked yourself by a mountain stream and forgot the destination of the hike, realizing you had already arrived? Have you ever stopped and just breathed, filling your lungs with the Holy Name of Jesus? Do so now and you will have peace.

Archdiocesan Pastoral Planning Process

Archbishop Etienne has called for an Archdiocesan-wide Pastoral Planning process. I want to include a link here to their webpage so you can see where we are at in that process. (See <https://archseattle.org/about-the-archdiocese-of-seattle/archbishop-etienne/pastoralplanning/>). Here are the basics:

Our Mission

Jesus said to his disciples, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." - Matthew 28:18-20

The Vision

The outcome of a successful pastoral planning process will be a Church that reflects the Risen Christ to others. The goal is to help people have a conversion experience so they can draw closer to the Church and joyfully share Christ with the world today.

NEW News Regarding Mass Attendance

There will be some changes to this weekend's Saturday Vigil and Sunday Masses. Following the Archdiocese recent guidelines, we are making the following changes:

Registration NO LONGER Required for Weekend Masses!!!

Seating will be first come, first served. Seating capacity is limited. Overflow to the Underground Church will take place at the 8:30 and 11:00 AM Masses. Everyone is encouraged to wear a mask, but they are no longer required. There will be separate sections for distanced and no-distanced seating.

These guidelines could be relaxed in the future, stayed tuned for more updates.

Tips for the Best Mass Experience:

There is no Underground Mass for Saturday Vigil, so please arrive early as capacity is limited. Sunday 8:30 am and 11:00 am the Underground Church in the Hall is available for Mass via Video with Communion served, if you prefer or if upstairs is full. Sunday 8:30 am Mass usually has more seating available. If you require seating assistance please arrive 15-20 minutes early. Remember, patience is a virtue, (and a blessing)! Please arrive early! We look forward to seeing you - God Bless!

Respect Life

Dear Parish family and friends. The month of July is upon us, which means it's time for our Respect Life Ministry to join with our Knights of Columbus council in supporting 4US (For Ultra Sound). 4US is a local respect life charity, who have over the years, with our help, furnished ultrasound machines to pregnancy centers here in Washington and across the US.

The 4US mission is to illuminate hope for pregnant women in crisis through the power of ultrasound. Remember, 96% of women viewing their baby on ultrasound, opt to keep the baby. A powerful way they can do that is with help from our parish family and the Knights of Columbus. Please go to <https://4us.org/adopt-a-center/about> to learn more about this wonderful life saving organization and consider donating, so that we at SSTM can continue to stand for Stand for Life.

July 18 - Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples to "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Vincent de Paul, a great man of action was also a contemplative. His contemplation of God's love overflowed into practical love for the poor. Please say a special prayer for the poor and forgotten, as you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul blue envelope.

New Sacarium Installed

"... when you have received the body of the Lord, you reverently exercise every care lest a particle of it fall, and lest anything of the consecrated gift perish ..."

~ Origin of Alexandria (c.185 - c.254) Christian theologian, in Homilies on Exodus 1

The Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist requires of us the utmost reverent treatment of His Body and Blood. To help ensure that no particle of the Body of Christ and no drop of His Precious Blood will perish at St. Stephens we are nearing completion of a new sacarium sink in the sacristy. It has a cover, a basin, and a special pipe that drains directly into the earth instead of the sewer system. After Mass the sacred vessels and linens are rinsed in the sacarium sink so that the sacred species is dissolved and receives a dignified "burial" in the earth.

The sacarium is unabashedly beautiful. Notice the veins of the natural stone that are reminiscent of the Shroud of Turin, the careful workmanship of the carpentry, the crown of thorns found on the hardware, and the chi-rho and cross on the lid that symbolize Christ. God, Creator of all things and the source of beauty, is both honored and revealed in this sacred object. By reflecting His beauty the sacarium evokes and glorifies a mystery of God -- that of our Lord Jesus Christ in the Most Holy Eucharist. Meditating upon the attributes of the sacarium can lead us to greater adoration, love, and reverence for the precious gift of His Body and Blood. May the Lord increase our faith in His real presence in the Holy Eucharist!

We give thanks to God for our new sacarium and to the Fil-Am Spring Festival group who donated the funds to purchase this sacred object that is truly worthy of our Lord.
