Words from Fr. Ed

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon. A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.

The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" —For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.—

Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink, 'you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

The woman said to him, "Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?"

Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water. "I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem."

Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth."

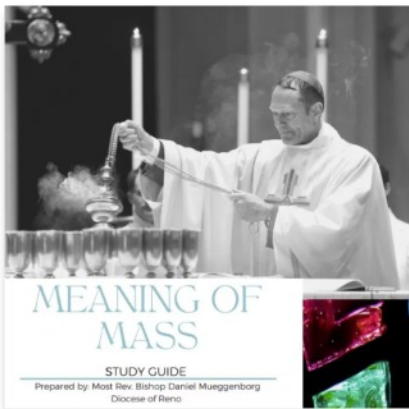

The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything."

Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking with you." Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him. When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman,

"We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

- Jn 4:5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42

Jesus encounters the Samaritan woman and brings her from skepticism to faith to evangelization in a few minutes. It's an encounter that hopefully represents our own encounter with the Lord. Jesus meets us where we are at and elevates us to a better place and a more fervent faith. While this may be true of you individually, collectively we would have to admit that the Church is not at the evangelical stage, yet. The trajectory is there, but perhaps we have become content to sit at the well listening to Jesus. The Samaritan woman, however, obeyed our Lord, dropped her bucket, and went to evangelize her husband, neighbors, and friends. Let us pray for that grace through the power of God's Word. Our Responsorial Psalm says it succinctly:

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Oh, that today you would hear his voice:

"Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as in the day of Massah in the desert,

Where your fathers tempted me;
they tested me though they had seen my works."

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

This weekend I'll be continuing a series of instructions on the Liturgy DURING the liturgy. This month we'll look more closely at the Liturgy of the Word. I'm using Bishop Mueggenborg's document on Understanding the Liturgy, which you can find on our web site at <https://ststephenslife.com/understanding-the-mass>.

God's word must find a HOME in our hearts, and we must RESPOND to it!

Share your Gifts and Talents at St. Stephen's

Here are a few needs at our parish. Contact Beth Nieva for more information (253-480-7105, bnieva@ststephenslife.com).

Screen Operator - Once a month run the screens at the Saturday 5 PM Mass or Sunday 11 AM Mass. Ideal candidates are comfortable using a PC, attentive to the action of the liturgy, able to confidently "go with the flow."

Altar Server Closet Keeper - Once a week straighten the Altar Server closet. Wash and iron garments periodically, as needed. The ideal candidate appreciates order and cleanliness. Work alone or with a friend on your own schedule.

Altar Server Mentor - Train young people in the skills and spirituality of altar serving. Ideal candidates like working with children and teens, are naturally encouraging, good communicators, and love the Holy Eucharist and the sacred action of the liturgy.

Talents Team - Assist with connecting volunteers to ministries. Make phone calls to welcome new people, send emails, and assist with follow-up paperwork.

Welcome Team - Bring a smile to the Narthex before and after Masses. Assist with simple questions and welcome visitors.

Greeter and Ushers - Do you already attend the 8:30 am Mass? Joe could use your help. Assist families with seating, help with the collection and Communion. This is a great way to assist with the smooth flow of Mass and get to know others.

Adoration Invitation

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at St. Stephen's is now perpetual!

- Jesus is exposed daily from midnight to midnight
- No adoration during regularly scheduled Masses
- To sign up or for more information: visit the website:

<https://ststephenslife.com/eucharistic-adoration> or visit the adoration table in the Narthex after Mass. All hours have room for more adorers. Call one of the coordinators: Tina (206) 715-8462 or Bernie (206) 427-6085

DISPENSATION FOR SAINT PATRICK'S DAY

The 40 days of Lent are a preparation for the great celebration of the Triduum and the 50 days of Easter. During this penitential season we aim to join ourselves ever more closely to Christ who suffered and died for us to conquer sin and death. As part of our Lenten practice, Catholics are asked to abstain from meat on Fridays during Lent.

Whereas, the law of abstinence from meat binds those who have completed their fourteenth year (canon 1252); and

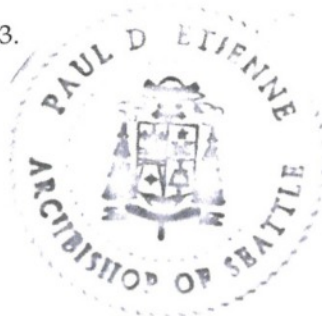

Whereas, this year, the March 17th Memorial of Saint Patrick falls on a Friday in Lent; and

Whereas, Saint Patrick's Day is traditionally commemorated with special celebrations.

Now, Therefore, I decree that on Friday, March 17, 2023, all Catholics of the Archdiocese of Seattle, no matter where they may be, and all other Catholics present here in the archdiocese on that day, are hereby dispensed from the obligation to abstain from meat.

I encourage all who make use of this dispensation to engage in another penitential or charitable act that day.

Given at the Chancery of the Archdiocese of Seattle
this 8th day of February, in the year of our Lord, 2023.

ST ANTHONY SCHOOL

March 12 Third Sunday of Lent: In today's Gospel, Jesus says: "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work." Through your almsgiving you are doing the will of the Father and finishing the work of Jesus. Know that your nickel, dime or quarter is multiplied by the coins placed by others in the St. Vincent ministry.

Now Enrolling: St. Anthony School - Are you interested in your child receiving a mission-based, community-focused Catholic education? For nearly 100 years, St. Anthony School has educated the whole child to better the world and serve others. St. Anthony is now enrolling for all grades for next school year (2023-2024). Please visit our website at www.sasr.org or email Jean Dang at dang@sasr.org to set up a school tour or to learn more info.

Are You Interested in Home Schooling?

The beauty of the program is you can start at any time, even mid-year. SSTM Home School Co-op offers support to families and helps our students grow in their Catholic faith. If you have questions please reach out to Beth Nieva or Stephanie Firth at sstm.homeschool@gmail.com

Thank You to all who gave so generously to St. Stephen Housing Association this holiday season! We received over $2500 in food and gas cards through the Giving Tree in the Narthex, which will go directly to the families in our program when they move in from the shelter or their car, or when they struggle financially. Many thanks to those who adopted a family for Christmas and to those who made a financial donation. Your generosity will go a long way toward helping families experiencing homelessness feel supported as they find stability! Blessings to all for a wonderful new year!

Iron Sharpens Iron - Seattle Men's Conference April 29, St Michael's, Olympia

Dynamic speakers will include: Bishop Frank Shuster, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Seattle; Dr. Tom Curran - Sound Insight host on Sacred Heart Radio; Deacon James Thurman - Founder & organizer of the Holy League annual men's conference in Portland; John Leonetti Nationally known Catholic speaker, best-selling author and radio host. Come gain transforming insights, inspiration and new Catholic men's friendship. Invite all the Catholic men you know (all ages) to come with you. Become the best Catholic man that your family and the Church needs. Enjoy the camaraderie of fellow Catholic guys in conversation and prayer who are striving to become BOLD in their faith. This will be an experience you won't want to miss! Registration and info

Faith Insights from Bishop Fulton Sheen

It doesn't take much time to become a saint, only much love. A mirror is silent, yet reflects forests (sic), sunsets, flowers and faces. Great ascetic souls, given to years of meditation, have taken on a radiance and a beauty which are beyond the outlines of faces. They seem to reflect, like the mirror on the outside, the Christ they bear within.

Grief Ministry - If you are grieving the death of a loved one, come find strength and compassion with the St. Stephen's Virtual Grief Support Group on Sunday, March 19th from 1:00-2:30 pm. Our topic will be "Pain, Pain Go Away". For more information and to register, please contact Sharon Rasmussen at srasmussen910@yahoo.com. "God comforts us in all our troubles so that we will be able to comfort others." 2 Corinthians 1, 4

Partners In the Gospel Update - As announced in January, the Archdiocese is going through a pastoral planning process that will involve all parishes in a dialogue and discernment of how best to fulfill our mission as Catholic Christians. Partners in Gospel is a strategic pastoral planning effort taking place across the Archdiocese of Seattle to re-invigorate and renew our local Catholic Church. Today we face many realities that impact parish life and make it difficult to fully live out our mission. This archdiocesan-wide renewal effort, led by the Holy Spirit and grounded in prayer, will help us better support vibrant, sustainable, mission-focused parish communities across the entire Archdiocese of Seattle. To learn more about Partners in the Gospel, please visit archseattle.org/Partners or ststephenslife.com/partners-in-the-gospel

Young Catholic Professionals Launch - The newly established Seattle chapter of Young Catholic Professionals (YCP) invites young adults to get involved in our ministry focused on Working in Witness for Christ in the Archdiocese of Seattle. Join us as we celebrate this momentous occasion. All Catholic professionals young and "young at heart" are invited to join us at 7:00pm on March 25th at St. Bridget Catholic Church in Seattle. RSVP requested. Follow us @ycpseattle on Facebook and Instagram for more details. Learn more about YCP at www.youngcatholicprofessionals.org
