One thing I do know is that I was blind and now I see.
From a treatise on John by St Augustine (guest commentator)

Christ is the way to the light, the truth and the life

The Lord tells us: I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. In these few words he gives a command and makes a promise. Let us do what he commands so that we may not blush to covet what he promises and to hear him say on the day of judgement: "I laid down certain conditions for obtaining my promises. Have you fulfilled them?" If you say: "What did you command, Lord our God?" he will tell you: "I commanded you to follow me. You asked for advice on how to enter into life. What life, if not the life about which it is written: With you is the fountain of life?"

Let us do now what he commands. Let us follow in the footsteps of the Lord. Let us throw off the chains that prevent us from following him. Who can throw off these shackles without the aid of the one addressed in these words: You have broken my chains? Another psalm says of him: The Lord frees those in chains, the Lord raises up the downcast.

Those who have been freed and raised up follow the light. The light they follow speaks to them: I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness. The Lord gives light to the blind. Brethren, that light shines on us now, for we have had our eyes anointed with the eye-salve of faith. His saliva was mixed with earth to anoint the man born blind. We are of Adam's stock, blind from our birth; we need him to give us light. He mixed saliva with earth, and so it was prophesied: Truth has sprung up from the earth. He himself has said: I am the way, the truth, and the life.

We shall be in possession of the truth when we see face to face. This is his promise to us. Who would dare to hope for something that God in his goodness did not choose to promise or bestow?

We shall see face to face. The Apostle says: Now I know in part, now obscurely through a mirror, but then face to face. John the Apostle says in one of his letters: Dearly beloved, we are now children of God, and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be. We know that when he is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. This is a great promise.

If you love me, follow me. "I do love you," you protest, "but how do I follow you?" If the Lord your God said to you: "I am the truth and the life," in your desire for truth, in your love for life, you would certainly ask him to show you the way to reach them. You would say to yourself: "Truth is a great reality; life is a great reality; if only it were possible for my soul to find them!"

You ask how to follow him? Listen to what he said before anything else: "I am the way". So, before he told you where to go, he told you how. "I am the way," he said. The way where? "The truth and the life". First, he told you how to go, then where you were going. "I am the way, the truth and the life". At one with the Father, he is the truth and the life; taking on flesh, he becomes the way.

You are not being told, "Labour to find the way by which you can come to truth and life". That is not it at all. Do not be sluggish! Get up! The way has itself come to you; it has woken you from sleep. So, since you have been woken from sleep, get up and walk.

Or perhaps you are indeed trying to walk but cannot do it because your feet hurt. Why are your feet hurting? Has avarice caused you to run over rough ground? The word of God heals even the lame. Or perhaps your feet are sound, but you cannot see the way to follow. Even so: he gives sight even to the blind. Share your Gifts and Talents at St. Stephen's

Here are a few needs at our parish. Contact Beth Nieva for more information (253-480-7105, bnieva@ststephenslife.com).

Screen Operator - Once a month run the screens at the Saturday 5 PM Mass or Sunday 11 AM Mass. Ideal candidates are comfortable using a PC, attentive to the action of the liturgy, able to confidently "go with the flow."

Altar Server Closet Keeper - Once a week straighten the Altar Server closet. Wash and iron garments periodically, as needed. The ideal candidate appreciates order and cleanliness. Work alone or with a friend on your own schedule.

Altar Server Mentor - Train young people in the skills and spirituality of altar serving. Ideal candidates like working with children and teens, are naturally encouraging, good communicators, and love the Holy Eucharist and the sacred action of the liturgy.

Talents Team - Assist with connecting volunteers to ministries. Make phone calls to welcome new people, send emails, and assist with follow-up paperwork.

Welcome Team - Bring a smile to the Narthex before and after Masses. Assist with simple questions and welcome visitors.

Greeter and Ushers - Do you already attend the 8:30 am Mass? Joe could use your help. Assist families with seating, help with the collection and Communion. This is a great way to assist with the smooth flow of Mass and get to know others.

Faith Insights from Bishop Fulton Sheen Joy is not the same as pleasure or happiness. A wicked and evil man may have pleasure, while any ordinary mortal is capable of being happy. Pleasure generally comes from things, and always through the senses; happiness comes from humans through fellowship. Joy comes from loving God and neighbor. Pleasure is quick and violent, like a flash of lightning. Joy is steady and abiding, like a fixed star. Pleasure depends on external circumstances, such as money, food, travel, etc. Joy is independent of them, for it comes from a good conscience and love of God.

An Important Note from Fr. Tom Vandenberg

Many of you will not know me, but I feel close to you, the people of St. Stephan the Martyr Parish, because I frequently assisted Fr. Ed a few years back. What I share today does not give me joy, but I want you to know that I have been diagnosed with a stage 4 small cell carcinoma. I would not have known, had not something suspicious been detected when I had a Cat-scan to find a kidney stone. After a biopsy, a PET-scan revealed the cancer had spread to my bones. An MRI showed it had not gone to my brain. This didn't surprise me as nothing had ever been found there before. I am half-way through my chemo treatments, and am doing well. One negative side effect is that this compromises my immune system, so I need to avoid large crowds and be more careful around people. All I ask of you is your prayer that I remain strong in faith, hope and love during this time, and that you love the people in your life that need your love. Knowing you are doing that will give true joy to my heart. With my love, Father Tom
