What Sort of Things?

Our Lord Jesus Christ, crucified and risen, is in dialogue with the disciples of Emmaus, asking about what they have experienced these past few days. Here is the Gospel (Lk 24:13-35) in full:

That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred. And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him.

He asked them, "What are you discussing as you walk along?"

They stopped, looking downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?"

And he replied to them, "What sort of things?"

They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him. But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive. Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see"

And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures.

As they approached the village to which they were going, he gave the impression that he was going on farther. But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight.

Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!"

Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

I include this because it is a Gospel that captures the essence of the liturgy and the importance of processing our experience of God with one another. Jesus enters into the hike of the two disciples, into the depths of their grief and discouragement, just as He does with us today. Like the Mass, He does this through sharing God's Word and a homily of sorts. Arriving at Emmaus, Jesus breaks the bread revealing His presence. He does the same with us each and every Mass. Let us become fully aware of Jesus' presence in the Mass.

Jerusalem

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem!

By the time you read this, I'll be moving from Jerusalem to Tel Aviv and the north of Israel. I'll have enjoyed a few days in Jerusalem and Bethlehem. Thank you for your prayers. I'll be traveling under the angelic dome of God's protection. Here is a sample of what one would see in the Holy Land: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Uq56ectzwno&t=1433s>

Share your Gifts and Talents at St. Stephen's

Here are a few needs at our parish. Contact Beth Nieva for more information (253-480-7105, bnieva@ststephenslife.com).

Screen Operator - Once a month run the screens at the Saturday 5 PM Mass or Sunday 11 AM Mass. Ideal candidates are comfortable using a PC, attentive to the action of the liturgy, able to confidently "go with the flow."

Altar Server Closet Keeper - Once a week straighten the Altar Server closet. Wash and iron garments periodically, as needed. The ideal candidate appreciates order and cleanliness. Work alone or with a friend on your own schedule.

Altar Server Mentor - Train young people in the skills and spirituality of altar serving. Ideal candidates like working with children and teens, are naturally encouraging, good communicators, and love the Holy Eucharist and the sacred action of the liturgy.

Talents Team - Assist with connecting volunteers to ministries. Make phone calls to welcome new people, send emails, and assist with follow-up paperwork.

Welcome Team - Bring a smile to the Narthex before and after Masses. Assist with simple questions and welcome visitors.

Greeter and Ushers - Do you already attend the 8:30 am Mass? Joe could use your help. Assist families with seating, help with the collection and Communion. This is a great way to assist with the smooth flow of Mass and get to know others.

Adoration Invitation

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at St. Stephen's is now perpetual!

- Jesus is exposed daily from midnight to midnight
- No adoration during regularly scheduled Masses
- To sign up or for more information: visit the website:

April 23: Third Sunday of Easter: In this Sunday's Gospel, as we hear the story of the disciples on the road to Emmaus, we also come to know that our daily reaching out to our neighbor is our daily walk with the risen Christ; we recognize him in others. Your donations to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, brought the love and care of Jesus to the poor by assisting families in providing food, utility and rent Thank You!

Faith Insights from Bishop Fulton Sheen

PRIDE. Two classes of people make up the world: those who have found God, and those who are looking for Him – thirsting, hungering, seeking! And the great sinners came closer to Him than the proud intellectuals! Pride swells and inflates the ego; gross sinners are depressed, deflated and empty. They, therefore, have room for God. God prefers a loving sinner to a loveless 'saint'. Love can be trained; pride cannot. The man who thinks that he knows will rarely find truth; the man who knows he is miserable, unhappy sinner, like the woman at the well, is closer to peace, joy and salvation than he knows.

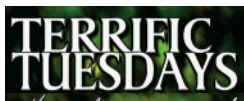

Books for Kids

There is now a basket with children's books for use during daily and weekend masses. It will be kept in the back of the Church, by the water font during the week & by library door small table on weekends.

Your Food Pantry (Bank) The Food Pantry continues to serve many families every week! Your generosity is a valuable part of this ministry and we thank you for your continued support!. As a reminder, the Pantry is now back to it's normal schedule: Monday 10:00 am – 11:45 am; Wednesday 4:00 pm – 5:45 pm; Friday 10:00 pm – 11:45 pm.

Terrific Tuesday Meals are Back! All are welcome for 6:00 PM dinner in the Social Hall at St. Stephens. Meals served on the following dates: April 25, May 30, June 27.

Friday Morning Men's Prayer & Reflection

Social Hall opens at 6:15 AM for coffee and donuts. Morning Prayer begins at 6:30 in the chapel, followed by reading and reflection of the coming Sunday Gospel. We conclude no later than 7:30 AM. Participants are encouraged to download the app, I-Breviary for use with the Morning Office of Readings.

April 2023 Events for Life
