Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations,
baptizing them in the name of the Father,
and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.

Any healthy institution depends on obedience to accomplish its task and purpose for being. Jesus' Great Commission quoted above is the Church's purpose for being. As Paul VI said, "The Church exists in order to evangelize." That was in the context of a larger document, Evangelii Nuntiandi:

It is with joy and consolation that at the end of the great Assembly of 1974 we heard these illuminating words: "We wish to confirm once more that the task of evangelizing all people constitutes the essential mission of the Church." [36] It is a task and mission which the vast and profound changes of present-day society make all the more urgent. Evangelizing is in fact the grace and vocation proper to the Church, her deepest identity. She exists in order to evangelize, that is to say, in order to preach and teach, to be the channel of the gift of grace, to reconcile sinners with God, and to perpetuate Christ's sacrifice in the Mass, which is the memorial of His death and glorious resurrection. Do we exist in order to evangelize at St. Stephens?

This question is always worth asking as an examen of whether we are fulfilling our purpose or not. But even more so, As we continue the Partners in the Gospel process of restructuring and renewing the Archdiocese, it's an opportune time to improve our focus on this imperative. What is necessary to make this happen?

The first ingredient that I recommend is prayer. As we prepare 35+ candidates for the Sacrament of Confirmation (May 28th!), it's simultaneously an opportunity for all of us to be renewed in the Holy Spirit. We begin a Novena to the Holy Spirit on Friday the 19th of May, begging Our Lord to anoint these youth with a radical outpouring of the Holy Spirit. This Novena perpetuates the first Novena that the apostles and Our Blessed Mother began at the Ascension of Christ into heaven, after receiving His Great Commission quoted above.

This little community hastened to the Upper Room and spent their time praying for the power from on High to come upon them. (I found two in Jerusalem. A good article on the traditional site can be found here: <https://www.biblicalarchaeology.org/daily/biblical-topics/post-biblical-period/hunting-for-the-upper-room-in-jerusalem/>) They obeyed Our Lord. Obedience bears good fruit and can be a condition of His promise. We also are beneficiaries of His promises.

Jesus said, "Ask, and you shall receive." Therefore, let us ask for a renewal in the Holy Spirit to come upon the whole parish this Pentecost. Let us ask for an activation of all the gifts of the Holy Spirit that we received at Confirmation. Let us ask for all the virtues necessary to fulfill God's Holy Will in our lives. When we do that, we become saints and help set the world on fire with love for God. As St Catherine of Sienna said, "Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire."

Come Holy Spirit,

*fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them
the fire of your love.*

*Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And You shall renew the face of the earth.*

*O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit,
did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations, Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.*

Thank you to all who continue to give generously to the Annual Catholic Appeal as well as through your prayers and participation in ministry and mission of St. Stephen the Martyr. Your efforts make so many things possible for our parish and the wider church throughout Western Washington. We want to ask you this year to please consider giving your Annual Appeal gift online. We know many of you are still comfortable writing a check or inserting cash in the envelope for us to send to the Archdiocese and we greatly appreciate your generosity and consistency over many years. As we strive to make giving to the Annual Appeal more secure, safer, faster, and efficient for our staff, we want you to consider making your gift online for the following reasons:

- Most important: Because the ACA is processed centrally at the Archdiocese, any envelopes received here at the parish (cash, check, or credit card) will be recorded at the parish and then sent via U.S. Postal service to the Archdiocese. Eliminating the need to send checks and cash through the mail is safer, timely (avoids the USPS staffing shortages), consistent and just better business in this era of electronic processing
- Giving a gift online is safe and secure. Online vendors go to great lengths to ensure their online giving platform is fully secure and compliant with industry standards.
- Giving online saves an incredible amount of time here at St Stephens for our staff and volunteers. Online gifts go directly to the Archdiocese site where they can be processed faster, more efficiently and with less errors (particularly handwriting errors that need clarification). The Archdiocese uploads a detailed report every week for any donations that were marked directly for our parish (people giving online select their parish from a drop-down screen). This report is then used to record your gift here at the parish.

- Giving a gift online is better for the environment. Being good stewards of our resources is one of the fundamental aspects of being a disciple.

Faith Insights from Bishop Fulton Sheen - Broken things are precious. We eat broken bread because we share in the depths of our Lord and his broken life. Broken flowers give perfume. Broken incense is used in Adoration. A broken ship saved Saint Paul and many other passengers on their way to Rome. Sometimes the only way the good Lord can get into some hearts is to break them.

May Catholics work tirelessly to support mothers in need, helping them obtain all the necessities of life.

Respect Life - The month of May is truly a celebration of motherhood. Traditionally, May has been dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is also the time in which we honor and thank our earthly mothers for their sacrificial love. And the Feast of the Visitation on May 31 celebrates the meeting of two mothers—Mary and Elizabeth—both with a child hidden within their wombs. In preparation for the Feast of the Visitation, join Catholics nationwide in praying A Novena for Life from May 22-30. (Sign up to receive the daily prayers at respectlife.org/visitation.)

In addition to "walking with" mothers in love, support, and friendship, we can also help answer their needs for practical and material assistance. Inspired by our Blessed Mother, we can help connect mothers with the Church's extensive network of social services to ensure mothers and their children obtain all the necessities of life. Through generous stewardship of the gifts God has entrusted to us of prayer, time, talent, and treasure, we can help meet the needs of mothers as they welcome and care for God's precious gift of life.
