...like a treasure

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

"The Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure..." And so are you. Or shall we call ourselves Treasure Chests. We hold a treasure, as St. Paul says, in earthen vessels. Jesus gives us great dignity when He takes up residence in our souls. Through baptism we are immersed in God and God is immersed in us. This is what gives us our identity as beloved sons and daughters.

This treasure, as our Gospel proclaims, is worth selling all in order to obtain it. Have you purchased this treasure with all of your heart? The more we have sacrificed for it the more we will appreciate it. The more we value the treasure of Christ in our hearts the more we will cling to Him when challenges arise. Some of these challenges are being shared in our Archbishop's Pastoral Letter regarding the Partners in the Gospel process.

The Archbishop's Letter was released this week and I encourage all of you to read it in full. I include a part of it here along with the link: <https://archseattle.org/partners/>

Partners in the Gospel

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

"I give thanks to my God at every remembrance of you, praying always with joy in my every prayer for all of you, because of your partnership for the gospel from the first day until now." (Philippians 1:3-5)

When St. Paul wrote his letter to the Philippians centuries ago, he began with a word of thanks. I wish to begin this letter with a word of thanks and an assurance of my prayers for all of you. As your Archbishop, I am endlessly amazed by — and profoundly grateful for — the witness you give to Jesus Christ in this beautiful part of God's creation. I am grateful for the lay leaders in our parishes, schools, Chancery offices and ministries, and Catholic Community Services and Catholic Housing Services for their dedicated service in the name of Christ. I am grateful to our deacons and religious for the many ways they have answered the call to serve God's people. And I am grateful to our priests, to whom I can only say: Thank you for all the ways you witness to Christ in the world and for the loving service you give to God's holy people. Thank you for your partnership in the Gospel. We are all partners in the Gospel. And why does this matter? The Gospel shares the life of Jesus and is the foundation of our faith and understanding of Jesus' teachings. In Matthew 28:19, Jesus speaks to us saying, "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." This is known as the Great Commission and is ultimately why the Church exists today. The proclamation of the Kingdom of God is not a task we do alone, nor is it a responsibility reserved to the ordained. All the baptized are called to do this holy work together, as one body — the Body of Christ — and whatever affects one, affects us all.

In these pages, I wish to reflect with you on some of the challenges we face today in our local Church, how we will meet these challenges together, and how, as partners in the Gospel, we can build up healthy and vibrant parish communities.

- Archbishop Etienne

We'll be hearing more about Partners as the Archdiocese gradually prepares parish family scenarios for wider feedback. Parishioners should be able to see the current draft by the end of September when they will be able to give feedback on the proposal. Then in January 2024, the Archbishop will decide who is being united as parish families. In the spring he will choose pastors for those families. Please pray for this process to be inspired by the Holy Spirit of renewal in all of our lives. By the time you read this I'll be in Fatima, Portugal with our young adults on the way to World Youth Day. Our prayers will be with you. As the angel taught the children at Fatima (EW):

My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love Thee!

I ask pardon for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love Thee.

Partners in the Gospel - As part of the Partners in the Gospel strategic pastoral planning process, we have launched the Current Reality Report.

- This report provides a snapshot of the archdiocese today and outlines data and trends – as well as forecasts for demographic changes over the next decade. It also outlines the urgent need for change and why we must re-envision parish life.
- The Current Reality report is available online at the Archdiocese of Seattle website – and we have a link to it on our own website as well.
- I highly recommend that everyone take time to read this report or watch the online video presentation. This will help ground all of us in the reality we share before we begin the process of reviewing potential parish family configurations this fall. Respect Life - In Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, the Supreme Court overturned Roe v. Wade and returned the issue of abortion to the people's elected representatives at both the state and federal level. Despite this monumental legal victory, abortion policy is far from settled. Sadly, over the past year, several states have used this opportunity to not only keep abortion legal, but also to pursue even more extreme pro-abortion policies. Currently, abortion is legal in more states than not. Our dedicated efforts are desperately needed in the months and years to come to protect pre-born children and their mothers from the tragedy of abortion. As Catholics, we have a duty to pursue the common good and to work for the protection of the most vulnerable. Inspired by the Gospel, we must do what we can to end violence in the womb, to ensure that pre-born children are fully protected by our laws, and to support mothers and fathers in welcoming and nurturing their children. Together, may we help build a culture of life and civilization of love in our nation.

ST ANTHONY SCHOOL

THANK YOU!

July 30: Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: - In the Gospel, we find that the demand of daily Christian living is to spend our life primarily searching for the kingdom of God. Your financial gifts have kept the lights on and a roof over the heads of our neighbors in desperate need. Thank you.

Faith Insights from Bishop Fulton Sheen - Grace does not work like a penny in a slot machine. Grace will move you only when you want it to move you, and only when you let it move you. The supernatural order supposes the freedom of the natural order, but it does not destroy it

Gifts: God has given different gifts for different people. There is no basis for feeling inferior to another, who has a different gift. Once it is realized that we shall be judged by the gift we have received, rather than the gift we have not, one is completely delivered from a false sense of inferiority.

Darling Dusters - We Need Your Help! The Darling Dusters, who serve the church by helping to keep it neat and tidy, need more helpers. Please join us for an hour on Mondays, starting at 9 am. If you are interested in serving in this ministry, please call Betty in the church office (253-631-1940).

Now Enrolling: St. Anthony School - Are you interested in your child receiving a mission-based, community-focused Catholic education? For nearly 100 years, St. Anthony School has educated the whole child to better the world and serve others. We still have spot available in all grades for this upcoming school year, 2023-2024 and will continue to register through fall. Please visit our website at www.sasr.org or email Jean Dang at dang@sasr.org to set up a school tour or to learn more info. "To educate children to be joyous, St. Anthony School in Renton is looking to hire teachers in 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 6th and 7th/8th grade middle school math. If you would like to inquire about any of these open positions please email your resume to Deacon Michael at cantu@sasr.org.

St. Stephen Housing Association is gearing up for its November 4th Wine Tasting and Auction Fundraiser "HOPE FOR HOUSING". We are looking for auction items, such as tickets to events, rounds of golf, and restaurant and spa gift certificates, or brand new items you've just never used, just to name a few. Or if you love to make gift baskets and would like to make one for the auction, we would be thrilled! Do you have a skill you would be willing to donate that could be auctioned off? If you have something to donate that could be used in our auction to raise money for homeless families, we would love to talk to you! Please contact us at 253-638-9798 or SSHAfundraiser@gmail.com.
