Report: Steubenville Northwest

Hey everyone! I hope you all are still riding the wave in the wake of this year's World Youth Day! As we welcome back our pilgrims from Europe, I'd like to talk about another group of young people who sought out and encountered Christ closer to home.

In mid-July, 12 of our teens (the "New Apostles" as I call them) journeyed with 50 of their peers from four other parishes to the Steubenville NW Conference held in Spokane. This weekend-long gathering brought together hundreds of teens from all over Washington, as well as groups from Idaho, Oregon, Montana, and British Columbia.

As usual, the conference assembled a crack team of influential Catholic speakers, including Dan Harms, Lisa Cotter, Michael Gormley, Paul J. Kim, and Fr. Agostino Torres, CFR, all of whom spoke on the overarching theme of Refuge. This theme was lifted from Matthew 11:28, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." With the conference's slate of events, including several opportunities for praise and worship, small group discussion, Confession, and interaction with various religious orders, it felt like there was very little time for (physical) rest! Yet, while in Mass and Adoration, I can personally attest to the deep sense of repose and renewal that our Lord provided me and showered upon the teens.

Equally as impressive was seeing the spirited enthusiasm and profound reverence shown by our 12 teens. For most of our group this was their first Steubenville Conference. Whether a newbie or regular attendee, I saw a different side of each one of our teens emerge over the course of the conference as they surrendered themselves to the goodness and refuge found only in Jesus Christ. We even had three young men consider a call to the priesthood! Just think of blessing for our Church and Archdiocese if even one of those young men go onto Holy Orders!

We are so fortunate here in the PNW that these gatherings are held all around the country. As an Ohio native, I thought that these powerful youth programs only happened at Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio. When people had asked me if we would ever take teens to the conferences again, I shuddered at the idea of organizing a cross-country flight with a bunch of rowdy youths. Imagine my relief to find out that the conferences were also held here in our own state of Washington, and that our own young people are absolute angels to travel with...phew! Though it's been nearly 20 years since I attended a Steubenville Conference, I must say that this year's event was just as impactful (if not more so) than that first time!

But don't just take my word for it: "Although my mom had originally forced me to go on this trip," stated one teen to one of our volunteers, "I'll definitely be here next summer!" Ringing endorsements don't get much better than that!

As always, thank you for your generous support of our parish's youth, and be assured of my prayers as you enjoy the rest of your summer!

In Christ
Michael Joseph
Youth Minister

Partners in the Gospel - As part of the Partners in the Gospel strategic pastoral planning process, we have launched the Current Reality Report.

- This report provides a snapshot of the archdiocese today and outlines data and trends – as well as forecasts for demographic changes over the next decade. It also outlines the urgent need for change and why we must re-envision parish life.
- The Current Reality report is available online at the Archdiocese of Seattle website – and we have a link to it on our own website as well.
- I highly recommend that everyone take time to read this report or watch the online video presentation. This will help ground all of us in the reality we share before we begin the process of reviewing potential parish family configurations this fall. Respect Life - The Solemnity of the Assumption celebrates the Blessed Mother's entrance into heavenly glory. The Catechism explains that Mary "was taken up body and soul into the glory of heaven, where she already shares in the glory of her Son's Resurrection, anticipating the resurrection of all members of his Body" (CCC, 974). Mary's Assumption into heaven reminds us that life on earth is a pilgrimage to our ultimate destination. We prepare in hope for our own passage into eternal life by the choices we make today. When we choose to love and follow God in our daily lives, we strengthen our relationship with Him, and this relationship is the true meaning of heaven: "To live in heaven is 'to be with Christ'" (CCC, 1025 citing St. Ambrose, In Luc., 10, 121: PL 15 1834A.). We can see how, throughout her life, the Blessed Mother continually chose to go deeper into her relationship with God. She modeled how to value and respect His precious gift of human life, from the moment of conception to its natural end. In the Annunciation, through her "yes," Mary witnessed to the undeniable humanity of unborn children as she conceived and carried the Christ child in her womb. After the Annunciation, having learned that her cousin Elizabeth was with child, she went in haste to her aid. Our Blessed Mother shows us how the way we live today can prepare us, in hope, to also enter into heavenly glory at the end of our lives. Are we open to God's precious gift of new life? How do we support pregnant mothers and parents of young children? Do we prioritize showing our love to those who are ill or aging? Do we care for them in a way that respects God's gift of life? Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

“Seek and you will find,
knock and the door will be opened to you.”

August 13: Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time: In this Gospel, Jesus immediately stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" Please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring respite and hope to the elderly who are not able to find relief from the summer heat, and you will bring them faith and hope!"

Faith Insights from Bishop Fulton Sheen - Close to God - Imagine a large circle and in the center of it rays of light that spread out to the circumference. The light in the center is God; each of us is a ray. The closer the rays are to the center, the closer the rays are to one another. The closer we live to God, the closer we are bound to our neighbor; the farther we are from God, the farther we are from one another. The more each ray departs from its center, the weaker it becomes; and the closer it gets to the center, the stronger it becomes.

Darling Dusters - We Need Your Help! The Darling Dusters, who serve the church by helping to keep it neat and tidy, need more helpers. Please join us for an hour on Mondays, starting at 9 am. If you are interested in serving in this ministry, please call Betty in the church office (253-631-1940).
