The stone that the builders rejected...

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Hear another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey. When vintage time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned. Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones, but they treated them in the same way. Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, They will respect my son."

But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?" They answered him, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times."

Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures:

*The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;
by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes?*

Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

Gospel Reading: Mt 21:33-43

Rejecting Our Lord leads to the loss of the Kingdom. It is the same for Catholics who choose mortal sin; we lose the grace of God that is leading us to heaven. Jesus said, "Remain in My love." This presumes the reality that we can lose God's grace and are capable of NOT remaining in His love.

We all like to take security in the thought that we are good people, even good Catholics. This at least temporarily pacifies the concern that we are on the right track, the track towards heaven. But have we judged ourselves accurately? We might be biased. That's one more reason to go to monthly confession. Confession acts like practice for the final judgment. We call on the Holy Spirit to reveal to us any outstanding sinfulness that needs confession and repentance. Here is a good prayer before confession as part of an examination of conscience:

*Come Holy Spirit into my soul,
Enlighten my mind that I may know the sins I ought to confess,
and grant me Your grace to confess them fully,
humbly, and with contrite heart.
Help me to firmly resolve not to commit them again.
O Blessed Virgin,
Mother of my Redeemer,
mirror of innocence and sanctity,
and refuge of penitent sinners,
intercede for me through the Passion of Your Son,
that I may obtain the grace to make a good confession.*

*All you blessed Angels and Saints of God,
pray for me, a most miserable sinner,
that I may repent from my evil ways,
that my heart may henceforth be forever united with yours in eternal love.*

Amen.

October 8 - Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time: The good news of this Gospel is that all we need to do is let God tend us and bring us to produce good fruit. All we need do is be faithful; God will take care of the rest. Please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring the love and mercy of Jesus to those who feel left out and abandoned.

Faith Insights from Bishop Fulton Sheen - Truth must be sought at all costs, but separate isolated truths will not do. Truth is like life; it has to be taken on its entirety or not at all....We must welcome truth even if it reproaches and inconveniences us - even if it appears in the place where we thought it could not be found.

Darling Dusters - We Need Your Help! The Darling Dusters, who serve the church by helping to keep it neat and tidy, need more helpers. Please join us for an hour on Mondays, starting at 9 am. If you are interested in serving in this ministry, please call Betty in the church office (253-631-1940).

St Anthony School - Now Enrolling: St. Anthony School - Are you interested in your child receiving a mission-based, community-focused Catholic education? For nearly 100 years, St. Anthony School has educated the whole child to better the world and serve others. We still have spot available in all grades for this upcoming school year, 2023-2024 and will continue to register through fall. Please visit our website at www.sasr.org or email Jean Dang at dang@sasr.org to set up a school tour or to learn more info.

Saturday Night Social October 14 - ALL are welcome next Saturday after the 5:00 pm Mass for a wonderful time of food and fellowship! In Mass, God richly feeds us in Holy Communion; after Mass, we share food & drink in fellowship with friends, old & new. Please bring a dessert or fruit to share if you wish. We have a light meal with punch & wine. Donations gladly accepted. Ya'll come!!

Curious about Home-schooling? It's not too late to join the Home-school Co-op at St. Stephen the Martyr. We meet on Thursdays for Mass and classes to grow our faith. We are currently serving students K-10. For more information email ssm.homeschool@gmail.com

O Blessed Mother, at the angel's word you went in haste to the aid of your cousin Elizabeth. Although pregnant yourself, you placed her needs before your own. By your example of radical solidarity, teach us to reverence and protect those in need, without conditions or expectations. Ask your Son to give us unfailing determination to witness to the profound dignity of every person, at every stage and in every circumstance. In that first Eucharistic procession, you carried Jesus to Elizabeth in her time of need. Obtain for us the grace to bring Christ to any expectant mother who is alone and afraid. May our support help them to find hope and strength in the Lord. Amen.
