Transfiguration

Gospel of Mark 9:2-10

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves.

And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them.

Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply,

"Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice,

"This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

The cross is never far from our lives as Christians. St. Paul said, "For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified." (1 Cor 2:2) Almost immediately after the Transfiguration on Mt. Tabor, Jesus begins to talk about His own death in the context of the resurrection. Some say that the apostles needed that heavenly vision in order to persevere through His Passion and Death.

We, too, need consolations and moments of inspiration to continue to carry the cross that Our Lord has given to us. It's important to cherish those consolations and what Jesus was trying to communicate to us during them. At Tabor, the voice of the Father quite clearly spoke an instruction that would be both at the core of the apostles' identity as beloved sons, and the method of their mission.

"This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." The Father speaks of Jesus in a relational way as Son. We, too, are sons and daughters by adoption into the family of God. By creation, we are dependent and connected to God as creator. By the Sacraments, we are voluntarily joined to the heart of the Creator, Who is also pursuing us in our sinfulness, giving us the path of recovery in Jesus the Way.

When we hear that Jesus is God's beloved Son, does that not stir something deep in our hearts, a longing for that intimacy and affirmation of relationship? We are born again in the font of baptism, born as beloved children who are called to grow supernaturally in the presence of a good and loving father. "And Jesus increased in wisdom and in years, and in divine and human favor." (Luke 2:52) What God desired for Jesus, He desires for us.

If we are well established in our identity as beloved children, then we are ready for the mission. Again, the two pillars of Christian life are identity and mission. The Mission is simple in this theophany, "Listen to Him." So simple, yet so difficult for us who tend to complicate things. We must keep coming back to the simple Gospel where we can hear the voice of Jesus. May He clear out the ears of our hearts. As the Rule of St. Benedict admonishes, "Listen, O my son, to the precepts of thy master, and incline the ear of thy heart..." (It goes on to say... "and cheerfully receive and faithfully execute the admonitions of thy loving Father, that by the toil of obedience thou mayest return to Him from whom by the sloth of disobedience thou hast gone away.")

This Lent is a perfect time to become more grounded in our identity as beloved children as our local church prepares for the uniting of parishes under new pastors. Your prayers for this process are greatly appreciated. I'm reminded of the beautiful little prayer of surrender:

"O Jesus, I surrender myself to You, take care of everything!"
