Gospel: Jn 3:14-21

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life." For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.

Jesus is lifted up on the cross for all to see. It is a grace to look upon the crucifix and meditate on what God did for us. We heard this in last week's Cycle A Readings, "But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us." We offer every year the devotion of the Stations of the Cross as a way of meditating on Jesus' Passion for us. This devotion is granted a Plenary Indulgence as long as these few conditions are met:

63. EXERCISE OF THE WAY OF THE CROSS. PLENARY INDULGENCE. A Plenary indulgence is granted to those who piously make the Way of the Cross. The gaining of the indulgence is regulated by the following rules:

Must be done before stations of the cross legitimately erected.

1. 14 stations are required. Although it is customary for the icons to represent pictures or images, 14 simple crosses will suffice.
2. The common practice consists of fourteen pious readings to which some vocal prayers are added. However, nothing more is required than a pious meditation on the Passion and Death of the Lord, which need not be a particular consideration of the individual mysteries of the stations.
3. A movement from one station to the next is required. But if the stations are made publicly and it is not possible for everyone taking part to go from station to station, it suffices if at least the one conducting the exercise goes from station to station, the others remaining in their places.
4. Those who are "impeded" can gain the same indulgence if they spend at least one half hour in pious reading and meditation on the Passion and Death of our Lord Jesus Christ.
5. For those belonging to the Oriental rites, amongst whom this pious exercise is not practiced, the respective Patriarchs can determine some other pious exercise in memory of the Passion and Death for the gaining of this indulgence.

In addition, there are three necessary conditions for receiving a plenary indulgence for doing any of the prescribed works we just learned. Each one in this trinity of conditions also has the bonus of adding to our Lenten journey. They are:

6. Sacramentally confess your sins
7. Receive Holy Communion. ("It is certainly better to receive it while participating in Holy Mass, but for the indulgence only Holy Communion is required")
8. Pray for the intentions of the Holy Father. One Our Father and one Hail Mary fully satisfies this.

There is actually one more: You must "have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin."

Hopefully you can spend some time with an image of Christ. All of us should have crucifixes in our homes as a way of honoring Christ, protecting our families, and lifting our eyes to God's infinite love for us.
