Words from Fr. Ed

Jesus said to his disciples:

"I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower.

He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit.

You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you.

Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me.

I am the vine, you are the branches.

Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing.

Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned.

If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you.

By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

Gospel of John 15:1-8

Remain in me.

Here is the gist of our part in this great reconciliation of humanity to the Father of all. We must do what we can to remain in Jesus. What does this look like? We should begin with what we are most capable of. Jesus said, regarding the Holy Eucharist, "Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide [remain] in me, and I in them." (John 6:56) During this Year of Eucharistic Revival, it's a good time to refocus on this principal truth of Catholic Christian life. It's also valuable during this time of Partners in the Gospel transitions of priest and parish structures.

As announced while I was in Vietnam, I'm being transferred to the North Olympic parish made up of 4 'parishes': Forks, Port Angeles, Sequim, and Port Townsend, plus one mission, Clallam Bay. I'll be serving as Vicar under Fr. Jacob Maurer who will be pastor. People ask lots of questions about the process, but I think the best focus is on Jesus. As I have said, "Cling to Jesus." I don't think the question of what parish we were in will be high on the list of questions that God may ask us when we die. It will be more like our Gospel, "Did you remain in My Son?"

I also saw a beautiful convergence when I spoke earlier with St. Stephens/St. Anthony's new pastor, Fr. Bryan Dolejsi. My bottom-line discernment was to serve the Archbishop's greatest need. In speaking with Fr. Bryan about his discernment, he spoke the same words. This is the priesthood, and you are receiving a great priest. If we remain in Jesus, we remain together. I pray for this gift for all of us.

When we eat Jesus' flesh and drink His Blood we consume our own conversion. St. Augustine calls us to "become what you receive." May Jesus accomplish this soon and very soon.

New Pastor/Priests Assigned to St Stephens

Archbishop Etienne has announced that, "after consultation with the Priest Personnel Board, I have appointed Father Bryan Dolejsi as your new pastor and Father Marlo Abad, Father Sylvester Chanda and Father Gilberto Mora Tapia as your new parochial vicars. Presently, Father Dolejsi is the pastor of Holy Family Parish in Kirkland. Father Abad is currently the priest administrator of St. Francis Parish on Friday Harbor, Eastsound Station on Orcas Island and Lopez Island Station. As you may know, Father Sylvester Chanda is the parochial vicar at St. Anthony Parish. Father Gilberto Mora Tapia is a parochial vicar at both St. Philomena Parish in Des Moines and St. Theresa Parish in Federal Way. In a similar way, he will rotate between this parish family and two other parish families in Kent and Tacoma, supporting Spanish-language sacramental ministry.

These men are wonderful priests who will diligently and faithfully serve you and your parish family. Be assured that they will receive all the necessary support and assistance from the Archdiocese of Seattle to ensure quality pastoral care for your parish family."

St Stephen the Martyr Church
13055 SE 192nd St. Renton, WA 98058

April 28 - Fifth Sunday of Easter In the Gospel today, Jesus says "Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing." Indeed, by helping the poor we can "bear much fruit" and we find that with Jesus we can do everything. Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will show that you are indeed the disciple of Jesus as it will bring your love to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

Respect Life - When recalling our sins, we may feel discouraged or fearful of approaching God; however, we can cling to the truth that Christ's Passion on the Cross did not end in death, but in the joy of the Resurrection. The miracle of Easter gives us the courage to face our sins, confess our mistakes, and then humbly receive God's forgiveness and accept the joy that comes with new life in Christ. In his infinite love for us, God desires nothing more than to wash away our sins and offer us his mercy. He has a prepared place in his merciful heart for each of us, and no sin is bigger than his power to forgive. (USCCB)

"No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." -John 15:13

Seven Sisters Ministry - We are welcoming beautiful sisters of Christ!

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest or bishop—a "holy wasting" (cf. Mt. 26:10) or lavishing of prayer for his deeper conformity to Christ. Do you have one hour a week to pray for our Priest, Parochial Vicars and Deacons? As we have new incoming clergy here at St. Stephens, we are in need of more sisters to pray for them. I will be resigning as Anchoress for what is currently Father Ed's group and we will need a new Anchoress to step in once we transition in July to pray for Father Bryan Dolejsi. This group is already formed and only needs an Anchoress to forward emails and handle any questions from her sisters. Each sister commits to pray only one hour a week for a Priest, Vicar or a Deacon. You choose your own day and your own specific hour. You are only committing to one day of the week. As always, we desire to have more groups for our clergy as the need at SSTM is plentiful and our Fathers and Deacons are in much need of prayers. To learn more about this Ministry, visit: <https://sevensistersapostolate.org/> We thank you for your discerning hearts and call to serve or potentially serve in this beautiful and quiet ministry.

Masaka Visitors! - We are so blessed to have 3 priests, for whom our parish supported through seminary, to visit us over the next couple of months. Most of you know Fr. Gerald from his several previous visits. He will be with us during the month of May. Fr. Emmanuel was with us briefly last summer. He will be with us during the month of June. Fr. Emmanuel has requested that people interested in spending time with him to please contact Diane Cooper at iamdcooper@gmail.com Fr. Martin will just be with us for a week during the end of June through the beginning of July. Again, please contact Diane Cooper to be placed on his schedule. Please give them our wonderful warm St. Stephen's welcome.
