Dear St. Anthony and St. Stephen the Martyr parishioners,

As we approach another election cycle, we are reminded to focus our lives on Jesus, to pray for the Holy Spirit's guidance for our country and the world, and to participate in our political process as faithful citizens. In doing so, each person is obliged to form their conscience by the life and teachings of Jesus, the intercession of Mary and the saints, observe the 10 commandments, live the theological virtues of faith, hope, and charity, grow in the practice of the cardinal virtues of prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance, consider your own cultural and educational background, and understand the four basic principles of Catholic Social Doctrine.

These principles are the dignity of the human person, subsidiarity, the common good, and solidarity. As the Catechism states in #2423: "The church's social teaching proposed principles for reflection; criteria for judgment; and guidelines for action". The church developed these social teachings especially in the complexities of the modern and postmodern age. Starting with Pope Leo XIII's document Rerum Novarum in 1891 in response to workers rights. The Second Vatican Council wrote about the church in the modern world, and John Paul II promulgated the compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church in 2004. More recent, Pope Benedict and Pope Francis have written on contemporary issues. Current resources can be found at the U.S. Bishops conference webpage www.usccb.org and the Washington State Catholic Conference www.wacatholics.org. I would also encourage you to read the section in the Catechism on Life in Christ #1691-2557 and Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship from the USCCB in 2019. Most recently, the U.S. Bishops also released a pledge of civility.

The current contemporary social teachings of the church are the life and the dignity of the human person, a call to family, community and participation, rights and responsibilities of individuals in society, option for the poor and vulnerable, the dignity and rights of workers, solidarity with all people, and care for God's creation. Considering these teachings, we are called to promote the protection of all life and the common good, charity and justice, promote peace, religious freedom, economic justice, accessible health care, safe migration, quality education, combat racism, unjust discrimination and violence, be proper stewards of communication, media and culture, and promote global solidarity. In short, as Catholics we are called to care for all.

The church is involved in the political process but is not partisan. Our ongoing efforts involve prayer, participation, advocacy, tithing, and ongoing formation, all in hopes of sanctifying the political system. Let us continue to find ways to support one another in following Jesus as we respond to his calling. We pray for wisdom, courage and strength in all things to help promote the kingdom of God in the world.

Your Servant in the Risen Christ,

Fr. Bryan Dolejsi, Pastor

Your gift makes an impact. If the parish does not meet our goal, we are billed to make up the difference, which can affect our ability to fund our programs and ministries. For those of you who have not yet contributed, there is still time. You can donate using the QR code, fill out a pew envelope, or go online to archseattle.org/GiveACA.*

Phishing in Churches Please beware of email and text "phishing". Fraudulent email and text requests for money wire transfers and gift cards in the names of Fr. Bryan and other clergy continue to circulate around our parish. The names on these attempts may be familiar, but the email address or phone number used will not be the one you know. No one from St. Stephen's will ask you for gift cards or similar items (for themselves or for others) via email or text. Please don't answer these messages! Nobody's email or phone has been "hacked". Phishing and whaling are when someone creates a NEW email or profile to impersonate a real person. Mark these phishing or whaling scams email addresses as spam, block, and report them to your provider. Phone numbers should be blocked. You may also report these attempts to the government on the Department of Homeland Security page (<https://www.dhs.gov/report-incidents>). Learn more: Phishing Scams Targeting Pastors: Who's Next? from Government Technology (<https://www.govtech.com/blogs/lohrmann-on-cybersecurity/phishing-scams-targeting-pastors-whos-next.html>) Please stay safe! Take caution in responding to any message that seems unlikely or suspicious.

Fr Ed's New Wheels!

Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me." Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will help hungry children feel the arms of Jesus around them.
