We Are Partners in the Gospel

Words from Fr. Bryan

This past weekend in the readings, Jesus calls us to a life of holiness because it is a way of witnessing to our faith of God's grace in us and the best way to try to help build the kingdom of God on earth. We ask Jesus to help us, especially through the sacraments of the church, and then we can cooperate with God's grace by forming ourselves in virtue. It is not enough just to try to stop a vice, we need to replace the habits with virtues. The foundations of these are the theological virtues of faith, hope, and love and the Cardinal virtues of prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance. Below is a list of seven lively virtues and the seven deadly sins they replace.

Humility: Combats pride. It involves recognizing one's limitations and dependence on God, fostering a sense of modesty and selflessness.

Charity: Combats greed. It is a selfless love that extends to all, including one's enemies, and motivates acts of generosity and compassion including stewardship.

Chastity: Combats lust. It involves controlling one's sexual desires and using them appropriately, maintaining purity in thought, word, and deed.

Diligence: Combats sloth/laziness. It is a commitment to fulfilling one's duties and responsibilities with enthusiasm and perseverance also known as fortitude.

Kindness: Combats envy. It involves showing genuine care and concern for others, rejoicing in their successes and offering support during difficult times.

Patience: Combats wrath/anger. It involves enduring difficulties and provocations with a calm and forgiving spirit, avoiding rash reactions.

Temperance: Combats gluttony. It involves moderation and self-control in all things, especially those that offer immediate gratifications, such as food and drink.

Often people think of moral theology and the teachings of the church simply as a list of 'do not's', which is part of our instruction to be sure such as the ten commandments. However, virtue ethics focus on building character and virtues as the foundation of ethical behavior. To be moved out of love, not fear. It focuses on what a virtuous person would do in each situation, rather than on the rules or consequences. A virtuous person will be happy, fruitful, and fully free, growing in holiness in all they do in accordance with God's will. It takes effort to pursue a life of holiness and virtue, Follow the teachings and life of Jesus, rely on the Holy Spirit, ask others to help you and let us always lift each other up as members of the Body of Christ.

Your servant in the Risen Christ,

Fr. Bryan Dolejsi, Pastor

Music Ministry

Music Ministry Open Call

Join a Choir at St. Stephen's!

Everything we do at St. Stephen's flows from - and points back to - the Sunday Experience of celebrating Mass. Music is a powerful part of that encounter with God, and we invite you to help lead our community in joyful praise!

We are looking for volunteer choir members, cantors, pianists, and (occasionally) instrumentalists to join one of our groups:

SATURDAY 5:00 PM CHOIR
(Rehearsal before Mass)

A small, dedicated group leading a blend of traditional and contemporary hymns.

SUNDAY 8:30 AM SATB CHOIR
(Rehearsal 7:20 PM Tuesday)

Offering a mix of sacred hymns, chant, choral octavos, and select contemporary Catholic music.

SUNDAY 11 AM CHOIR
(Independent learning plus
Rehearsal 10 AM Sunday)

Similar music to Saturday night. Musicians at this Mass can prepare independently and require little direction.

SUNDAY 5:30 / 7 PM CONTEMPORARY BAND
(Rehearsal before Mass)

Led by piano, vocals, and guitars - offering energetic, modern praise music. This group is looking for musicians that are experienced in contemporary music.

Contact Patty Swedberg at pattyswedberg@gmail.com or 206-779-7727 to arrange for an audition.

Whether you're a seasoned musician or new to singing at Mass, we'll help you find your place. We especially invite those with experience, but we encourage everyone to join!
