We Are Partners in the Gospel

A Well-Ordered Society Rooted in Truth, Justice, and Peace

A Pastoral Letter by Archbishop Paul D. Etienne

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Grace and peace to you in Our Lord Jesus Christ.

In these turbulent times – marked by conflict abroad, fragmentation at home, and profound questions about our shared moral life – the Church once again lifts high the Gospel as the light by which we must walk. The Second Vatican Council*, Catholic Social Teaching* and the Jan. 9, 2026, address of Pope Leo XIV* to the Diplomatic Corps accredited to the Holy See illuminate our path with clarity and a renewed urgency. In his address, the Holy Father framed the challenges of our age through the lens of St. Augustine’s “City of God,”* offering a deeply Christian vision of peace, justice, and right order.

I wish to reflect with you on these themes, especially as they touch two essential pillars of any Christian society:

1. Charity – love of neighbor
2. Respect for the rule of law

These do not stand apart from the principles of our social teaching, but they flow directly from them.

Our Catholic Social Teaching makes clear that rights also come with corresponding duties. Every person has the right to what is necessary for human decency – food, work, safety, health care – but also the responsibility to ensure these rights for others.

The purpose of this pastoral letter is to help us understand these basic principles and to commit ourselves to building a better society.

Stewardship of Treasure. This past week we mailed a letter and a pledge card from Fr. Bryan, encouraging you to take a moment to reflect on how God has blessed you over the past year, and to consider how you might return a portion of those blessings to our parish community. We are asking for your pledge for the coming year 2026 to help us plan our budgets for the year. Your generous gifts directly support our mission of helping one another encounter Jesus Christ in meaningful and transformative ways.
