THE TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR C—October 9, 2016

GRATITUDE

Surely we can all recall at least a few days in our lives when things were going so well that nothing could put us in a bad mood. Maybe it was the day a very special person asked us to the senior prom, or perhaps it was our wedding day. Maybe it was the day we learned that we were expecting a long-awaited child, or the day we got an overdue promotion. There was elation in our hearts and lightness in our step, an extraordinary vitality throughout the day. We probably got on the phone right away to tell at least a few key people about our good fortune.

This is surely how Naaman and the leper must have felt when they were rid of their terrible diseases. They were hard-pressed to contain their gratitude, and although they were both unfamiliar with the customs of a foreign land, they had the good manners to thank the people responsible for their cures.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Naaman, cleansed from his leprosy, returns to Elisha and pledges his belief in and allegiance to the LORD (2 Kings 5:14-17).

Psalms — The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power (Psalm 98).

Second Reading — Remember Jesus Christ, who was raised from the dead. If we persevere, we shall reign with him (2 Timothy 2:8-13).

Gospel — After ten lepers are cleansed by Jesus, only one, a Samaritan, returns to give him thanks (Luke 17:11-19).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This month, parishes around the country will conduct the “October count,” a measure of attendance at Sunday Mass. The measure has been taken for many centuries, and in some European dioceses it is possible to measure the level of engagement in worship by the population over the course of many centuries. Long ago, it was also the custom to track “Easter duty” by a statistical report. Penitents would receive a kind of chit at confession, which they would then turn in at their parish church when they received Holy Communion during Easter time.

Long ago, of course, Communion was fairly rare in the life of a Catholic Christian, perhaps only once a year. The chits would be tallied by parish priests and reported to the chancery, which in turn would hold on to the records and include the statistics in a report to the Vatican every five years. Nowadays, the October count has proved especially critical in the life of our Church as bishops use the figures to measure the vitality of church life, to sketch parish boundaries, and even to decide when to close, merge, or form new parishes.

Liturgical Music at Our Lady of Victory
For Saturday, October 8, 2016
for the 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prelude to Mass: The Lamb, Sir John Tavener
(1944-2013)

Entrance Hymn : No. 251, p. 348;

Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones

Gloria: From The St. Benedict Mass

The Sanctus & Agnus Dei from The Schubert Mass

The Responsorial Psalm: Barnum

Alleluia: Celtic

Offertory Hymn: O Sapientia (O Wisdom),
T. Tertius Noble (1857-1953)

Communion: O Sacred Feast, Healey Willan

Post Communion: No. 241, p. 240;

There Is a Balm in Gilead

Recessional Hymn: No. 253, p. 250;

Your Hands, O Lord

The Prelude is set to a poem by William Blake that has been used for many musical settings. Last Saturday, we did one by the former director of the Yale Glee Club. Sir John Tavener, a well known English composer, set this in honor of his then 3 year old son. T. Tertius Noble was hired away from York Minster by St. Thomas Church on 5th Avenue to start a boy choir school there in 1913.

He wrote this when he was still at York in England. Healey Willan was a Canadian composer who wrote O Sacred Feast (an English translation of the Latin Motet O Sacrum Convivium) in the first half of the 20th century as a part of a set of 6 Eucharistic Motets. The soloists on the Communion Hymn are Philip Koch, Savannah Gordon, Ruth Ann Cunningham and Daniel Greenwood.

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Sunday: Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Monday: Canadian Thanksgiving Day;
Columbus Day

Tuesday: St. John XXIII;
Yom Kippur (Jewish Day of Atonement)
begins at sunset

Friday: St. Callistus I

Saturday: St. Teresa of Jesus

Prayer of St. Teresa of Jesus

Let nothing disturb you,
Let nothing frighten you,
All things are passing away;

*Jesus asked, "Were not all ten cleansed?
Where are the other nine?
Has no one returned to give praise to God
except this foreigner?" Then he said to him,
"Rise and go; your faith has made you well."*

WE NOW OFFER THE SACRAMENT OF CONFESSION
ON SATURDAYS AT OUR LADY OF VICTORY
Has it been a while since you have been able to receive the graces from making a good confession and being absolved of your sins? Is it difficult for you to go to confession during the week? We invite you to come on Saturday between 4:50 to 5:15 pm and be reconciled with God.

A pastor and his fellow priest from the local church are standing by the road ...

...pounding a sign into the ground, that reads:

The End is Near!

Turn Yourself Around Now

Before it's Too Late!

As a car sped past them, the driver yelled, "Leave us alone, you religious nuts!" From the curve they heard screeching tires and a big splash.

The priest turns to the pastor and asks, "Do you think the sign should just say 'Bridge Out'?"
