THE TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME SEPTEMBER 15, 2019 Year C

LOST AND FOUND

Welcome to “Lost and Found Sunday”! Just in case being in church makes us proudly consider ourselves especially religious, today’s Gospel suggests that we’d be wiser to admit that we’re sometimes lost. Then we’ll eventually be happily counted among Jesus’ “found,” because today Jesus focuses on a lost sheep, lost coin, lost son. Jesus does so because the Pharisees and scribes, proudly considering themselves especially religious, “began to complain” that Jesus “welcomes sinners and eats with them.” So Jesus warns them—and us—to stop judging others. Marvel instead that God’s amazing grace has found us! Indeed, we should become Jesus’ friends lovingly trying to find others. So Exodus asks, if God “relented in punishment” and pardoned us, shouldn’t we forgive fellow sinners graciously? Even Paul admits his “arrogance” as “foremost among sinners.” We too, happy at being “mercifully treated,” should share with everyone else Jesus’ unflinching patience.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — “Why should your wrath blaze up against your own people, whom you brought out of Egypt?” (Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14).

Psalm — I will rise and go to my father (Psalm 51).

Second Reading — The grace of our Lord has been abundant (1 Timothy 1:12-17).

Gospel — There is great rejoicing in heaven and among the angels when a sinner repents (Luke 15:1-32 [1-10]).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Although New Year’s Day has been fixed firmly on January 1 for several hundred years, Labor Day has the feel of a great dividing line between leisure and routine. The pace of life has since picked up, and new schedules and commitments crowd us.

In the background is God’s call to consider the third commandment, still life-giving and binding, to make holy the Lord’s Day by worship and rest. Jews see the Sabbath, Saturday, not so much as a day of worship, but as a day of rest, a day of renewing friendship with God by delighting in the beauty of creation and the joy of family and friends. It is a day for contemplating the wonder of God’s creation, but not disturbing it.

For Christians in the first three centuries, the Lord’s Day, Sunday, was not for rest, but worship. It was a regular work day. People met before dawn, and after Eucharist hurried off to daily routines. Today we come to Mass, but many hurry off to essential work, not a day of rest. The Lord’s Day is not the Sabbath, but we can enhance Sunday’s ability to transform us if we consider embracing some Sabbath values: having a family meal, going for a walk in a beautiful place, making room in our lives to open ourselves more fully to holiness of life in Christ.

MUSIC AND SACRED SONG AT OLVSTA

We are happy to welcome Mr. Don Barnum and the Canoni Chorale to the 12:15 Mass on Sunday afternoons. Mr. Barnum had served for years as Dean (i.e., President) of the Brooklyn Chapter of the American Guild of Organists and is presently on their Board of Directors. For years he has been noted for the grand, festive concerts he has put together on special occasions with combined choirs of several churches in the Brooklyn Heights and Cobble Hill neighborhoods as well as at Saint Michael's on West 34th Street, Saint Agnes on East 43rd Street and for the past three years here at OLVSTA as Choral Director on Saturday evenings, organist and singer at our Christmas concerts and Wednesday concerts in the Fall & Spring.

The Canoni Chorale is made up of professionals and volunteers that has sung at Avery Fisher Hall and churches throughout Brooklyn and Manhattan. Mr. Barnum continues to sing with the National Chorale as well as at the Met. He will also serve as organist and cantor at the 10:15 Mass on Sunday mornings. We are all looking forward...

SAINTLY ASSISTANCE

O Glorious St. Matthew, in your Gospel you portray Jesus as the longed-for Messiah who fulfilled the Prophets of the Old Covenant and as the new Lawgiver who founded a Church of the New Covenant.

Obtain for us the grace to see Jesus living in his Church and to follow his teachings in our lives on earth so that we may live forever with him in heaven. Amen.

God our Father, you gave Robert Bellarmine wisdom and goodness to defend the faith of your Church.

By his prayers may we always rejoice in the profession of our faith.

*We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.*

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Congratulations on your new (or impending) arrival!

To have your child baptized in a timely fashion, we recommend that you contact the parish at 212-422-5535 or at parishmail@olvsta.org either during the pregnancy or soon after the child's birth to make it happen (and we recommend you visit catholicdoors.com/faq/qu283.htm for an explanation as to why the sooner you baptize your child the better).

As is true at all parishes, parents are required to attend a fifty minute or so instruction concerning the sacrament. And for help in choosing godparents for your child, we recommend that you visit catholicstand.com/why-godparents-matter for assistance in your discernment process.

PASTORAL CARE OF THE SICK AT OLVSTA

Individuals who are sick are very important to our parish community. Holy Communion can be brought by Priests or Extra-Ordinary Ministers of the Eucharist to people confined at home and are not able to attend Mass.

Also, all those who are seriously ill are encouraged to request the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. A loved one can make the call for you. This sacrament is for adults and children who are suffering from serious physical or mental illness, experiencing the debilities of old age or are about to undergo surgery. Please do not hesitate to call the rectory for assistance:
212-422-5535.

A reminder that watching Mass on television is encouraged for those who are ill and cannot attend Mass on Sunday.

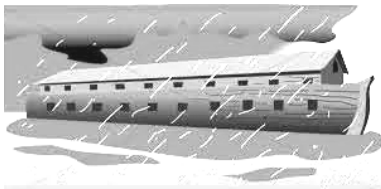

THE SEVEN SORROWS

The Blessed Virgin Mary grants seven graces to the souls who honor her daily by saying seven Hail Mary's and meditating on her tears and dolors (sorrows). The devotion was passed on by St. Bridget

THE SEVEN SORROWS OF OUR LADY ARE:

1. The prophecy of Simeon. (St. Luke 2:34, 35)
2. The flight into Egypt. (St. Matthew 2:13, 14)
3. The loss of the Child Jesus in the temple. (St. Luke 2:43-45)
4. The meeting of Jesus and Mary on the Way of the Cross.
5. The Crucifixion.
6. The taking down of the Body of Jesus from the Cross.
7. The burial of Jesus.
