ST. ANDREW—NO MASS UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

Kingdom of Priests

Dr. Scott Hahn

The words God speaks to Israel in today's First Reading are intended for us as well.

The Church is the fulfillment of God's covenant promises to Israel—a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation (see Deut 26:19; Is 62:12).

In the Church, we have been gathered as the new “Israel of God” (see Gal 6:16). He has made us his own people, the flock He tends, as we sing in today's Psalm.

Moses was Israel's first shepherd (see Ex 3:1). With the Promised Land in view, he prayed that God raise up a successor so that God's people would not be left as sheep without a shepherd (see Num 27:17).

These same words are used in today's Gospel to describe Jesus' pity for the crowds, who are “troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd.”

Israel's shepherds—the Pharisees and scribes—had abandoned and misled the people through their hypocrisy and spiritual blindness (see Mt 23:1-36; Jer 50:6).

But God had long before promised that He himself would come and save His sheep—searching over the whole earth where they had been scattered “for lack of a shepherd” (see Ez 34:1-24).

Jesus is the new Moses and new David promised by the prophets, a divine shepherd-king sent to restore God's priestly kingdom (see Jn 10:11).

As Moses commissioned Joshua as his successor, so we see Jesus today giving the Twelve His powers and authority (see Mt 9:35; 10:1). In God's plan, they are to seek out the lost sheep of Israel first and then bring all nations into the fold (see Acts 13:46; Rm 1:16).

Together we have been saved and reconciled to God, as we hear in today's Epistle. As he delivered Israel, he has also made us a kingdom of priests in the Church (see Rev 1:6).

So we come in this Mass to serve Him with gladness, to praise His kindness, which endures forever

Juneteenth (short for "June Nineteenth") marks the day when federal troops arrived in Galveston, Texas in 1865 to take control of the state and ensure that all enslaved people be freed. The troops' arrival came a full two and a half years after the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation. Juneteenth honors the end to slavery in the United States and is considered the longest-running African American holiday. On June 17, 2021, it officially became a federal holiday. Juneteenth 2023 will occur on Monday, June 19.

Saint Juliana of Falconieri

1270 - 1341

FEAST DAY: JUNE 19

Juliana was the only child of a wealthy couple in Florence, Italy, who had built the church of the Annunciation there. She refused to marry and was enrolled as a tertiary with the Servite order; her uncle, St. Alexis Falconieri, was one of the seven founders of the Servites. For nearly 20 years, Juliana lived a devout and useful life at home. In 1304 she formed a community of tertiary sisters who devoted themselves to prayer and good works in Florence. She is considered the foundress of the Servite community of nuns, and was canonized in 1737.

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

When people are appreciative of the opportunities they receive which they can't repay, they promise to share their good fortune with others by 'paying it forward.' It's a way of sharing with someone else the gift they have received so it will also help someone else. It becomes a gift that keeps on giving.

As much as Jesus loved the disciples, the gift of faith that He entrusts to them is not meant for them alone; rather, it is to be shared and proclaimed so that God's love and power will renew the face of the earth. The sacrifice of Jesus is freely given to all those who need salvation. Through the words and deeds of His followers, Jesus' gift of life and grace is offered to everyone.

We have been given so much by God and by those who have gone before us. These gifts all come from the heart and so they must be passed on from the heart as well. When we love others and share with them what we have received, we indeed pay faith forward, making God's Kingdom a little more visible and accessible for those who need Him most.

Fathers Day 2023 Father's Day Remembrance

Sunday, June 18 is Father's Day. To have your or a loved one's father, living or deceased, remembered for the rest of the month of June here at OLVSTA, please find envelopes in the back of the Church. Please fill out and place in the collection boxes, in the center aisle or in the back of the Church or in the Offertory collection. Please note that your envelope with your loved one's name will be placed on the altar for the rest of June.

HAPPY
Father's Day

God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things. Bless our father. Let the example of his faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, his family, may honor him always with a spirit of profound respect. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Nativity of John the Baptist

FIRST CENTURY
FEAST DAY: JUNE 24

In the Gospels, John, a kinsman of Jesus through their mothers, preached repentance and baptized to prepare for the Messiah's coming. This feast marks his exceptional birth to the aged priest Zechariah and the equally aged and barren Elizabeth. The angel Gabriel announces his birth in a vision to Zechariah, who hesitates in believing and is struck mute until eight days after John's birth. Then, Zechariah, in a beautiful canticle that ends the first chapter of Luke's Gospel, proclaims that John "will be called prophet of the Most High." John's eventual beheading is commemorated with an Aug. 29 feast. A patron saint of Canada and Jordan, John is also the patron of Florence and the Knights Hospitaller of St. John.
