MESSAGE FROM FR. DAVID

Blindness and Sight in Christ – Part 3

Jesus said that unless we have the second birth, unless we are reborn in Him, in His Spirit, we cannot see the Kingdom of God. The man who was blind from birth says at the end of this passage in John that he believes, and he now worships Jesus. Those who believe and worship Jesus can see the Kingdom of God. They can see that there is a Kingdom of God and that it has been brought into this world in the coming of Christ. They can't see the Kingdom of God completely or fully, but they can see it. Nonbelievers cannot see that there is any such thing as the Kingdom of God. Try telling someone who does not believe in God or in Jesus Christ that the Kingdom of God has come and that person will likely say, "What kingdom are you talking about? I don't see any kingdom like that here on earth. I see people living their lives, doing their jobs, going to movies, loving, fighting, whatever. But I don't see any Kingdom of God."

To see anything at all you need light. To see the Kingdom of God, you need the light which is Jesus Christ. The unbelieving world is spiritually blind. Our job as Christians is to shine the light which is Christ so that others may gain their spiritual sight by Him, and come to see Him and believe and worship Him just like the man blind from birth. This is the redemptive will of God carried out through us.

Christ is in the world, and so is the light of the world. He is present in several ways. For one thing, the Church is the extension of His Incarnation through time and space. The Second Person of the Trinity took on flesh and bones and became the man Jesus. The Church continues the embodiment of Jesus Christ in the world. He is present in the Sacraments, in the Word of God written and He is present in us when we gather together. "When two or three are gathered together in my name I am there in the midst of them," Jesus says. Jesus is present in this world and He is here to illuminate the hearts of those who are spiritually blind so that they may see Him and come to know and love Him so that He can save them.

The world is blind from birth. It is blind because humanity is fallen and has lost its sight of God. But Jesus is present in the hearts of His faithful worshippers, and through us, He gives sight to the blind. We are to reflect the light of Christ to a world that is blind to His presence and His Kingdom.

For all of human history, the redemptive will of God has been working. God is restoring what was lost. We lost our fellowship with God, our security in God, our joy in God. And we lost our vision of God. Jesus, the light of the world has come to restore that vision. Amen.

Blessings in Jesus, Fr. David

La Ceguera y la Visión en Cristo – 3ª Parte

Jesús dijo que a menos que naciéramos de nuevo, a menos que renazcamos en Él, en Su Espíritu, no podremos ver el Reino de Dios. El hombre que era ciego de nacimiento, al final de este pasaje dice en San Juan que él creyó, y reconoció a Jesús. Aquellos que creen y adoran a Jesús pueden ver el Reino de Dios. Pueden ver que hay un Reino de Dios y que ha sido traído a este mundo con la venida de Cristo. No pueden ver el Reino de Dios completamente, pero pueden verlo. Los no creyentes no pueden ver que existe el Reino de Dios. Intente decirle a alguien que no cree en Dios o en Jesucristo que el Reino de Dios ha llegado y esa persona probablemente dirá: "¿De qué reino estás hablando? No veo ningún reino como ese aquí en la tierra. Veo gente viviendo sus vidas, haciendo su trabajo, yendo al cine, amando, peleando, lo que sea. Pero no veo ningún Reino de Dios".

Para ver cualquier cosa necesitas luz. Para ver el Reino de Dios, necesitas la luz que es Jesucristo. El mundo incrédulo es espiritualmente ciego. Nuestro trabajo como Cristianos es hacer brillar la luz que es Cristo, para que otros puedan obtener su vista espiritual por Él, y venir a verlo, creer y adorarlo al igual que el hombre ciego de nacimiento. Esta es la voluntad redentora de Dios realizada a través de nosotros.

Cristo está en el mundo y también es la luz del mundo. Está presente de varias formas. Por un lado, la Iglesia es la extensión de Su Encarnación a través del tiempo y el espacio. La Segunda Persona de la Trinidad tomó carne y hueso, y se convirtió en el Hombre Jesús. La Iglesia continúa la encarnación de Jesucristo en el mundo. Está presente en los Sacramentos, en la Palabra de Dios escrita y está presente en nosotros cuando nos reunimos. "Cuando dos o tres se reúnen en mi Nombre, Yo estoy allí en medio de ellos", dice Jesús. Jesús está presente en este mundo y está aquí para iluminar los corazones de aquellos que son espiritualmente ciegos para que puedan verlo y llegar a conocerlo y amarlo para que Él pueda salvarlos.

El mundo es ciego de nacimiento. Es ciego porque la humanidad ha caído y ha perdido de vista a Dios. Pero Jesús está presente en el corazón de sus fieles adoradores y, a través de nosotros, da vista a los ciegos. Debemos reflejar la luz de Cristo a un mundo que está ciego a Su Presencia y Su Reino.

Durante toda la historia de la humanidad, la voluntad redentora de Dios ha estado obrando. Dios está restaurando lo que se perdió. Perdimos nuestra comunión con Dios, nuestra seguridad en Dios, nuestro gozo en Dios. Y perdimos nuestra visión de Dios. Jesús, la luz del mundo ha venido a restaurar esa visión. Amén.

¡Bendiciones ! En Jesús, Padre David
