Verse to reflect on this week:

From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."

Matthew 4:17-18

Dear Parishioners,

Every time I travel home I take the time to feel the presence of my friends and to visit places where I grew up. I really cherish these profound moments. However, every trip is also for me an opportunity to learn humbleness and gentleness.

Our Christian spirituality is teaching us that Life is a pilgrimage. Wherever we are or whatever we have is only for a while – longer or shorter.

Jesus was encouraging his Apostles to Travel Light and not to be concerned about things on the earth. “These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: Do not get any gold or silver or copper to take with you in your belts - no bag for the journey or extra shirt or sandals or a staff, for the worker is worth his keep.” (Matthew 10:9)

When I travel I usually have situations where something unexpected happens, when something goes wrong and when I need someone’s help or guidance. These experiences are beautiful reminders for me that I need others and that I can’t control everything.

God wants us to enjoy our journey of life and to embrace with gratitude even the simplest things. God wants us to journey through life wisely and create meaningful relationships while on the way.

My trip this winter will take 16 days (January 23 – February 8) and one of the things I am looking forward to is meeting with a priest friend of mine who has been serving for over 20 years in central Ukraine. One weekend (January 28-29) we will be together in Poland and hopefully celebrating Mass at my home parish. I am truly grateful for such moments when I can learn from others how to live life with passion and how to follow God’s voice with love and joy.

Father Krystian

Please, pray for me and my trip, and for the people I will meet this winter in Poland and France. I will keep you in my prayers as I celebrate daily Eucharist during my trip. I am glad that I can serve at Notre Dame in Kerrville.

God Bless You, Father Rafael

My parents and my brother Michael with his family
