Verse to reflect on this week:

Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him."

Matthew 17:4-5

Dear Parishioners,

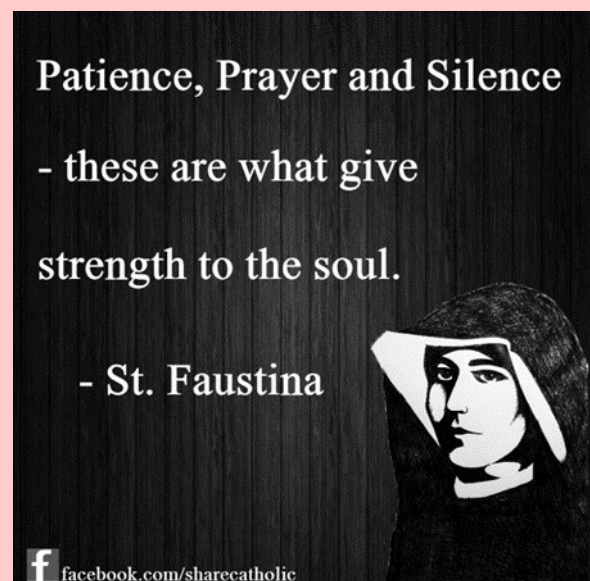

As we walk through the Valley of LENT we need to have a honest desire to change our life for God. We should be open to God's voice and ready to reject all that isn't good in his eyes. In our Catholic faith the best way to break the circle of sin is to confess it and reject it. Lent gives us an opportunity to make a General Confession from our life. To have a General Confession we must make more time (outside the normal confession times). A general confession is a comprehensive confession of one's sins. It is the result of a deep examination of conscience which requires us to go back in time, to analyze sins according to the commandments, to capital sins, to works of mercy and of the beatitudes. To examine our conscience properly we must take time to reflect profoundly on our past and see where we have failed. We must 'see' our thoughts, words, actions, omissions, relationships. We have to see What or Who is more important than God in our life.

In General Confession as we 'go back' to see what wasn't or isn't pleasing God's Heart, we hope to find a deep conversion, peace and relief of accumulated guilt for sins poorly confessed or even omitted. It is NOT necessary to re-confess the sins that we have confessed in the past, except when they are still accusing us in our conscience.

If we reflect on our whole life, we will slowly see more clearly different imperfect moments from our past (things, that we have done poorly and without love or care). We must go through different stages of our life: our infancy, school years, teen years, marriage, work, career...

When we prepare ourselves for General Confession we want to remember about God's love and mercy, God doesn't want to condemn us. He wants to embrace us, bring us peace and make stronger our relationship with Him.

Prepare NOW for The Greatest Day of Grace Coming Soon

We want to ensure our entire parish is aware of the tremendous graces offered to the whole world on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 16 this year. Jesus told St. Maria Faustina, "This Feast emerged from the very depths of My mercy, and it is confirmed in the vast depths of My tender mercies. Every soul believing and trusting in My mercy will obtain it." Go to MercySundayMomentum.org to join the momentum, get inspiration, and help others discover the gift of Divine Mercy Sunday.
