20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Verse to reflect on this week:

She said, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters." Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour.

Saint of the Week from Your Librarian

St. Dominic de Guzman was born on August 8, 1170, in Spain (his father was a Spanish nobleman) and died August 6, 1221, in Italy. Before his mother conceived Dominic, she saw in a vision a dog with a burning torch in his mouth leaping from her womb and ran across the whole earth and set it on fire indicating the type of preacher he would become.

While a philosophy student, Dominic sold his own precious study books to feed the starving during a famine saying, "Would you have me study off these dead skins when men are dying of hunger?" He is best known for founding the Order of Preachers (the Dominicans Order). In 1215 he formed a group of men that were dedicated and educated in the southern of France to combat the Albigensian heresy through intellectual debate and humble living. The Albigensians thought all matters were evil; hence they denied the Incarnation and the sacraments, but they also abstained from procreation and took a minimum amount of food and drink.

Pope Honorius III formally approved St. Dominic's plan of life for the preaching friars in 1216. In 1217, Dominic called together his sixteen new followers and dispersed them, despite their objections. He said, "Seed that is hoarded rots. You shall no longer live in this house." He sent four to Spain, seven to Paris, two to stay in Toulouse, and two to Prouille. He and one last brother went to Rome. He is the patron saint of astronomers & the falsely accused.

St. Dominic is known for several famous miracles. The most famous was in 1206 when Dominic was challenged to a public debate by the Albigenses concerning doctrinal truth. To test which beliefs contained divine truth, Dominic and a representative of the Albigenses each threw their writings into a fire. The heretic's writings were consumed by fire, but Dominic's writings were miraculously saved and expelled from the fire three times.

The second miracle was the miraculous feeding of his friars at St. Sixtus Convent in Rome when they had no food because they gave everything away to the poor. Dominic prayed, and two angels appeared. They were carrying loaves of bread in two white cloths that hung from their shoulders to feed the brothers, beginning with the youngest. When the last loaf was placed in front of Dominic, the angels disappeared.

The third miracle according to tradition is that the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to Dominic in 1214, while he was in the forest to pray and fast intensely. The Blessed Virgin Mary asked him, "Do you know which weapon the Blessed Trinity wants to use to reform the world?" Mary replied, "Preach my Psalter," referring to the Holy Rosary as a powerful tool to combat hardened souls. Mary gave him the Rosary as a spiritual weapon to combat heresy, bring people closer to God, and protect believer's hearts from false teachings.

The fourth miracle was eyewitness accounts recorded by early followers like Sister Cecilia of restoring a grieving mother's (Tuta) dead boy back to life in Rome. Hearing that Dominic was in town preaching, she left her sick child to go listen to Dominic preach the word of God. By the time she returned home, the boy was dead. She then picked up her child and took him to the house where Dominic was staying. She placed the child at his feet and begged him to restore her child. Dominic went off to pray and upon returning to where the dead child was, placed the sign of the cross on his forehead and the boy rose full of health.

St. Dominic's feast day is August 8th
