An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

A single mother who has a child with special needs works two jobs and sacrifices much of her own pleasures in order to be available for her son. Being the best mother possible is important to her and brings her joy. We are willing to make great and often heroic sacrifices for those people and things that matter most to us. Unless there is something of obvious importance to us in our immediate path, we can easily approach life in a more haphazard and chaotic way. We jump from one thing to another, responding to whatever it is that is competing for our attention at that moment. When everything is important, nothing is important.

If we do not wear the right pair of glasses, we can get all too easily caught up in the superficial stuff and neglect paying attention to the things that really matter. The kingdom of God is like the pearl of great price that is worth selling everything for so that it can be obtained. Based on where we invest our time and energy each day, we can really wonder whether we are serving God's kingdom or our own. Have you ever considered tracking how you spend your time? You may be surprised at what you would find! We allow our agendas to set the clock of our lives. We forget that joy and a true sense of purpose are not going to be found in following our timepiece. Joy is the expression of the happiness that is discovered when living in the kingdom of God. When our agenda matches God, not only do we leap for joy, but God leaps with delight as well. Our well-being is what matters most to God.

Can you imagine God delighting in you? It is easy to deaden our senses to the whole reality of God and the joy that living the Gospel can bring. The demands of secular life and the agendas competing for our attention can quickly do that. We can get tired and spiritually apathetic. But if we can see our way through all of the conflicting voices and hear the voice of God, we can rediscover our zeal and passion and redirect our efforts. When we begin to see as God sees, we can rise each day and notice what really needs our attention and embrace it with exuberance. Be careful, though. It may not be what we originally had on our list. Responding to it, however, will be worth putting everything else aside.

*“Lay your head on my shoulder,
rest and regain your strength.
I am always with you.”
~Jesus to St. Faustina*

AREA NEWS

Meals on Wheels for September - St. Anne's is looking for 10 volunteers to work as partners in delivering meals. The commitment is only for the month of September, one hour a week for the four weeks of that month. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Sara Keller at 223-1549 or skeller@stannesbismarck.org.

CHI Health at Home—As we experience these times of COVID-19 and are mostly quarantined to our homes, you may find yourself considering how you are spending your time. Our agency is always in great need of volunteers to assist us. Some of the areas that we are in need of assistance with are:

- ◆ Flower Delivery Volunteer—deliver flower to patients
- ◆ Tuck-In Volunteer—weekly phone contact to caregivers of hospice patients
- ◆ Visiting Volunteer—visiting patients and families and providing support
- ◆ Respite Volunteer—giving families a much needed break to run errands, etc.
- ◆ Bereavement Volunteer—following up with our bereaved families
- ◆ Crafting Volunteer—sewing pillowcases and knitting prayer shawls
- ◆ Clerical Volunteer—assist with mailings and computing of volunteer hours
- ◆ Pet Therapy—visiting our patients at home or in a facility with a certified pet
- ◆ Music Therapy—singing or playing an instrument for a hospice patient
- ◆ Veteran to Veteran Volunteer—veterans spending time with veteran hospice patients

We do know that most of these volunteer activities are not possible at this time, however, the training could be completed now so volunteers can be completely ready to go when our city opens up again. If you or someone you know may be interested in completing the volunteer training online or via Zoom, please contact Jasmin Yoder at jasmynyoder@catholichealth.net or 701-400-8408.

Are you interested in accompanying for Mass?
The Church of St. Anne is looking for more pianists/organists!

The Memorare

*Remember,
O Most Gracious Virgin Mary,
that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help,
or sought thine intercession
was left unaided.
Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother, to thee do
I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.*

Bishop Kagan has asked us to pray the Memorare during this time, asking for our Blessed Mother to intercede for us.
