Every fall, the Martha's and Mary's organization of our parish proudly hosts our annual Fall Fair, complete with a meal, raffle tickets, and a sale featuring crafts, baked goods, and religious items.

Unfortunately, due to COVID-19 and the logistical planning needed to meet our current diocesan and state directives for social distancing, we will be unable to have our Fall Fair this year.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Secular pursuits only bring a temporary amount of satisfaction and fulfillment. As much as we may think that achieving worldly success, economic security, personal well-being, and self-fulfillment are worthy goals to obtain, they all are dependent on external variables and can lead to emptiness. We are trained to be very pragmatic and productive. Unless we are able to check off all of the boxes or comply with specific measurable requirements, our value and worth becomes questionable. Corporations, educational institutions, systems, structures, and secular ideology rarely consider deeper, more spiritual, and human contributions a person can and needs to make.

To the secular mind, the wisdom and ideals of the Gospel are making less and less sense. Consider for a moment this question: “What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?” While Jesus is asking this very challenging question to people who are considering his message, many in our world are in a quite different place. Whether we realize it, many folks are asking a much different question. Why would you not want to gain the whole world and secure your life? If you look at where a lot of folks are investing their time, energy, and resources, it becomes obvious where current priorities rest.

Modern day comforts and possibilities are backing us out of our relationship with God. The fire burning in every human heart is trying to find its satisfaction in the things that humans have created and not God. Being altruistic and offering compassion for those most in need becomes a political responsibility or responsible gesture. We realize that our hearts need to be centered on something and someone who calls us out of ourselves, but we struggle and battle with naming the source of that call. God places the desire to seek, find, and love Him in the core of every soul. We are not abandoned and left to fend for ourselves. But we can easily get confused. We know that when we extend ourselves to another self-sacrificially, we are doing what is just and right. We know that we can work through suffering and loss and come out better and more whole on the other side.

Our minds need to be renewed so that they can begin to understand that there is much more to who we are, and that faith plays a pivotal role in achieving our true and everlasting goals. It is when we see that it is only faith that can bring us to this heightened awareness of ourselves and God that it will begin to make sense. Then, we can put things in proper perspective and consider being a disciple.

“Yes, you must live life beautifully and not allow the spirit of the world that makes gods out of power, riches, and pleasure make you to forget that you have been created for greater things.”

~ St. Teresa of Calcutta

The Memorare

*Remember,
O Most Gracious Virgin Mary,
that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession
was left unaided.
Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother, to thee do
I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.*

Bishop Kagan has asked us to pray the Memorare during this time, asking for our Blessed Mother to intercede for us.

SERVING IN YOUR OWN CALCUTTA

This coming Saturday, on September 5, we celebrate the optional memorial for St. Teresa of Calcutta. Because St. Teresa of Calcutta's feast day is an optional memorial and not an obligatory memorial, it is not included on the General Roman Calendar with the saints whose feast days are obligatory memorials; only the memorials of saints who are of “universal significance” are observed throughout the whole Church and marked on the liturgical calendar. However, that does not mean that we shouldn't celebrate the saints with optional memorials with any less joy and festivity, especially when the saint is as dearly loved as St. Teresa of Calcutta.

St. Teresa of Calcutta was born on August 26, 1910 in Albania. At the age of eighteen, she left home to join the Sisters of Loreto in Ireland as she could learn the English language and become a missionary. Upon arriving, she received the name Sister Mary Teresa, a tribute to the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Thérèse of Lisieux. She left the Loreto community in Ireland and went to the Loreto Entally community in Calcutta, India to teach in a convent school. On May 24, 1937, Sister Teresa made her Final Profession of Vows, and from that time on, she was called Mother Teresa.

On September 10, 1946, while riding a train from Calcutta to Darjeeling for a retreat, Mother Teresa received her “call within a call.” In an unexplainable way, Jesus' thirst for love and for souls was so clearly revealed in her heart, and the desire to satiate His thirst became the driving force of her work and life. Over the next months, Jesus revealed to her the desire of His heart: “Come be My light.” He revealed to her His great pain over the neglect of the poor, their ignorance of Him, and His deep desire for their love. Mother Teresa was chosen by Him to establish a religious community, known today as the Missionaries of Charity, that was to be dedicated to the service of the poorest of the poor. Almost two years of discernment passed before Mother Teresa was given permission to start the religious community, and on August 17, 1948, she left the Loreto convent to begin her important ministry.

Mother Teresa transformed millions of lives. Whether it was tending to someone in the slums of Calcutta, caring for the sick alongside the road, nursing someone in the last stages of their earthly life, or offering spiritual guidance, Mother Teresa did all of her work for the love of Jesus: “I try to give to the poor people for love what the rich could get for money. No, I wouldn't touch a leper for a thousand pounds; yet I willingly cure him for the love of God.”

As Mother Teresa's popularity grew and her humble works of love and service to the poorest of the poor became known around the world, many people became, and still continue to be, overcome by the work she did. Her courage to tend to people experiencing such great suffering and to perform some of the lowliest and, at times, repulsive tasks amazed people. Many wished for the strength to do what she did and mourned their inability to serve as she did, but Mother Teresa summed up their ability to serve so perfectly: “Stay where you are. Find your own Calcutta. Find the sick, the suffering, and the lonely, right where you are — in your own homes and in your own families, in homes and in your workplaces and in your schools. You can find Calcutta all over the world, if you have eyes to see. Everywhere, wherever you go, you find people who are unwanted, unloved, uncared for, just rejected by society — completely forgotten, completely left alone.”

Look around you. Calcutta exists all around us. Who can you help? Where can you serve? How can you be Jesus' light to the world? How you can you help satiate Jesus' intense thirsting for souls in the world?
