Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area. - Jn 2:13b-15a

MARTHAS & MARYS

Who are the Marthas and Marys? Marthas and Marys consists of all the women of Saint Anne Catholic Church. The mission of Marthas and Marys is to provide service and prayers to our parish. If you are a woman of Saint Anne parish, then you are a member of Marthas and Marys. Please pray about being an active member of this worthwhile organization.

What do the Marthas and Marys do?

- ◆ Coordinate and serve all funeral receptions,
- ◆ Hold an Annual Fall Fair and Christmas bake sale,
- ◆ Sew Baptismal Gift Bears for newly baptized babies in our parish,
- ◆ Purchase parish kitchen and dining room supplies with the funds raised from functions, etc.

As you have probably heard, there is now the possibility to reinstate lunches for funerals as of the recent directives of the Bishop of the Diocese of Bismarck. The Martha's and Mary's are the good souls we would rely on to make those lunches happen again. We are in need of volunteers to sign up to be chairpersons for the upcoming months. If you are able and are comfortable volunteering to be a chairperson, please sign up for the one of the available spots by calling the Parish Office at 223-1549.

Upcoming Meeting—There will be a Marthas & Marys Meeting on Wednesday, March 10th, at 7:00pm in the Parish Hall of the church. Father Sattler will be joining the meeting and the discussion will be about the re-start of the funeral meals and any other business. Please try to attend this important meeting.

Going to be in the Hospital? If you are a patient, or are going to be a patient in the hospital and would like a visit from one of our priests or would like to receive the Eucharist, please let us know, by calling the parish office at 223-1549.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

THIRD SUNDAY OF

Many prefer a "create as you go" approach to life where laws and protocols primarily exist to secure and protect liberties rather than dictate and outline proper and right behavior. There are no real benchmarks for acceptable ethical and moral behavior, with a "you can't tell me what to do" attitude prevailing. Parents are even limited in what they can request of their children, and dealing with threatening behaviors, especially from adults, are a challenge as well. Acceptable and expected conduct seems to amount to safeguarding each other's space rather than increasing awareness of necessary relationships that require a more refined and higher response.

We have lost our axis to the world of "anything goes" and no longer see the Ten Commandments as practical and wise guideposts to effective living. We live on "relativism island" where only a possible suggestion to "love and do not harm" may be the only standard able to be preached. While Jesus most certainly emphasized love above anything else, it was never about warm fuzzy feelings or halfhearted humanitarian efforts. The love of which Jesus spoke establishes an intimate connection with God, neighbor, self, and creation. Because this love, who is God Himself, is at the foundational core of our lives, it demands actions and attitudes that serve to build up, increase, and free up those relationships. Love requires proper conduct. Preserving and enhancing these love centered relationships is at the heart of the Ten Commandments (and the Beatitudes) and the reason for Jesus' display of anger in the temple.

The Ten Commandments can save the world from turmoil and conflict by instilling basic moral and relational principles within us. They also hold a healthy sense of sin in balance and always remind us of our relationship with God and the freedom God offers. Our faith preserves these jewels of truth that we often look beyond, dismiss altogether, or seek to remove from public view. Human beings can be so arrogant at times. Our Lenten journey, especially when embarked upon with sincerity and resolve, can restore all of our essential relationships. When we get absorbed in life's preoccupations and demands, things can quickly get distorted and we can find ourselves way off track. In short, we find ourselves in sin. Humanity is losing a sense of both grace and sin. We need both to understand what is real and true. Until we do, the oppressive systems and ideologies that hurt so many will never change. We will never change. We are grateful for those courageous souls who willingly embrace the conversion and hard work Lent demands and stand against antiquated systems and ideologies. They give us hope that all is not lost.

*"For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments.
 And His commandments are not burdensome."*

~1 John 5:3

Meals for Moms

Even when everything goes smoothly, bringing home a newborn can be challenging. The physical, mental, and emotional exhaustion can often leave parents, even very experienced parents, feeling overwhelmed; something that is normally simple, such as preparing a meal, can seem daunting and impossible.

This is where St. Anne's comes in. Saint Anne's is starting a new volunteer ministry called Meals for Moms. Geared towards parishioner families that are expecting a baby or have recently welcomed a newborn (whether through birth, foster care, or adoption), the purpose of this ministry is to help families welcome their newest blessing into the world, whether it be their first, second, third, etc. child. The first few weeks after bringing home a new baby can be challenging as families learn to settle into a new routine, and this volunteer ministry seeks to walk with families and support them through that transition by bringing a meal.

How does this work? It's all very simple. If a family is expecting a baby or has recently welcomed a baby and would like to receive a meal, all they need to do is call the Parish Office at 223-1549 and request a meal. The Parish Office will then contact the volunteer coordinator who will coordinate a drop-off date and time with the family and take note of the number of immediate family members and any food allergies that the volunteer cook should be aware of.

Volunteers Are Needed—If you would like to sign up as a volunteer for this ministry, please call the Parish Office at 223-1549 to sign up.

Cor Christi Institute at the University of Mary—

Cor Christi (“The Heart of Christ”) invites high school students to a living encounter with Jesus and the foundational teachings and practices of the Catholic faith. This initiative was born from the desire of a group of young priests and other dedicated believers to offer a new generation—through an intensive summer experience—the basics of the adventure of faith. Each day is filled with intensive and eye-opening classes, Daily Mass, Morning and Evening Prayer, Adoration, and fellowship and community building. Who is eligible to attend Cor Christi? Cor Christi is open to students who will be entering grades 9, 10, 11, or 12 in the fall. Students will learn about the Trinity, the Incarnation, the Sacraments, how to pray as a Catholic, and simply how to live as a Catholic! Cor Christi is held at the University of Mary campus just south of Bismarck. Due to the large number of attendees, there are two weeks to choose from in July, beginning Monday at 10:00am and ending Friday at 5:30pm: Week One will be held July 12-16, 2021, and Week Two will be held July 19-23, 2021. The cost of the weeklong retreat is $200 per person, and it covers lodging and meals as well. To register, please complete the registration form found at <https://d2y1pz2y630308.cloudfront.net/2950/documents/2021/2/CorChristiBrochure%2021.pdf>; contact Nick Emmel with any questions at nicholasemmel@gmail.com or 612-275-2928.
