KC CORNER

Did you know?

The Knights of Columbus were instrumental in getting the phrase “under God” included in the pledge of allegiance. The original pledge written in 1892 was first revised in 1923 to change “my flag” to “the flag of the United States of America”, fearing that immigrant children would mistakenly think that it referred to the flag of their homeland.

The movement began in 1948 to include “under God” which was inspired by Abraham Lincoln in the Gettysburg Address where he described America as “this nation under God”. The Knights of Columbus began including “under God” in their recitation of the pledge, adopted it universally in 1951 and then began the national push. Legislation signed by president Dwight D. Eisenhower on Flag Day, June 14th, 1954 made it official. This phrase highlighted the contrast between American values and those of the Communist Soviet Union, where religion was suppressed and basic human rights were state given, not God given, and thus routinely violated.

This action helped to solidify Catholics in the mind of Americans as good, patriotic citizens.

Interestingly, within 2 years President Eisenhower signed a bill making “In God We Trust” the nation’s official motto.

The purpose of this ministry is to help families welcome their newest blessing into the world, whether it is their first child or not. If a family has recently welcomed a baby and would like to receive a meal, all they need to do is call the Parish Office at 223-1549 and request a meal. The Parish Office will then contact the volunteer coordinator who will coordinate a drop-off date and time with the family and take note of the number of immediate family members and any food allergies that the volunteer cook should be aware of.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That’s how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That’s the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that’s not really true. The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with you, with all of us who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, however, how do we do it? Well, there’s a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel — and the risky way. The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in church and around like-minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong.

The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the “road less traveled.” Imagine those first disciples going out and into people’s homes. They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God’s kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently. They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. While there were many who welcomed what they had to say and the conversations they had, there were others who no doubt rejected them and literally tossed them out on their ears! The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are.

The risky way involves example and conversation. We have to take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. What kinds of conversations do we have with others? We interact with those closest to us, in our work, social circles, institutions, corporations, in politics, and beyond. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important. If we are really interested in seeing God’s vision for the world succeed, then we will talk about it. It will become a part of our everyday conversation and find its way into our interactions with others. How will we preserve the dignity of human life and encourage others to have a relationship with God? We must be the example, live value centered, virtuous lives, and stand against injustice.

If we are going to succeed going forward, we have to find a way to bring our prayer centered lives into the marketplace. Our conversations have to change. Not everyone wants to hear what the Gospel has to say. That’s a risk God asks us to take.

“He who wants to win the world for Christ must have the courage to come in conflict with it.”
~Blessed Titus Brandsma

The Memorare

*Remember,
O Most Gracious Virgin Mary,
that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession
was left unaided.
Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother, to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.*

Saint Anne Parish is committed to the protection of our children, young people and vulnerable adults. The awareness of child abuse in society demands we take responsibility to make ourselves aware of its cause and take steps toward its prevention. Safe Environment information is accessible from St. Anne's Website under the Home tab or from the Diocese of Bismarck's Website.

Bon Appétit JUST WHAT IS BON APPÉTIT? It is well known that a priest's life is unpredictable. Sometimes they become so busy they have no time to cook and even forget to eat. Certainly, this is an unhealthy lifestyle. We, the parishioners of St. Anne's, are the beneficiaries of their sacrifice. Out of this need, Bon Appétit was born. In order to keep our beloved priests healthy and well-fed volunteers provide a meal to the priests on Tuesday's, Wednesday's and Friday's. Volunteers are scheduled to prepare one of these meals once every three months. To keep the schedule, we need more participants for this parish ministry. If you would like to become one of these valuable persons, please call the office or Linda at 258-7763 for more information.

Seeking Possible NFP Instructors—The Office of Family Ministry and Respect Life is seeking individuals interested in learning to teach a method of Natural Family Planning for engaged couples in the Diocese of Bismarck. To learn more about becoming an NFP instructor for the Diocese of Bismarck, and to inquire about funding, contact Amanda, Director of Family Ministry and Respect Life at 701-204-7205 or ajensen@bismarckdiocese.com.
