23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"—that is, "Be opened!" - Mk 7:32-34

Note from the Rosary Makers—During the past several years we have sent rosaries to scores of cities in several states and to other countries as well. We very seldom receive any acknowledgement of how welcome those rosaries might be to our recipients, but we know that they are appreciated. We can tell by observing the number of rosaries St Anne's parishioners use to continue their prayer. And we thank you for that part you play. Several years ago, before it became clear that we were here to stay, parishioners used a few of our rosaries each month. Not many. Just a few. Up until about a year ago, that small number came to be over 300 rosaries annually to you, our parishioners. However, during this current year, St Anne's parishioners, alone are expected to pray nearly 1,000 rosaries based on the number of rosaries that have been taken by parishioners. By themselves, numbers usually have little value. But in this case, you have given us the best endorsement any group could ever have. Thank you. And it does not stop there. Each week we find more Holy Cards and more old rosaries intended for the children of Uganda. We will be able to collect such items until early February when we bring those boxes to the missionaries who will assemble them for transit. Each box is marked, not as having come from our rosary group, but as having originated at the Parish of St. Anne in Bismarck.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

From the time we are born into this world until we die, our human radar picks up signals about how to respond to life. What we picked up on when we were very young carries an even greater power. The messages we receive and process tell us what we are "supposed" to do with our feelings, how to understand and cope with disappointment, anxiety, failure, death, illness, and what to expect out of life. As life unfolds for us, these radar messages kick in and resonate in us at very deep levels. Sometimes what we have learned is helpful, and sometimes it is not. The stories we have been told, especially when we are young, about how life is best lived and how to negotiate its pain carry a heavy weight.

Life can be challenging and frightening. Sometimes, it really hurts to be a human being. It also can be quite unpredictable and, at times, unfair. We face our vulnerability and brokenness of all kinds: physical, emotional, and spiritual. It doesn't take much for life to quickly fall apart. What we knew to be familiar and true is gone, and something we relied upon—physically, emotionally, or spiritually—can be taken away. It is hard to confront our limitations and sit with our incompleteness. Often, life hurts us so much that we find ourselves sitting in a pool of sadness, not sure what we are supposed to do. It is particularly hard when the signals we have inherited tell us that we need to be successful in what we do, and we have to avoid life's unfairness. We can feel like a failure, wondering what precisely we did to deserve this fate, or ruminate about what we did not do correctly. But it's really not about us. We are part of a bigger picture and a much more fascinating story!

If we cease doing battle with life's incompleteness and see ourselves, as God does, on a journey toward wholeness and completeness we can better accept our disappointments and stand firm. The prophets told us, and Jesus reassured us: Be strong! Fear not! Sometimes we have to update our stories and replace them with newer, more accurate ones. When we make God's story our own and tune our radar into His voice, what we hear is all about restoration, healing, and rejuvenation! This is true even when we think we have hit rock bottom and can go no further. There is always hope. Remember the words of Julian of Norwich: God made us, God loves us, and God keeps us. Now, listen to God when He says, "be opened!" Be healed and allow your stories to change.

their names are anger and courage.
Anger that things are the way they are.
Courage to make them the way they ought to be."*
