

Character Study

Name _____

We have discussed in class the different ways to develop a character in literature. In the case of Auggie, the most description is about the personality of the character, and less about his looks. Your assignment is to fill a profile of yourself with pictures, words or phrases from magazines, books, or computer images and texts. The words should describe your personality, both strengths and weaknesses. Your name should be at the bottom of the page, a quote that is meaningful to you should be at the top center of the page. This assignment is due November 9th.
