The Ten Commandments: A Scriptural Review

NAME _____

Printed below is a passage from Scripture that contains the Ten Commandments given to Moses by God on Mount Sinai. This passage is found in the second book of the Bible, the Book of Exodus, chapter 20, verses 2 to 17. Using red and black markers, pencils, or pens, identify each of the Ten Commandments in the Scripture passage in the following ways:

- |                      |  |
|----------------------|--|
| First Commandment:   | Circle it.                                     |
| Second Commandment:  | Put a row of dots ( . . ) under it.            |
| Third Commandment:   | Draw a box <input type="checkbox"/> around it. |
| Fourth Commandment:  | Put an X at beginning and end of it.           |
| Fifth Commandment:   | Put a + at beginning and end of it.            |
| Sixth Commandment:   | Draw a cloud around it.                        |
| Seventh Commandment: | Trace with highlighter over its words.  |
| Eighth Commandment:  | Enclose it in parentheses ( ).                 |
| Ninth Commandment:   | Underline it in red.                           |
| Tenth Commandment:   | Underline it in black.                         |

Hint: The Commandments may be part of a sentence, an entire sentence, or a part of one sentence and all of another. Look hard.

I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. You shall have no other gods before me. You shall not make for yourself a graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; you shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and the fourth generation of those who hate me, but showing steadfast love to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain. Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days you shall labor, and do all your work; but the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; in it you shall not do any work, you, or your son, or your daughter, your manservant, or your maidservant, or your cattle, or the sojourner who is within your gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and hallowed it. Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long in the land which the Lord your God gives you. You shall not kill. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his manservant, or his maidservant, or his ox, or his ass, or anything that is your neighbor's.
