READINGS, REFLECTIONS AND PRAYERS

SUNDAY READINGS IN A WORD

FIRST READING

Sirach 3:2 -6, 12-14

People who revere their father will live a long life; they who obey their father bring comfort to their mother. Kindness to a parent will take lasting root..

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

128:1-2, 3, 4-5

Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.

SECOND READING

Colossians 3:12-21

The church at Colossae hears, "Put on ...heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience." Bear with one another. Forgive as the Lord has forgiven you. The author wrote, be thankful, and "let the word of Christ dwell in you richly."

GOSPEL READING

Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23

Joseph was told in a dream to take the child and his mother to Egypt. In that way the prophecy would be fulfilled: "Out of Egypt I have called my son." When they returned, they settled in Nazareth to fulfill another prophecy: "He shall be called a Nazorean

FOCUS

"O Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways."

PRAYER CORNER

Creator all-powerful, in your wisdom and love, your Son, begotten before the dawn of time, became in time a member of our human family.

Give to parents the courage to journey with their children, seeking always the paths that you point out. To all of us, daughters and sons, give grace of respect for those who nurtured and protected us. May we come at last to be sheltered in the home you have prepared for us.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

~ REFLECTION ~

"The history of mankind, the history of salvation, passes by way of the family. The family is placed at the center of the great struggle between good and evil, between life and death, between love and all that is opposed to love."

Pope John Paul II

Christmas, Kwanzaa and the New Year

Happy holidays to everyone in our Parish. May Christmas, Kwanzaa and the New Year be a source of joy, peace and encouragement to everyone.

We sing the songs and carols of the season which always orient us the best of human endeavors and the best in ourselves, like “Peace on earth and goodwill to all.” Yet the news of the day and even the news of the season is not always good news. There is tragedy, unkindness and evil in world even this season. Most of us can easily give ourselves over to sadness for the state of the world, of the country or even the state of our own lives, if we choose to do so.

Nevertheless, is the reason for celebration just as real and genuine as the reason for sadness? Do the Christmas anthems, the religious solemnity and the focus on being our best selves bring out real good in us? Is there not real joy that occurs at parties and at family gatherings and in our donations to those in need? Are we not uplifted by our holiday foods? Is there not genuine peace in reflecting on the joys of our youth, the friends we have known and the love we have experienced? Isn’t God still in the business of pouring out blessings daily upon his holy ones?

Our holiday seasons do not deny that life can be difficult. Rather they give all of us a chance to acknowledge, at the same time, that life can also be very, very good.

Navidad, Kwanzaa y Año Nuevo.

Felices fiestas a todos en nuestra parroquia. Que la Navidad, Kwanzaa y el Año Nuevo sean una fuente de alegría, paz y aliento para todos.

Cantamos las canciones y los villancicos de la temporada que siempre nos orientan lo mejor de los esfuerzos humanos y lo mejor de nosotros mismos, como "Paz en la tierra y buena voluntad para todos". Sin embargo, las noticias del día e incluso las noticias de la temporada no son Siempre buenas noticias. Hay tragedia, crueldad y maldad en el mundo, incluso esta temporada. La mayoría de nosotros podemos entregarnos fácilmente a la tristeza por el estado del mundo, del país o incluso del estado de nuestras propias vidas, si decidimos hacerlo.

Sin embargo, ¿el motivo de la celebración es tan real y genuino como el motivo de la tristeza? ¿Los himnos navideños, la solemnidad religiosa y el enfoque en ser lo mejor de nosotros mismos nos traen realmente bien? ¿No hay verdadera alegría en las fiestas y reuniones familiares y en nuestras donaciones a los necesitados? ¿No estamos animados por nuestro
