For church movements and groups

We pray that Church movements and groups may rediscover their mission of evangelization each day, placing their own charisms at the service of needs in the world.

Sad, Tired and Angry: A Prayer in the Face of Gun Violence

[Prayer recited by Fr Willem during the Gospel Mass on May 7th, 2023]

James Martin, S.J., October 02, 2017

Almighty God,

I come before you,
once again,
after another shooting.

I am sad, God.

So I ask you to receive into your loving care the souls of those who were killed,

to care for those who were wounded or hurt in any way,
to console the family members and friends of those who died or were wounded, to strengthen the hands of the rescue workers, medical professionals, and caregivers. I pray too for the shooter, as I must as a Christian. All this makes me inexpressibly sad, God.

But I know that the sadness I feel is your sadness.

It is the same sadness your son expressed when he wept over the death of his friend Lazarus.

I am tired, God.

I'm tired of the unwillingness to see this as an important issue.

I'm tired of those in power who work to prevent any real change.

I'm tired of those who say that gun violence can't be reduced. All this makes me tired. But I know that the tiredness I feel is your tiredness.

It's the same tiredness that Jesus felt after his own struggles against injustice that led him to fall asleep on the boat with his disciples.

I am angry, God.

I'm angry at the seeming powerlessness of our community to prevent this.

I'm angry at the selfish financial interests who block change.

I'm angry that these shootings happen at all.

But I know that this anger is your anger

It's the same anger Jesus felt when he overturned the tables in the Temple, angry that anyone would be taken advantage of in any way.

Help me see in these emotions your own desire for change.

Help me see in these feelings your moving me to act.

Help me see in these reactions your pushing me to do something.

Because I know this is the way you move people to action.

And I know that you desire action.

For Jesus did not stand by while people were being hurt.

He plunged into their lives.

So help me to answer these questions:

How can I help?

How can I fight against gun violence?

How can I urge my political leaders to enact change?

How can I help people understand that this is an issue about life?

I am sad over the loss of life,

tired of excuses for the loss of life,

and angry that we are paralyzed by the loss of life.

So

Turn my sadness into compassion.

Turn my tiredness into advocacy.

Turn my paralysis into the freedom to act.

Help me

to be compassionate,

to advocate

and to act,

as your son did,

Almighty God.

Share Your Blessings

Please, remember us with a bequest in your Will. The Parish of St Charles Borromeo, Resurrection, and All Saints is our legacy to our children, our friends, and our loved ones. Your thoughtfulness will help ensure our future. Please, call the Rectory with questions about how to “word” your bequest.

Let us keep the family of Parishioner Doris Wilson in our prayers. There will be a Memorial Mass held in the near future . Details to follow.

"Love and Thanks"

The family of Deacon Michel Hodge and Stacey Darville Hodge would like to thank the parish family for the love, support, gifts, perpetual mass offerings and prayers, flowers, plants and acts of kindness you provided after the recent loss of Stacey's father Colman J. Darville 1939-2023. Everything you have done for us and the Darville family has been sincerely appreciated. Truly, Love never fails.

Regards,
Stacey

Parish Membership – To be considered active members of St Charles Borromeo, Resurrection, and All Saints Parish, each family and single adult must be properly registered and regularly use the weekly donation envelopes or WeShare for our parish. This is the only way the parish can issue documents attesting to parish membership and Catholic practice (e.g. A letter to be a Godparent or Sponsor). Newly registered parishioners must be registered & use envelopes for at least 6 months before a Sponsor Letter can be issued. NOTE: If you are not registered in our Parish, you or your child(ren) cannot receive any of the Sacraments like Baptism, First Holy Communion, or Confirmation.
