Saint Josephine Bakhita, Patron Saint of Human Trafficking and Slavery, Feast Day – Sunday, February 8th

For many years, Josephine Bakhita was a slave, but her spirit was always free, and eventually that spirit prevailed.

Born in Olgossa in the Darfur region of southern Sudan, Josephine was kidnapped at the age of 7, sold into slavery, and given the name Bakhita, which means fortunate. She was resold several times, finally in 1883 to Callisto Legnani, Italian consul in Khartoum, Sudan.

Two years later, he took Josephine to Italy and gave her to his friend Augusto Michieli. Bakhita became a babysitter to Mimmina Michieli, whom she accompanied to Venice's Institute of the Catechumens, run by the Canossian Sisters. While Mimmina was being instructed, Josephine felt drawn to the Catholic Church. She was baptized and confirmed in 1890, taking the name Josephine.

When the Michielis returned from Africa and wanted to take Mimmina and Josephine back with them, the future saint refused to go. During the ensuing court case, the Canossian Sisters and the patriarch of Venice intervened on Josephine's behalf. The judge concluded that since slavery was illegal in Italy, she had actually been free since 1885.

Saint Josephine Bakhita entered the Institute of St. Magdalene of Canossa in 1893 and made her profession three years later. In 1902, she was transferred to the city of Schio (northeast of Verona), where she assisted her religious community through cooking, sewing, embroidery, and welcoming visitors at the door. She soon became well-loved by the children attending the sisters' school and the local citizens. She once said, "Be good, love the Lord, pray for those who do not know Him. What a great grace it is to know God!"

The first steps toward her beatification began in 1959. She was beatified in 1992 and canonized eight years later.

Reflection: Saint Josephine Bakhita's body was mutilated by those who enslaved her, but they could not touch her spirit. Her Baptism set her on an eventual path toward asserting her civic freedom and then service to God's people as a Canossian Sister. She, who worked under many "masters," was finally happy to address God as "master" and carry out everything that she believed to be God's will for her.

Durante muchos años, Josefina Bakhita fue esclava, pero su espíritu siempre fue libre y finalmente ese espíritu prevaleció.

Nacida en Olgossa, en la región de Darfur, al sur de Sudán, Josefina fue secuestrada a los 7 años, vendida como esclava y recibió el nombre de Bakhita, que significa afortunada. Fue revendido varias veces, hasta que finalmente en 1883 se le revendió a Callisto Legnani, cónsul italiano en Jartum, Sudán.

NEWS & EVENTS

En 1902, fue trasladada a la ciudad de Schio (noreste de Verona), donde ayudó a su comunidad religiosa cocinando, cosiendo, bordando y recibiendo a los visitantes en la puerta. Pronto se hizo muy querida por los niños que asistían a la escuela de las hermanas y por los ciudadanos locales. Una vez dijo: "Sed buenos, amad al Señor, orad por aquellos que no le conocen. ¡Qué gran gracia es conocer a Dios!"

Los primeros pasos hacia su beatificación comenzaron en 1959. Fue beatificada en 1992 y canonizada ocho años después.

Reflexión: El cuerpo de Santa Josefina Bakhita fue mutilado por quienes la esclavizaron, pero no pudieron tocar su espíritu. Su bautismo la encaminó eventualmente hacia la afirmación de su libertad cívica y luego el servicio al pueblo de Dios como Hermana Canossiana.

Ella, que trabajó bajo muchos "maestros", finalmente se alegró de dirigirse a Dios como "maestro" y de llevar a cabo todo lo que creía que era la voluntad de Dios para ella.

Una Bendición para Corazones Firmes

Santo,
Ves el daño que estamos viviendo.
Ves el miedo que aprieta nuestro aliento
y el dolor que se instala en nuestros huesos.

No pedimos que nos perdonen del servicio.
Pedimos la fuerza para afrontarlo sin apartar la mirada.

Sujeta a los asustados.
Protege a quienes son objetivo.
Sostener a quienes resisten a gran coste.

Cuando nuestro valor se sienta escaso, recuérdanos que no estamos solos. Estamos con quienes nos precedieron—cuyos cuerpos llevaban las marcas de la injusticia, cuyas voces rompieron el silencio abierto, cuya fidelidad aún estabiliza el suelo bajo nuestros pies.

Danos claridad sin crueldad.
Resuelve sin desesperación.
Y la gracia de seguir eligiendo la dignidad, incluso cuando el miedo se acerca.

Amén.
