SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading

No one does he command to act unjustly,
 to none does he give license to sin.
 (Sir 15:20)

Psalm

Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord!
 (Ps 119)

Second Reading

Rather, we speak of God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God
 predetermined before the ages for our glory.
 (1 Cor 2:7)

Gospel

"I tell you, unless your righteousness
 surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees,
 you will not enter the kingdom of heaven."
 (Mt 5:20)

Welcome

A warm welcome to our parish family and visitors. We are happy that you are here. Please, call the parish office or visit www.sbcbrchurch.org (click on "Join Our Community") to register in the parish.

Charlie's Cafe
 FELLOWSHIP AT ITS BEST

Fellowship with other parishioners and visitors while having coffee or tea and enjoying a treat after mass. The Charlie's Café is open following 8 am mass and will continue to accommodate after the 10 am Mass concludes. Café closes at 1:30pm

To honor the significance of Black History Month, there will be no Parish Prayer Service on Zoom during February, starting February 1, 2026. This change is intended to allow everyone to participate in the enriching Black History Month masses and pilgrimages organized by the Cultural Diversity Apostolate. We encourage all to join these important celebrations. The Parish Prayer Service will return on Sunday, March 1, at 2 PM, and we look forward to seeing you then.

CHURCH SUPPORT: Thank you very much for your love and support for our parish. We are especially grateful to those who "make up" for their Sundays away from the Parish. Please, continue supporting our Parish by using the QR Code on the screen for live-streaming or on the front page of our Parish Bulletin.

Sainthood cause for Servant of God Thea Bowman moving forward, ceremony scheduled.

The Jackson Diocese will formally close the first phase of Bowman's canonization process in February, marking the beginning of the Roman phase.

NATE TINNER-WILLIAMS Black Catholic Messenger January 29, 2026
The Diocese of Jackson will soon hold a closing ceremony for the diocesan phase of the sainthood cause for Servant of God Thea Bowman, the Mississippi religious sister who helped lead the Black Catholic Movement.

Bishop Joseph Kopacz will celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving during Black History Month at the Cathedral of St. Peter the Apostle on Monday, Feb. 9, followed by official proceedings to mark the transition of the cause to the Roman Phase, which could soon see Bowman named “Venerable” by the pope.

The diocesan phase, which involves years of research and information gathering on the life and work of a sainthood candidate, was slightly behind schedule for Bowman. Diocesan archivist and chancellor Mary Woodward said in October 2024 that there were hopes the process would be completed last summer.

“We invite you to pray for the cause, especially for the historical commission, the theological censors, the transcribers, and the postulator as we continue to follow this unique and noble path,” Woodward wrote.

“And of course, ask SOG Sister Thea to guide us from above with patience and joy.”

In November of last year, Woodward shared that the diocesan phase was in its final stages, including the finalization of official biographical and other research that will be sent to Rome after the ceremony in February.

Bowman is one of seven African-Americans on the path to Catholic sainthood, and one of three currently at the first stage (which accords the title “Servant of God”). She died of cancer in 1990 at age 52 after serving in the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration since her early teens. A gifted orator, singer, writer, and academic, Bowman was influential in the fusion of African-American and Catholic liturgy during the 20th century and became internationally known for her anti-racist and pro-Black activism.

Bowman came under discussion for sainthood not long after her death, and her canonization cause was opened by Bishop Kopacz in 2018, receiving the approval of the U.S. bishops as a whole the same year. The last two stages of the process, beatification and canonization, allow for public devotion—including the recognition of holy relics, having a shrine with images, becoming the namesake of churches, and having official Masses associated with their veneration and feast day. To date, no Black American has been declared a Catholic “blessed” or saint.

Please, remember us with a bequest in your Will. The Parish of St Charles Borromeo, Resurrection and All Saints is our legacy to our children, our friends and our loved ones. Your thoughtfulness will help insure our future. Please, call the Rectory with questions about how to “word” your bequest.

Por favor, recuérdenos con un legado en su testamento. La Parroquia de San Carlos, Resurrección y Los Santos es nuestro legado para nuestros hijos, nuestros amigos y nuestros seres queridos. Su consideración ayudará a asegurar nuestro futuro. Llame a la rectoría si tiene preguntas sobre cómo “redactar” su legado.

ABSTINENCE FROM MEAT AND FASTING DURING LENT

The Bishops of the United States prescribe, as a minimal obligation, that all persons who are fourteen years of age and older are bound to abstain from eating meat on all the Fridays of Lent and Good Friday. Further, all persons eighteen years of age and older, up to and including their fifty-ninth birthday, are bound to fast by limiting themselves to a single full meal on Good Friday, while the other two meals on those days are to be light. Keeping a voluntary fast throughout Lent is encouraged on the part of all.

ABSTINENCIA DE CARNE Y AYUNO DURANTE LA CUARESMA

Los obispos de los Estados Unidos prescriben, como una obligación mínima, que todas las personas que tengan catorce años o más están obligadas a abstenerse de comer carne todos los viernes de Cuaresma y Viernes Santo. Además, todas las personas de dieciocho años o más, hasta los cincuenta y nueve años inclusive, están obligados a ayunar limitándose a una sola comida completa el Viernes Santo, mientras que las otras dos comidas en esos días deben ser ligeras. Se anima a todos a mantener un ayuno voluntario durante la Cuaresma.
