Keeping In Touch With Fr. Larry

Fathers are among the least praised and most important people in the world. They are often taken for granted and, like most necessities of a good life, fathers are only conspicuous when absent. Volumes of praise have been dedicated to motherhood's beauty and warmth. But how can one put into words all the feelings, the unspoken love, the quiet strength of fatherhood? What can be said to a good father?

A good Dad is different from a good Mother in many important ways. Between mother and child there is that unbreakable code which nearly guarantees love. No matter what a child may do or become, a mother's love is always there. A Father's love, though, asks something of the child. Certainly we expect some "just-because" love from our father, but beyond this he is the first person whose love and approval we can actually earn. A mother's love is a comfort because it cannot be lost, father's love is a treasure because it can be won.

What does a good father ask of his children? No more than they can give. He asks that they be themselves. He teaches them to do so by his own example. He asks them to respect others and shows them how by recognizing the worth of each person. He shows them how to be honest and kind, fair and gracious. He shows them how to be strong enough to cry, brave enough to take as well as to give.

A good father challenges his children to develop their unique gifts and not to be anyone's shadow. A good father sees his children as a gift of life to be cherished and nurtured but never possessed, to be loved and enjoyed but never used, to be gently sculpted and guided but never manipulated or broken. He joyfully returns them to life when adulthood comes. A good father does not see his child's youthful vigor as a threat to his own mellowing energies. Rather, he encourages, supports and comforts at every stage of life. He disciplines only in the name of teaching and with the firm gentleness of love.

What can one say to such a man, to be a father who is good, strong, loving and wise?

All the common expressions of words and gifts can never contain the feelings of a child for a dad. Sometimes silent ways are the most powerful: in our meeting eyes, our wrestling together, our quiet moments together.

Perhaps the best way to show a Dad how dear, how good, how irreplaceable he is, would be to live out the goodness and values he taught us and make them our own. This is your day. Enjoy it!

THE DAILY EXTRA

"Well, here is your problem," the doctor said to the first-time father. "It seems that this child needs a diaper change." The new father then replied, "But I swear, that package said it was good for 8 to 10 pounds."

*God's blessings

Welcome to summer vacation. We are all looking forward to "taking a break" from school and work, but we do not "take a break" from worshipping God. We still need to share God's Word and come to His Table.

So, we will still be coming together for Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) in the Chapel. However, during July and August, we will only be gathering during the 9:45AM Mass. Many of you are still staying with your families during CLOW. Please come join us, you will like it!!

Parents, encourage your child(ren) to join us for CLOW. Also, consider joining our ministry in the fall. Watch the bulletin for more updated information.

Altar Servers Needed

Even though summer is approaching and school is out, the need for altar servers is ongoing. This is a wonderful time to train to become a server. If you are interested in participating in this ministry, please contact Terry Gibbons, 586.615.7473. I will be happy to set up an appointment with you to get you started.

I encourage families to consider this ministry as the students are not able to drive themselves to church. You are able to chose the Masses that are workable for your family as well as the frequency of serving. Remember, the family who prays together, stays together. This is a spiritual bond that will stay with you through the future.

Please consider becoming a server or a family of servers. Men, women, and students, 4th grade and older, are welcome.

Looking forward to hearing from you,
Terry Gibbons

St. Therese of Lisieux Prayer List

Please keep in prayer those who are suffering physically. Prayer is an important part of our daily life. Our prayer list reflects those who are, somehow, woven into our parish community. However, it is important to be mindful of the fact that everyone needs prayer, daily, to be sustained in their needs.

Meditation

For a few moments, I think of God's veiled presence in things in the elements, giving them existence; in plants, giving them life; in animals, giving the sensation; and finally, in me, giving me all this and more, making me a temple, a dwelling-place of the Spirit.

- How does God's Word move me?
- Does it console me or move me to act in a new way?
- I imagine Jesus standing or sitting beside me, I turn and share my feelings with him.

Saints of the Week

Taken from, "Living With Christ"

June 22: St. Paulinus of Nola

Bishop (c. 353-431)

Born a noble in France, he married and was baptized and then moved to Spain. He became a priest, and they moved to Nola, where they lived a semi-monastic lifestyle and used their riches to help pilgrims and the poor. Paulinus was then named bishop of Nola. He was a friend and correspondent with other saints of his time: Ambrose, Augustine, Martin of Tours, and Jerome. May we also use our riches to help others and learn that "not riches, but our use of them, is what is blameworthy or acceptable to God."

June 22: St. John Fisher

Bishop & Martyr (c. 1469-1535)

A brilliant theologian, John was ordained, taught theology at Cambridge, and became bishop of Rochester. When King Henry VIII wanted to annul his marriage to Catherine of Aragon, John defended the queen. When John refused to sign the Act of Succession recognizing the king's divorce in opposition to Papal authority, the king imprisoned John for treason. When the pope made John a cardinal, the angry king had John beheaded. John's friend Thomas More said about him: "In this realm no one man, in wisdom, learning, and long approved virtue together, meet to be matched and compared with him."

June 22: St. Thomas More

Martyr (c. 1478-1535)

Thomas was a lawyer, a member of Parliament, a scholar, and a public official. He became Lord Chancellor but resigned after opposing the king's desire for a divorce. He retired from public life, but when he refused to accept Henry VIII's Act of Succession (see above), he was imprisoned. There he wrote letters of consolation to his family and other spiritual works. He was beheaded fourteen days after John Fisher. Like Thomas, may we learn to be "the king's good servant, but God's first."

June 24: The Nativity of St. John the Baptist

This is one of the earliest feasts to be celebrated on a particular day; June 24 was chosen to remind us that John was six months older than Jesus (Luke 1:26). Luke relates the various events surrounding his birth (Luke 1:5-80). Like John, may we learn that "he (Jesus) must increase, I must decrease."

June 27: St. Cyril of Alexandria

Bishop and Doctor of the Church (c. 376-444)

The archbishop of Alexandria, Cyril presided at the Council of Ephesus. He argued against Nestorius that the divine and human in Christ were so closely united that Mary was the mother of Jesus and the mother of God (Theotokos). The condemnation of Nestorius led to a schism that engaged Cyril until his death. May we recognize that "all of us are united with Christ inasmuch as we have received him who is one and indivisible in our bodies. Therefore we owe our service to him rather than to ourselves."

What are Prayer Requests?

Every Monday, at 2PM, everyone is welcome to pray the rosary. During the warmer months the rosary is prayed in the Rosary Garden, otherwise we meet in the church.

When praying the rosary, the participants pray for any special prayer request one may have. Examples of requests are: strength in finding a job, marital issues, guidance for children, etc.

The Prayer Intention Box is located by the tabernacle in the church. Forms are there to be filled out, then placed in the box.

All of us have a need for prayer on a regular basis and as Jesus said: "Where two or more are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst." Matthew 18:20

This gives each of us the spiritual strength we need in the crossroads of our lives.

What is the Prayer List?

Each week, we publish names in the bulletin for those in our parish who have a variety of health issues and would like to be prayed for. We also publish those who are serving our country by adding them to our military list.

To have a name entered on either list is a very simple process. In the Gathering Space is a table with forms to submit the names. Simply fill the form out and place it in the brown box. Each week the names will be collected and placed on the list. After three months, the name will be removed. If there is a need for the name to remain on, please fill out another form.

Please note: You MUST have permission from the individual you are placing in the paper. That is not the case for the military list. However, it is important that you include the branch of service.

Have a safe and blessed summer. Refreshments following the 8 & 9:45AM Masses will resume in October.

Prayers of the Week

Taken from, "Living With Christ"

Monday, June 22nd

Eternal Light, shine into our hearts. Eternal Goodness, deliver us from evil. Eternal Power, be our support. Eternal Wisdom, scatter the darkness of our ignorance. Eternal compassion, have mercy upon us, that we may seek your face and be brought by your infinite mercy into your holy presence. Amen
~ St. Alcuin of York

Tuesday, June 23rd

O holy Mary, into your blessed trust and custody, and into the care of your mercy, I commend my soul and my body. To you I commit all my anxieties and miseries, my life and the end of my life, that by your most holy intercession all my actions may be directed and disposed according to your will and that of your Son. Amen
~ St. Aloysius Gonzaga

Wednesday, June 24th

Divine Jesus, by my love I want to make you rejoice. I accept the trials of this exile to delight you and to console your heart. But change all my works to love, O my Beloved Savior. It's your love, Jesus, that I crave. It is your love that has to transform me. Put in my heart your consuming flame. Amen
~ St. Therese of Lisieux

Thursday, June 25th

From glory to glory advancing, we praise you, O Lord; your name with the Father and Spirit be ever adored. From strength unto strength we go forward on Zion's highway to appear before God in the city of infinite day. Thanksgiving, and glory and worship, and blessing and love, one heart and one song have the saints upon earth and above. Ever more to your servants your presence be nigh; ever fit us by service on earth for your service on high. Amen
~ Orthodox Liturgy of St. James

Friday, June 26th

O Lord our God, grant us grace to desire you with a whole heart, so that desiring you we may seek you with a whole heart and find you; and so finding you, may love you; and loving you, may hate those sins which separate us from you, for the sake of Jesus Christ. Amen
~ St. Anselm of Canterbury

Saturday, June 27th

Hail, Mary, mother of God, venerable treasure of the whole universe, lamp that is never extinguished, support of the true faith, dwelling of him whom no place can contain, O mother and virgin! Through you all the holy gospels call blessed the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Amen
~ St. Cyril of Alexandria

Sunday, June 28th

O God, send forth your Holy Spirit into my heart that I may perceive, into my mind that I may remember, and into my soul that I may meditate. Inspire me to speak with piety, holiness, tenderness, and mercy. Teach, guide, and direct my thoughts and senses from beginning to end. May your grace ever help and correct and strengthen me. Amen
~ St. Anthony of Padua

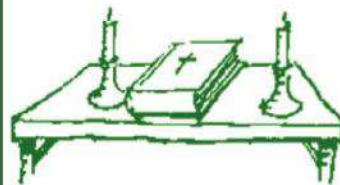

He Calls Each One of Us...

The Vocations Chalice and new Prayer Booklet is back! It has been updated with new prayers that cover all Vocations: Priesthood, Diaconate and Consecrated Life, Marriage and Family and Single Life.

Please find the time to take home the Chalice for one week and pray for each one of us, that we may be spiritually guided in our search to find our true calling in how we may best serve our Lord, Jesus Christ.

The sign up book is in the Gathering Space on the Offertory request ambo. This is a wonderful prayer opportunity for the entire family.

Did you know...?

Every Monday morning at 10:30AM, Fr. Larry or Fr. Matt celebrates Mass with the residents of the Shelby Nursing Center joined by some of our parishioners?

The residents are so grateful to be able to celebrate Mass with a priest. However, there is a need for a few more volunteers to help us greet the residents and parishioners, distribute the hymnals so we can sing to the accompaniment of Rosemarie Konczal on the piano. Mass is always more joyful when we sing.

So, "Come and See" if this ministry is for you. If you are interested, please leave your name and phone number at the desk in the Parish Office to the attention of Eleanor K.
