Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
Ez 34:11–12, 15–17
1 Cor 15:20–26, 28
Mt 25:31–46

DEAR HOLY PEOPLE OF GOD:

Today's gospel radically shows us how to relocate CHRIST as the KING of our hearts in this world of uncertainty, when he said:

> "I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me."

Jesus reveals to us "action words" that accelerate the disciples' evangelizing works, such as: "giving, welcoming, clothing, caring, and visiting". When you "give," you share God's blessings you received to others; when you "welcome" people, you stretch out your hands as an extension of your loving heart; when you "clothe" others, you shield others with respect and dignity; when you "care" for others, you become the bridge of God's love; and when you "visit" those in prison, you become a hope-giver.

Today, Christ the King Sunday, we are radically called by Jesus to exercise the following works of mercy to our brothers and sisters in our Church and community:

> "Feeding the Hungry" is not only giving food, but also feeding people's hunger for knowledge by volunteering to become catechists for the Religious Education Program of the parish, or feeding the hunger of people for love by lending our hearts to people's need of compassion.
> "Clothe the naked" is not only giving clothes, but also adopting a poor family by providing the basic necessities of life and the bare minimum of love, compassion, mercy and kindness.
> "Welcoming strangers" is not only accepting immigrants, but also by helping at a shelter for the troubled, by teaching children to accept people of all colors and cultures; or better yet provide the immigrants with a place they can call "home."
> "Visiting the sick" is not only limited to going to hospital or nursing homes, but by helping people who suffer substance abuse or listening to a friend who is depressed.

Actively doing the above ministries in our times, I believe that it is possible for us to build the kingdom that Jesus envisions:

> a "Church where no one is so poor as to have nothing to give, and a Church where no one is so rich as to have nothing to receive."

Let this mission begin at the table of the Eucharist, as Jesus – the king of kings, invites us:

> "Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."

God bless you all!
