Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

AUGUST 4, 2019

Dear HOLY PEOPLE of God:

Reflect on what the rich man said in the gospel's parable, and carefully listen with the ears of your heart to the respond of God to him:

> "I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, 'Now, as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink and be merry.'" And God said to him, "You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you…"

Jesus' warning is a reminder for us about the importance of proper priorities regarding our possessions. He's not saying that possessions and wealth are bad, but the endless appetite to accumulate wealth will ultimately make us greedy!

Greed is a complex conundrum! Spiritual writers tell us that, "possession of money is not the ultimate problem; what matters most is one's disposition, desires and attitude. The renunciation of money is an outward sign of the more important inward struggle."

So, let us not place the blame on what we possess and on our wealth, but on our corrupt mind and greedy heart. It's possible to be rich, but not to be controlled by greed. The following are, perhaps, the reasons why Jesus called the rich man a "FOOL."

> Psalm 14:1 says, "The fool says in his heart, 'There is no God." The fool's god is his possessions. With a greedy heart he fails to see God in others, especially those in need. He has a closed heart; his world revolves around his wealth. His heart is devoid of love; it's only a love of self. He only trust himself – nothing more, and no one else.

Nowadays, alarmed with the erosion of Christian values caused by people's greed, Jesus warns us with these words: "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich; one's life does not consist of possessions." Remember: generosity is not measured by the "giver's wallet" but it's designed by the "giver's loving heart." God is not saying, "What's in your wallet," but he is asking, "What's in your heart?"

Today is Diocesan Development Fund (DDF) Sunday. We have a Second Collection for the DDF. Yet again, I request you, please be generous to the DDF - not because you have not done enough already but because you have enough to share, not because you have money to waste but because you are so generous and with a loving heart.

"From the heart it has come, to the heart it shall go!"
(From Beethoven's inscription on his Mass)

God Bless you!

Rachel's Vineyard

Healing the trauma of abortion, one weekend at a time

HEALING BROKEN HEARTS- ONE WEEKEND AT A TIME.

Helen Keller once said: "Your success and happiness lies in you. Resolve to keep happy, and your joy and you, shall form an invincible host against difficulties." Sometimes situations and decisions from the past can make us feel disconnected and alone. If you have emotional or spiritual wounds as a result of a past abortion, consider attending our upcoming English-speaking Rachel's Vineyard Weekend Retreat September 6th through September 8th.

It's an opportunity for women and men to experience God's love and mercy as He touches each wound with his healing grace. Lives are restored and peace is found. Participation is strictly confidential.

VANITY of VANITIES

In today's first reading from Ecclesiastes, we hear that the pursuit of worldly riches is vanity because in the end we have to let them all go. We can spend our whole lives acquiring things, but at the end of our lives everything for which we have worked so hard goes to another who hasn't worked for it. This Old Testament reading sets us up for the Gospel reading from Luke, which begins when a man comes to Jesus complaining that his brother hasn't divided the inheritance equally with him.

Against this backdrop, Jesus gives us the divine perspective on wealth by telling the story of a wealthy man who has a crop so big it doesn't fit into his barns. His solution is to tear everything down and build bigger barns so he can store up this great abundance of wealth. But God comes to the rich man and tells him that he will die that very night—and not be able to enjoy this wealth that he has stored up for himself. Jesus ends the story by telling his listeners that this is how it will be for everyone who stores up treasures for himself rather than being rich in what matters to God.

The message here is an emphasis on what really lasts. Acquiring wealth is vanity if we acquire it just for ourselves since nothing we build or save up in this world will last forever. But Jesus tells us that there are things we can do in this life that will have eternal significance. If the man in the Gospel reading had distributed his extra wealth to the needy, he would have had treasure in heaven. So Jesus is asking us whether, in our saving and our success, we are focusing on earthly success or investing in that which will have an eternal reward.

DIGGING DEEPPER FOR DISCUSION

FORMED members can watch the short "Opening the Word " VIDEO free at sptacc.formed.org

With friends or Family, please discuss the following questions:

- Why is it vain to try to acquire riches for ourselves?
- How can we turn the pursuit of riches into a quest for an eternal reward?
- The presenter, Tim Gray, mentions that in Isaiah 22:13 the exhortation to "eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow we die" is the slogan of the wicked. In what ways do we see this same theme in today's world? As Christians, how ought we respond to the lure of this world's riches and pleasures?

PRAYER: Before we enter into the scene in the Gospel passage, take a moment to think about your possessions. Which ones are most precious to you? Which ones are nice but not that important? Which ones do you feel you absolutely could not do without? Now imagine that you are the rich man in the parable in today's Gospel reading. What are your "grain" and "goods"? Are you building bigger barns to store your treasure? If God told you that this very night your life would be demanded of you, how would you view all your possessions and all your hard work to acquire them? Finally, consider Jesus' words, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." What feelings do his words stir in you? Is he warning you against some particular manifestation of greed in your life?

RESOLUTION: Admit to yourself in the privacy of your journal an area where you might be tempted to either store up earthly treasure or be greedy. Choose one small action that you can do this week to combat this temptation to greed (or the habit of greed) in your life.

We encourage you to take notes as you reflect this weekend's readings/homily

El autor del libro de Eclesiastés, se llama así mismo Qohélet (o maestro), dibuja una imagen alarmante del valor de la vida y esfuerzos humanos. "Todo es vanidad" sugiere que todo lo que hacemos es temporal, frágil y quizá insignificante; Qohélet explora las preguntas extensas acerca de la vida con una honestidad contundente y rechaza respuestas superficiales. Así como el libro de los Salmos y en el libro de Job, se hace eco al anhelo universal humano por claridad y confianza. Las reflexiones del libro del Eclesiastés, aunque oscuro e insinuante en la desesperación, nos recuerda que la vida permanece misteriosa y más allá de todo entendimiento.

La respuesta del Salmo de hoy ofrece una respuesta de fe a las luchas presentadas en el libro del Eclesiastés. La desesperación puede poner un velo ante nuestros ojos, ocultándonos el amor de Dios. Dios no nos da todas las respuestas. Pero Dios ofrece un significado, el único significado verdadero y eterno para nuestros trabajos y nuestras vidas. Cuando es necesario, podemos aceptar y vivir en las limitaciones de la vida, en lugar de buscar desafiarlas o escapar de ellas. Nuestras debilidades y fugacidad pueden abrirnos hacia una relación amorosa con Dios infinito y eterno.

LA RIQUEZA Y LA IDOLATRIA

Hoy en la lectura del Evangelio de Lucas, Jesús vívidamente demuestra su preocupación acerca de los peligros de la riqueza en la parábola del rico insensato. El problema no es ahorrar para el futuro. El problema se revela en el lenguaje de ensimismamiento del hombre rico. Él parece creer que puede asegurar su futuro acumulando su riqueza y posesiones. Eso es una forma de idolatría.

Parte de cómo decidimos lo que le da significado a la vida, es decidiendo a quién o a qué servir. ¿Quién o qué reclama nuestra energía principal y mejores esfuerzos? La idolatría coloca nuestra confianza principal en algo imaginado o creado, en lugar de Dios. La idolatría es un tema central de discusión a lo largo de las Escrituras, y la idolatría de la riqueza no es un peligro menor en nuestro tiempo contemporáneo que en los antiguos días.
