OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Faith Community, Baptized into Jesus Christ, formed by Word and Sacrament, and Empowered by the guidance of the Holy Spirit, Seek to be a visible sign of God's love. We seek to build the Kingdom of God by: Using our unique gifts to minister to one another, Welcoming all and caring for those in need, Teaching our faith to others and Uniting in worship as a family with the Body of Christ.

One of the lepers, realizing he had been healed,
returned, glorifying God
in a loud voice.

LUKE 17:15

Dear Holy Pilgrims:

Fellow pilgrims, today's gospel talks about leprosy. It's a disease that is so frightening during the time of Jesus. If you were stricken with leprosy then, these were the treatments of society towards you: you're thrown out from your community and family; you're judged as a sinner; you're ostracized and discriminated. And the outcome is dehumanizing because you become: a person with a name but living like a shadow; a person that's breathing but devoid of life; and a person with identity but empty of dignity.

Ten lepers suffered deeply and painfully the humiliating labels thrown out to them by the people during the time of Jesus. But Jesus cured them. Jesus' healing grace brought back to normal their disfigured faces and dignity, and they overcame the sting of disgrace and dishonor.

However, the nine cured lepers did not recognize the God who healed them. Their hearts were devoid of gratitude. They became ungrateful! On the other hand, a Samaritan, a pagan, returned because he knew very well that the healing he received was from Jesus. He fell at the feet of Jesus glorifying and praising him. Jesus said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you." (LK 17:19) The Samaritan's action is gratitude at its best.

But today, this excellent value is slowly vanishing from our Christian identity. Sometimes, we're like the nine lepers. We received so many blessings from God, yet, as if Alzheimer's disease deactivated our mind and we forget to say "THANK YOU." And seldom that we follow the example of the Samaritan. How ungrateful Christians we become!

Today, in this Eucharistic table, Jesus welcomes and embraces us, not as lepers anymore but as his brothers and sisters. He carries us in his heart, not with a curse but with love. Let's render a blazing "Thank You" to Jesus, once and for all!

Starting now, let's show to God that we're a generation of gratitude. Let's remember what gratitude can do to us: it "unlocks the fullness of life. It turns what we have into enough, and more. It turns denial into acceptance, chaos to order, confusion to clarity. It can turn a meal into a feast, a house into a home, a stranger into a friend." (Melody Beattie)

Blessings,

Fr. Romy Seleccion, MS,
Pastor

We've all heard the saying "Have an attitude of gratitude." For Christians, this is more than a greeting card saying; it is a basic command of Christian life. The theme of gratitude underlies this week's Gospel reading that tells of ten lepers who were healed by Jesus. In the reading, ten lepers earnestly long for healing since leprosy was one of the great curses of their time, causing those who suffered from the disease to live apart from family and friends. All ten turned to Jesus in faith with their request. However, after they are healed, only one of the ten returns to thank him for answering their prayer.

While Jesus makes it clear that it was the man's faith that healed him, the story has another lesson as well. Although we must begin our prayer requests in faith, they should end in gratitude. All too often, we are quick to make requests, but slow to return in thankful prayer. Like the nine lepers who did not come back, we neglect to express our thanks to God when our prayers are answered. However, thankfulness is a hallmark of a true disciple. As 1 Thessalonians 5:18 says, “In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.”

GIVING THANKS

Meister Eckhart, a medieval mystic, once said, "If the only prayer you ever say in your entire life is thank you, it will be enough." How often do you remember to say "thank you" to God?

DIGGING DEEPPER FOR DISCUSSION

FORMED members can watch the short “Opening the Word” VIDEO free at sptacc.formed.org

Reflect on these following questions with a friend or family:

- What are some of the characteristics shared by the ten lepers? From the details in the passage, describe the one leper who returned to thank Jesus.
- Leprosy was one of the biggest social stigmas of Jesus' time. Lepers were not allowed to live in society, but had to live apart. They could not participate in the worship of God in the Temple, as they were unclean; they had to announce their presence by shouting, "unclean, unclean!" What are some examples of modern-day lepers? How do our fears cause us to treat certain people or groups of people without the dignity that they deserve? What does Jesus' behavior teach us?

PRAY: Imagine that you are the one leper who returned to thank Jesus. As you were journeying toward the priest, you look down at your hands and realize that you have been healed. Your entire body has been restored to health! Even though you are anxious to be restored to the community, you cannot go on without returning to thank Jesus, the one who has done this great act for you. Take a few minutes to put yourself in that leper's place. What would you have been thinking or feeling at the different stages of this story: when you first asked Jesus to heal you; when you later realized on your way to the priest that you were actually healed; as you were on the way to thank Jesus; and as you fell at his feet in gratitude. Pray today that God will give you this same type of joy, gratitude, and desire to thank Jesus for the great things he has done for you in your life?

RESOLUTION: Compose a prayer of thanksgiving to God. It doesn't need to be long but it should be from the heart. Pray it often throughout the day?

Reflections reprinted here with permission from Augustine Institute.

We encourage you to take notes as you reflect this weekend's readings/homily

Uno de diez leprosos, al ver que estaba curado, regresó, alabando a Dios en voz alta.

Hace ya varios años que muchas personas empezaron la costumbre de escribir un diario de agradecimiento. Algunas veces, el dueño de ese diario utiliza un libro que incluye indicaciones que van guiando la reflexión de quien va escribiendo. Otras personas simplemente escriben una lista o breve reflexión al final del día o la semana, reconociendo las muchas cosas por las cuales están agradecidas. El hecho de buscar las bendiciones de la vida crea el hábito de la atención. Vemos aquello que buscamos. Cuando buscamos por cosas por las cuales estar agradecido, nos damos cuenta que estamos rodeados de muchas bendiciones. Esta no es solo una práctica buena para nuestra salud mental y bienestar. Reconociendo nuestras bendiciones y creciendo en agradecimiento por ellas es una práctica profundamente espiritual, por medio de la cual nos ponemos atentos a la presencia de Dios y su intervención en nuestras vidas. El agradecimiento verdaderamente puede ser un cambio de vida para nosotros. Al ir creciendo en el agradecimiento, vemos al mundo por medio de la perspectiva de la abundancia en lugar de la escasez. Sin el hábito del agradecimiento, damos las cosas por hecho.

Estamos atrapados en un círculo infinito de querer más, en lugar de ver todo aquello que tenemos.

UNO O UNO DE LOS NUEVE

Naamán y el leproso también comprendieron que su fe agradecida debía guiarlos a responder en alabanza y hacer un cambio en sus vidas. Naamán prometió poner su fe en el Señor; el leproso regresó, glorificando a Dios y agradeciendo a Jesús. Sin embargo, no todos respondieron con una alabanza de agradecimiento. El leproso que regresó fue uno de los diez. Los otros nueve se fueron alegres, felices de haber sido sanados, pero fallando en reconocer o expresar su agradecimiento a quien los sanó. ¿Eres tú uno, como Naamán y el leproso que regresó a Jesús, cuyo agradecimiento te lleva a la fe y a una vida llena de fe? ¿O eres como uno de los nueve, que da por hecho los dones y las bendiciones que te rodean? ¿De qué es de lo que estás agradecido? ¿Cuál es tu respuesta fiel y llena de fe?
