SECOND SUNDAY OF
Easter
(OR SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY)
APRIL 19, 2020

DEAR EASTER PEOPLE OF GOD:

On this second Sunday of Easter and also Divine Mercy Sunday, when many countries around the world are threatened by the Coronavirus-19 (COVID-19) and people are living in constant fear and anxiety, the gospel today handed to us the divine consolation with this greeting of Jesus to his disciples:

"Peace be with you!" The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. And he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit!"

When Jesus said, "Receive the Holy Spirit," He is recreating our hearts to become the temple of the Holy Spirit, and assuring us that we are not forgotten. The Holy Spirit is the "breath" of love that will shield us from fear. The Holy Spirit is the "breath" of stillness that calms our troubled hearts. The Holy is the breath of serenity that erases our anxieties.

The Holy Spirit is the timely divine gift for us to have the strength to face the COVID-19 squarely. No retreat, no surrender – because God is on our side.

COVID-19 destroys life, but the "breath of new life" - the Holy Spirit, will move chaos of our lives into new creation. The Holy Spirit is the promise of hope and better tomorrow. He is the "faithful-presence" of God in our daily lives.

Remember, "we come from a glorious Creator. We come from the loving heart of God." A love that never dies; a love that remembers us forever; a love that promises: "I will be with you until the end of time!"

Dear Holy Easter people of the Risen Christ, let us make this EASTER SEASON a season of new beginnings, a season of new life. Let this paraphrased prayer of the prophet Isaiah be a constant song in our hearts and daily prayer in our lips during this challenging times:

"Do not fear, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by name, you are mine.
When you are infected with COVID-19, I will be with you;
when you walk through the pains of this pandemic,
you shall not fear, my overflowing love will heal you...
Because you are precious in my sight,
and I love you." (Isaiah 43:1-2,4)

EASTER BLESSINGS!

"Have you come to believe because you have seen me?
Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

SAINT ANSELM
(1033 - 1109) - APRIL 21

For anyone disheartened at how easily contemporary discussions of disputed church-state issues escalate from civil discourse to shrill polemic, Anselm provides perspective. Grounded in the Benedictine Rule's balanced "prayer and work," this monk-scholar, called from his abbey to become Archbishop of Canterbury, was thrust into firestorms of political intrigue, himself the target of warring bishops and nobles, kings and popes. Yet from depths of inner peace, Anselm wrote this moving exhortation by which today's Liturgy of the Hours celebrates him: "Rise up, insignificant man! From your preoccupations, flee a while. From your turbulent thoughts, hide for a time. Your crushing responsibilities cast aside. Your burdensome business lay down. Free a little space for God. Rest a little while in him!" "Faith seeking understanding" was his strikingly contemporary motto; and though renowned as an erudite philosopher-theologian, Anselm also left personal letters, profound for their insights on Christian friendship. Along with those, he composed "A Prayer for My Friends" and "A Prayer for My Enemies," reminding us that those who love God most passionately are also those who love others most humanly.

DIOCESE OF SAN BERNARDINO

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

April 2, 2020

MESSAGE OF APPRECIATION, HOPE AND ENCOURAGEMENT TO THE HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS FROM THE BISHOP OF THE SAN BERNARDINO DIOCESE, THE MOST REVEREND GERALD R. BARNES

During this time of uncertainty and anxiety, when the world is besieged with pain, fear, worries and the loss of beloved ones to COVID-19, a time when the groanings of those dying from medical challenges fill the healthcare facilities, tears freely flowing down faces of the bereaved, family members huddling together in fear for their lives, people helplessly wondering who the next victim will be, you, the healthcare providers remain at your duty posts to accompany, care and assist in these scary and at times, hopeless circumstances.

For these and many more, I am profoundly grateful to all of you for the work you do. You remain compassionate, kind and present to the sick and dying. I know many of you go beyond the call of duty to bring comfort and relief to those who are dying, lonely and in need of solace. You are the faces of Jesus to the sick and dying, sharing the love of God and spreading the good news of God's kingdom without words but through your actions.

As COVID-19 continues to spread, causing untold fear, pain and sorrow to so many people in our Country, and in the whole world, I know the healthcare workers are there in the frontline, fighting this battle with the novel Corona virus, even at the risk to their own lives. Many of you have been infected because you remain in the frontline assisting other people, to save their lives, many of you who are healthy today also fear for your own lives. I know this could pose a huge mental health challenge to all of you because we know, you too are human, just like anyone else.

As the Chief Shepherd of the Diocese of San Bernardino and in prayerful union with the people of this diocese, I want to assure you of our prayers for you. I need you to know that we appreciate your efforts, sacrifices and courage while you are out there taking care of the sick and dying.

I commend you all to the protection of Our Lady of Guadalupe, and St. Bernadine of Sienna, the patroness and patron saint of the Diocese of San Bernardino. May our Almighty God of mercy and love continue to bless and provide for all your needs.

Yours in Christ,

+ Gerald R. Barnes

PEACE & MERCY

The Second Sunday after Easter is designated Divine Mercy Sunday.

It's a recent feast in the Church, instituted in 2000 by Pope St. John Paul II. He felt that immediately after Easter, while the Paschal mysteries were fresh in our hearts, we needed an opportunity to reflect more deeply on God's great mercy manifested in the Resurrection.

So how does this feast fit with the Gospel reading of Jesus's appearance in the Upper Room? When the reading begins, the disciples are hiding in fear for their lives, certain that the officials would be coming to get them just as they came for Jesus.

Compounding their fear is the recognition that they had abandoned Jesus in his hour of greatest need. They are scared, disgraced, and guilty. At that very moment, who should enter into their sorrow and shame but Jesus himself. Jesus comes, despite the locked doors, to stand in their midst, offering them both peace and mercy. In addition, he tells them that through the power of the Holy © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Spirit, they, too, will have the ability to extend mercy by forgiving sins.

Today, through our priests who have been ordained in apostolic succession, we, too, can receive mercy and forgiveness. All we need to do is repent and trust in the mercy of God. Indeed, today's feast invites us to trust that no matter what wrong we may have done, Jesus loves us and wants us to experience his mercy. That's why one simple prayer associated with Divine Mercy devotion sums up the confidence we should have in Christ's mercy: "Jesus, I trust in you."

DIGGING DEEPER FOR DISCUSSION FORMED members can watch the short "Opening the Word" VIDEO free at sptacc.formed.org

Reflect on these following questions with a friend or family:

In the video, the presenter, Jules Miles, explains how and why Pope St. John Paul II designed this Sunday as Divine Mercy Sunday...

- What did she say about this feast?
- What does Jesus say when he comes into the midst of the Apostles in the locked room? What is the significant of these words?

PRAYER: Imagine you are in the closed room with the other disciples hiding in fear early on that first Easter Sunday. The door is bolted but suddenly Jesus is standing right before you and says, "Peace be with you." How do you envision the other Apostles responding to Christ's appearance? How might you respond?

RESOLUTION: If we are to have the peace Jesus wants for us, we must learn to trust in his mercy and goodness. Consider one area in your life where you lack peace. How can you increase your peace by increasing your trust? As you contemplate this, pray, "Jesus, I trust in you."

We encourage you to take notes as you reflect on this week readings / homily

SEGUNDO
DOMINGO DE
Pascua

Se presentó Jesús en medio de ellos y les dijo: “La paz esté con ustedes”.

Muchos de nosotros hemos tenido la desdicha de habernos perdido algo importante simplemente por haber estado ausente y luego escuchar acerca de lo que pasó. En las lecturas de hoy, solo lo menciona el Evangelio de Juan, Tomás es el único apóstol que no estuvo en el lugar cuando Jesús se les apareció a sus amigos la primera vez después de su muerte y resurrección. Tenían miedo y estaban de luto, sin saber que les pasaría. Recuerda, se sabían que eran fugitivos, aparentemente culpables por estar asociados con un criminal ejecutado por oficiales del gobierno romano. De repente, Jesús estaba con ellos, irradiando paz y misericordia a sus seguidores frágiles. ¡Qué alegría! ¡Qué asombro!

Nunca sabremos porqué Tomás había salido de ese escondite. Todo lo que sabemos es que regresó para escuchar una historia disparatada acerca de Jesús, que estaba vivo después de una muerte brutal. Debió de haber pensado que los otros apóstoles en su duelo tuvieron un delirio colectivo de lo que ellos deseaban fuera verdad. Cuando Tomás finalmente vio a Jesús, él da lo que es considerado la profesión más profunda de fe: “¡Señor mío y Dios mío!” En su tierna misericordia, Jesús sirvió a Tomás al ayudarle a verlo por él mismo.

CAMINAR CON FE

¿Pero qué hay de nosotros? La comunidad cristiana primitiva pudo solamente confiar en las palabras de estos mismos apóstoles, aquellos a quienes Tomás no podría creerles, cuando ellos predicaron a un Jesús resucitado de la muerte. ¿Quién podría creer lo que ellos decían? El Espíritu Santo sopló sobre los discípulos en ese primer encuentro, emanado tan poderosamente de ellos que pudieron reunir aparentemente comunidades utópicas de fe. Llenos con “la divina misericordia” sus vidas se hicieron una evangelización al mundo.

Y así es cómo nosotros también somos enviados, como los discípulos, llenos con el Espíritu Santo y llevando la paz del Señor y misericordia a un mundo que sufre y que tiene dificultades. Las heridas de Jesús son tan reales hoy con los necesitados y rotos. Que nosotros siempre trabajemos para unir esas heridas donde quiera que nos encontremos.
