PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Faith Community, Baptized into Jesus Christ, formed by Word and Sacrament, and Empowered by the guidance of the Holy Spirit, Seek to be a visible sign of God's love. We seek to build the Kingdom of God by: Using our unique gifts to minister to one another, Welcoming all and caring for those in need, Teaching our faith to others and Uniting in worship as a family with the Body of Christ.

Dear St. Paul Family and Friends,

Every year, Pope Francis releases a message for Lenten Season. His message this year focuses on the Transfiguration event, which incidentally is the Gospel this weekend. I find it appropriate to share an abbreviated version for our reflection. For the full message, please visit the Vatican website.

The Gospel of the Transfiguration is proclaimed every year on the Second Sunday of Lent. During this liturgical season, the Lord takes us with him to a place apart. While our ordinary commitments compel us to remain in our usual places and our often repetitive and sometimes boring routines, during Lent we are invited to ascend "a high mountain" in the company of Jesus and to live a particular experience of spiritual discipline – asceticism – as God's holy people.

Lenten penance is a commitment, sustained by grace, to overcoming our lack of faith and our resistance to following Jesus on the way of the cross. This is precisely what Peter and the other disciples needed to do. To deepen our knowledge of the Master, to fully understand and embrace the mystery of his salvation, accomplished in total self-giving inspired by love, we must allow ourselves to be taken aside by him and to detach ourselves from mediocrity and vanity. We need to set out on the journey, an uphill path that, like a mountain trek, requires effort, sacrifice and concentration.

At the end of their ascent, as they stand on the mountain heights with Jesus, the three disciples are given the grace of seeing him in his glory, resplendent in supernatural light. That light did not come from without, but radiated from the Lord himself. The divine beauty of this vision was incomparably greater than all the efforts the disciples had made in the ascent of Tabor. During any strenuous mountain trek, we must keep our eyes firmly fixed on the path; yet the panorama that opens up at the end amazes us and rewards us by its grandeur.

MARCH 5, 2023
2ND SUNDAY
OF LENT

"This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." - Mt 17:5b

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

I would like to propose two "paths" to follow in order to ascend the mountain together with Jesus and, with him, to attain the goal. The first path has to do with the command that God the Father addresses to the disciples on Mount Tabor. The voice from the cloud says: "Listen to him" (Mt 17:5). The first proposal, then, is very clear: we need to listen to Jesus.

On hearing the Father's voice, the disciples "fell prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, 'Rise, and do not be afraid.'" (Mt 17:6-7). Here is the second proposal for this Lent: do not take refuge in a religiosity made up of extraordinary events and dramatic experiences, out of fear of facing reality and its daily struggles, its hardships and contradictions. The light that Jesus shows the disciples is an anticipation of Easter glory, and that must be the goal of our own journey. Lent leads to Easter: the "retreat" is not an end in itself, but a means of preparing us to experience the Lord's passion and cross with faith, hope and love, and thus to arrive at the resurrection.

My name is Rev. Uche Onyekwelu. I am a priest of the Catholic Diocese of Aba, Nigeria. I come from a lovely family of seven in the South-Eastern part of Nigeria. Led by God's grace, I grew up imbibing faith, morals, and dedication to work from my parents, siblings, and community. I graduated with a B.Phil. in Philosophy and a B.D. in Theology from the Pontifical Urban University, Rome, Italy. I was ordained a priest on November 19, 2011.

After some years of pastoral ministries, my bishop sent me to the U.S for further education in 2015. Since then, I was residing as a student in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and doing some pastoral ministries therein. I'm still a student completing a required clinical training towards my graduate degree in Clinical Psychology.

I am honored to assist with some pastoral ministries for the beautiful family of St. Paul the Apostle Parish, to serve you, accompany you, pray with you, learn with you, grow with you and make heaven with you on the last day.

Thank you for having me here. I extend my gratitude to Fr. Joseph, Fr. Michael and Fr. Mahka for being nice, supportive, accommodating and loving brothers.

Through the intercession of our Blessed Mother Mary, may we all be successful in our families and in our parish.
Amen.

Healing in the Sacrament of Reconciliation

Jesus Christ, in His abundant love and mercy, established the Sacrament of Confession, so that we as sinners can obtain forgiveness for our sins and reconcile with God and the Church. Fr. Joseph will make real for us the grace and healing we receive through this most beautiful sacrament.

Do you know someone who has left the Church? As practicing Catholics we have a precious gift of faith and love from the Lord that needs to be shared with our non-practicing brothers and sisters. In addition to praying for them, we should extend a personal invitation to them to come home to the Catholic Church. Here at St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church we are reestablishing a ministry called Catholics Returning Home which welcomes back our non-practicing brothers and sisters.

This 6-week series will begin on Wednesday, April 19th from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the Resource Room. Please pass this invitation to all who might be interested.

If you could see Jesus in heaven today, what would you talk about? What would you ask him?

GROWING WITH THE Gospel

CYCLE A

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

2nd Sunday of Lent • Matthew 17:1-9

DRAW

Draw a picture of what you think heaven might look like.

GOSPEL

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus showed his closest friends - Peter, James, and John - what heaven would be like. Jesus' friends were amazed to see Moses and Elijah talking to Jesus. Moses and Elijah had gone to heaven hundreds of years before this day. Then Peter, James and John heard God's voice from the cloud. Jesus, their friend and teacher, was God's Son. They fell down in fear. You might, too, if you were there.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for showing Jesus' friends what heaven would be like.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA (GOSPEL MEDITATIONS)

“Recuerda, Señor, que tu ternura y tu misericordia son eternas y no permitas que nos derrote el enemigo” (Salmo 24,6). La Transfiguración del Señor, iluminación para la esperanza. Luminosidad que da vida e ilumina para ver el camino hacia el futuro, se transfiguró delante de ellos, no puede existir la duda de su identidad. “Este es mi Hijo, el Amado; éste es mi Elegido, escúchenlo” (Mateo 17,5). A partir de la Transfiguración ya no existe la oscuridad. Por muy oscuro que sea el hoy, mañana será lleno de luz, será el día de Dios.

Escuchar al Hijo es asumir como propia su historia, su cruz y su resurrección. ¿Cómo asumo su mensaje? ¿Su Evangelio? El reto, de este II Domingo de Cuaresma, es buscar, ver y elegir dónde escucho a Dios hoy. Su voz clama en el desierto, lugar donde cruza el inmigrante, su voz se escucha en los ancianos y niños desamparados. Y qué decir de las personas que mueren a causa de la violencia en las escuelas, desfiles y supermercados. Ahí, precisamente, está la voz de Dios. No la ignoremos y respondamos de acuerdo a nuestras posibilidades. En esta semana, somos invitados a contemplar el amor de Dios en los que nos rodean. Como los discípulos, bajemos de la contemplación a la acción, pero antes, contemplemos el amor de Dios en el silencio y la fidelidad a lo experimentado. “No hablen a nadie de esta visión hasta que el Hijo del Hombre haya resucitado de entre los muertos” (Mateo 17:9).

However, before we can help others, we need to help ourselves through the grieving process.

The program will take place on 5 Wednesdays beginning March 1st and continuing through March 29th at St. Thomas the Apostle Church in Riverside. Our morning session starts at 10:00 a.m. and then our evening session starts at 6:00 p.m. Each session lasts approximately two hours.

If you are interested in meeting with this group, contact Valerie Doran at St. Thomas Church at (951) 689-1131. A one-time fee of $35 is requested to cover the cost of handout materials.
