PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the people of St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Faith Community, Baptized into Jesus Christ, formed by Word and Sacrament, and Empowered by the guidance of the Holy Spirit, Seek to be a visible sign of God's love. We seek to build the Kingdom of God by: Using our unique gifts to minister to one another, Welcoming all and caring for those in need, Teaching our faith to others and Uniting in worship as a family with the Body of Christ.

Dear Family and Friends,

The annual observance of Religious Freedom Week takes place on June 22nd to the 29th, beginning with the feast day of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher and ending with the feast of Sts. Peter and Paul. Religious freedom allows the Church, and all religious communities, to live out their faith in public and to serve the good of all.

Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher contributed to the humanist scholarship of early modern England. More wrote theological and philosophical treatises, while making a career as a lawyer and government official. Bishop John Fisher worked as an administrator at Cambridge, confronted the challenge Martin Luther presented to Christian Europe, and most importantly served as Bishop of Rochester. As a bishop, he is notable for his dedication to preaching at a time when bishops tended to focus on politics.

Above all, these men bore witness to a deep faith in Christ and his Church. More considered joining religious life and was assiduous in his devotional practices. As a married man, he committed himself wholly to his vocation as a father. At the time, disciplinary practices with children tended to be severe, but More's children testify to his warmth, patience, and generosity. St. John Fisher was a model shepherd and demonstrated remarkable humility. He remained in the small Diocese of Rochester his entire episcopal ministry, devoting himself to his local church rather than seeking promotion to a larger, more powerful diocese.

More and Fisher are well-known for opposing King Henry's divorce. Ultimately, it was their refusal to sign an oath of supremacy that led them to be executed. King Henry VIII claimed to be the supreme head of the Church in England, asserting sovereign power over English Christians. Neither Fisher nor More could abide this claim, and their steadfastness to their consciences put them in conflict with the king. They were convicted of treason.

It is good to love one's country, but ultimate loyalty is due only to Christ and his kingdom. Sts. Thomas More

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows." - Mt 10:31

Excerpt from the Lectionary for Mass ©2007, 1998, 1979 CCC and John Fisher show us what faithful citizenship looks like. They loved and served their country. In the moments just before his execution, more is said to have stated, "I die the King's good servant, but God's first." They never rose up to incite rebellion or foment revolution. They were no traitors. But when the law of the king came into conflict with the law of Christ, they submitted to Christ. These men gave their lives for the freedom of the Church and for freedom of conscience. They bear witness to the truth that no government can make a claim on a person's soul. May their example continue to illuminate the path for us, as we seek to faithfully serve our Church and country.

We ask for the intercession of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, that we too would be good servants to our country, but God's first! (usccb.org)

ANointing OF THE SICK

Who can receive the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick?

CCC 1514 The Anointing of the Sick "is not a Sacrament for those only who are at the point of death. Hence as soon as anyone of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for them to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived."

Join us for First Friday Mass, July 7th at 7:00 p.m. with Anointing of the Sick at the end of Mass.

Counting the hairs on your head can get tiresome and confusing. However, God knows exactly how many you have. Your body works on its own. You do not have to tell your heart to beat or your lungs to fill with air. Every day your body needs exercise to make all parts work well. Every day your soul needs pray-er-cise or talking with God. MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

En algún momento de nuestra vida nos llegan problemas y dificultades. Porque la vida no es fácil; y ser cristiano mucho menos. Aceptar el compromiso como bautizados, ser fieles y leales a Jesús no es tarea fácil. Ser padres comprometidos con los hijos cuesta, ser buen trabajador y un estudiante que dé al cien implica darlo todo. La nueva cultura de la tecnología tan avanzada a veces hace sentir que estamos solos, que vamos contracorriente, si no tenemos lo último de la moda. Sin embargo, el Evangelio nos invita a tener confianza en Jesús, a ser fieles a él. Solo en él tendremos la verdadera felicidad. ¿Crees esto? ¿Lo has experimentado de alguna forma?

Jesús advierte a sus apóstoles que no tengan miedo. Les dice que la tarea a realizar es complicada, con muchas trabas. “Nada hay oculto que no llegue a ser descubierto, ni nada secreto que no llegue a saberse” (Mateo 10,26). Con estas palabras son animados a seguir su misión, sabiendo que Jesús los acompaña y está a su lado siempre. Solo hay una cosita importante a seguir y es reconocer a Jesús en todo lo que se hace, es decir, no avergonzarnos de ser católico, de rezar y mostrar amor al prójimo. Que no nos dé miedo defender la justicia y hablar por los sin voz. De defender a los que arriesgan la vida para decirle al mundo que tú nos amas. “Al que se ponga de mi parte ante los hombres, yo me pondré de su parte ante mi Padre de los cielos” (Mateo 10,32-33). ¡Gracias Señor Jesús, por ser nuestro abogado!
