HOW DO WE TREAT THE MESSENGER?

Let's not be too hasty in defining who is "the wicked one" and who (namely us) is just! We are very quick to label others as evil, because we tend to label ourselves as good guys. We don't like it when we are brought up short by a prophetic voice that brings us some bad news about our own behavior. We don't like to be reproached for transgressions of the law or charged with violations of our training.

We may condemn and abuse those who bring us up against these truths about ourselves when, if we were really good, we would thank them for helping to keep us on the right path. This is the way they treated the prophets and the way they treated Jesus. Is this also the way we treat those whose message we don't like?

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The wicked say: With revilement and torture let us put the just one to the test (Wisdom 2:12, 17-20).

Second Reading — The wisdom from above is full of mercy and good fruits (James 3:16 — 4:3).

Gospel — Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me (Mark 9:30-37).

40 Days for Life-Sept. 26- Nov. 4

The Fall Campaign is upon us. Abortion is the leading cause of death in the world, ending more lives than cardiovascular disease, cancer, AIDS, war, hunger ... or any other cause.

You can make a difference by simply joining other parishioners in prayer on the sidewalk at Planned Parenthood in Mobile. Christ the King has once again committed to Thursday mornings during the 40 days. The sacrifice of praying one hour a week at Planned Parenthood may make the difference in a young woman's life. Everyone is welcome to join us! Please contact Sue Manci Coppejans at 251-408-9007 or mmanci@bellsouth.net.
