GOD'S SUMMONS

Confronted with God's power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips," he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus' instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man."

Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" Isaiah answered, "Here I am, send me."

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won't lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be God's messenger?

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading —Isaiah is called to be a messenger for the Lord and responds, "Send me!" (Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8)

Psalms — In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord (Psalm 138).

Second Reading — Paul reminds us of the gospel he preached through which we are saved, if we believe it (1 Corinthians 15:1-11 [3-8, 11]).

Gospel — Jesus directs Simon to take his boat into deep water for a miraculous catch of fish. (Luke 5:1-11)

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time February 10, 2019

Penny Drive for Cross Catholic Outreach

Help us "create change" with a penny drive! In a competition between the grades, bring as many pennies as you can; you can help your grade get ahead by placing nickels, dimes, quarters, and dollars in other grade's containers. Pennies earn points, but all other coins and dollars are negative points. Containers for each grade will live in the youth ministry office (812 Trione Ave), and students/families can drop off donations at Edge events or the youth ministry office.

Everything that we collect will give underprivileged children scholarships to go to school and receive an education that will help them break the cycle of poverty! The penny drive will end February 20.
