Healing Violence-Related Trauma in our Community

Lisa Good, founder of Urban Grief, is a nationally recognized grief and trauma recovery counselor, who has worked tirelessly to bring healing, mentoring, and a voice to individuals and families who have been devastated by the impact of gun and other violence in our neighborhoods. Lisa will share her personal story, her current ministry to grief-stricken families in Albany, and her thoughts on ending violence in our community. Save the Date: Sunday, November 6, 9:45 to 10:45 am (between the Masses).

Annual Diocesan Appeal

The annual appeal is underway. Those who are registered parishioners and/or have given in the past have likely received information and appeal forms in the mail. Your donation supports seminarian formation (one of our parishioners is a seminarian), administrative support with human resources, real property and legal concerns. No parish can do it all, but with the diocese's assistance we can do our best. Please prayerfully plan to give through a pledge or one-time gift.

Adult Faith Formation Book Discussion

This fall, we will be reading In Whole Language: The Power of Extravagant Tenderness. Father Gregory Boyle reflects upon his experience as founder of Homeboy Industries, the largest gang-intervention, rehabilitation and re-entry program in the world, about thirty years ago. His stories about his gang ministries challenge our ideas about God, ourselves and other people inviting us to treat others and ourselves with acceptance and tenderness. Our six-session Zoom Program will be on Wednesday evenings at 7PM – October 26, November 2, 9, 16 and 30, and December 7. The book may be purchased at a discount at the Book House in Stuyvesant Plaza. For information or to get the Zoom link, please contact Dave Rowell: daverowell52@gmail.com or 518-729-4550.
